The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "4" tablespoons to each cup, and one extra for the pot. First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

- 1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
- 2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.
3. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. DON'T use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

- 1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.
- 2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.)

Rat in His Strong Box.

M. Aumont, a Belgian farmer, has committed suicide owing to the loss of valuable securities. Rats gnawed their way through a wooden deed box and destroyed the documents.

Insist on Getting It.

Some grocers say they don't keep Defiance Starch. This is because they have a stock on hand of other brands containing only 12 oz. in a package, which they won't be able to sell first, because Defiance contains 16 oz. for the same money.

Do you want 16 oz. instead of 12 oz. for same money? Then buy Defiance Starch. Requires no cooking.

The want of worthy motive has caused many a scaling down in the value of a seeming service.

IMPERIAL HERNIA CURE.

Dr. O. S. Wood cures Rupture by a new process, in a few weeks, without loss of time or inconvenience. Rectal diseases cured without the knife. Send for circular. O. S. Wood, M. D., 521 N. Y. Life Bldg., Omaha.

There is more satisfaction in telling of your mistakes than to have someone else do it for you.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 3/4-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

LEAD "SIMPLE LIFE"

STRANGE SECT WOULD FORM NEW GARDEN OF EDEN.

Claim to Be the Healthiest and Most Rational Livers on the Earth—One and All Are Said to Be Free-Thinking Christians.

The curious and romantic-looking followers of the simple life who have been attracting so much interest on the Riviera, and particularly at Mentone and Nice, during the winter, have with the warmer weather begun to move into northern Italy, and near Como there is an increasing colony of these strange people, who seem well supplied with money, and who are now in search of a secluded and favorable estate on which to form a new garden of Eden, says the Washington Star's general correspondent.

As the simple livers wear no clothing beyond sandals and one long, flowing, toga-like white gown of light woolen fabric, and as they spend almost all of their lives in the open air, they will probably settle down in one of the warm-sheltered valleys near Lake Como, where the rigors of winter are not too severe.

The queer little commonwealth has been joined by all kinds of people, including Englishmen, Germans, French and Russians.

The men wear long hair and picturesque beards, while the women, robust and the picture of vigor and health, have an almost Amazonian appearance. They pass their lives in the open air and when compelled, as during some of the recent severe weather, to sleep in houses, they remove doors, windows, carpets and curtains and sleep with scarcely any covering, on hard, simple mattresses.

They bathe at least twice a day and are strict believers in vegetarianism and an uncooked food diet; their drink is water and as far as can be ascertained they are one and all free-thinking Christians.

Of their family histories and past positions in the world they do not speak, though among them are persons of undoubted distinction. They claim to be the healthiest and the most rational livers on the earth and declare that all who desire to escape disease and unhappiness are bound in time to join their ranks and adopt their rules, which are those of nature and of Christ.

One member of the band, a well-educated German, named Paul, says that four years ago he was given up by the best physicians of Europe with not another year to live. He adopted the simple life as his last chance, rambled in the sunshine and in the fields and forests, over the mountains and Alpine pastures, sleeping at night under trees or sheltered by rocks throughout the entire summer and when winter came, instead of dying, he felt full of vigor and new life.

NO MORE HEADACHE

GENERAL WEAKNESS AND FEVER DISAPPEAR TOO.

How a Woman Was Freed from Troubles That Had Made Life Wretched for Many Years.

The immediate causes of headaches vary, but most of them come from poor or poisoned blood. In anemia the blood is scanty or thin; the nerves are imperfectly nourished and pain is the way in which they express their weakness. In colds the blood absorbs poison from the mucous surfaces, and the poison irritates the nerves and produces pain. In rheumatism, malaria and the grip, the poison in the blood produces the discomfort. In indigestion the gases from the impure matter kept in the system affect the blood in the same way.

The ordinary headache-cures at best give only temporary relief. They deaden the pain but do not drive the poison out of the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on the contrary thoroughly renew the blood and the pain disappears permanently. Women in particular have found these pills an unfailing relief in headaches caused by anemia.

Miss Stella Blocker recently said: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did me a great deal of good. I had headache nearly all the time. After I had taken three boxes of these pills I became entirely well."

"How long had you suffered?" she was asked.

"For several years. I can't tell the exact date when my illness began for it came on by slow degrees. I had been going down hill for many years."

"Did you have any other ailments?"

"I was very weak and sometimes I had fever. My liver and kidneys were affected as well as my head."

"How did you come to take the remedy that cured you?"

"I saw in a southern newspaper a statement of some person who was cured of a like trouble by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My physician hadn't done me any good, so I bought a box of these pills. After I had taken one box I felt so much better that I kept on until I became entirely well."

Miss Blocker's home is at Leander, Louisiana. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists. Besides headache they cure neuralgia, sciatica, nervous prostration, partial paralysis and rheumatism.

PALACES OF THE SULTAN.

They Bring to Stranger's Mind a Vision of Arabian Nights.

In spite of the extreme lack of architectural beauty, there is a certain picturesque quality and softness in the Constantinople street scene which forms a pleasing background to the stately palaces of the sultan, says A. Maundeville in the Era Magazine. Perhaps it is merely the contrast between the dingy wood-colored houses of the people and the pure white marble or gilded stucco of the royal buildings which bring to the stranger's mind a vision of enchanted palaces of the "Arabian Nights." The soft tints of shade, the wavering reflections in the Bosphorus, the fancy that a pair of black, dreamy eyes may be looking out through the lattice windows, the charm of the mysterious, the horror of the tragedies which rumor says have been enacted within the palace walls, the curiosity to know if there is really a trap-door and just how beautiful was the Circassian slave girl who lost the favor of her imperial master and suddenly disappeared in the dark subterranean stream connecting with the Bosphorus, and a thousand other fancies tend to enhance the vision. And the architect may tell you that the palaces have not the proper proportions, that the details do not harmonize with the size or form, that there are hundreds of private houses in America more magnificent, more durable, of better architectural design and with finer surroundings; but in spite of it all the palaces of the sultan have an irresistible charm which wraps the stranger in intense admiration and always remains with the old resident at the Turkish capital.

MISS ELLA OFF, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

SUFFERED FOR MONTHS

Pe-ru-na, the Remedy That Cured.

Miss Ella Off, 1127 Linden St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes:

"I suffered with a run-down constitution for several months, and feared that I would have to give up my work. On seeking the advice of a physician, he prescribed a tonic. I found, however, that it did me no good. On seeking the advice of our druggist, he asked me to try Pe-ru-na. In a few weeks I began to feel and act like a different person. My appetite increased, I did not have that worn-out feeling, and I could sleep splendidly. In a couple of months I was entirely recovered. I thank you for what your medicine has done for me."—Ella Off.

ROUGH ON SHAKESPEARE.

After recent bank holidays in London one of the police courts the next morning had among its "drunk and disorderly" prisoners a man who said he was William Shakespeare. "Is that your real name," asked the judge. "For just your name de guerre?" "Well, your honor," replied the prisoner, "it is true that I was not christened William Shakespeare, but you see, I acted to bring dishonor and disgrace upon a respected name."

HOPELESS CASE.

In a London bookshop a woman wanted a copy of Browning's works. "I haven't got it, madam," replied the bookseller. "I make it a rule never to keep any books I can't understand, and I can't make head or tail of Mr. Browning." Determined to buy a book anyway, the customer asked: "Have you Praed, then?" "Yes, madam," quoth the bookseller, "I've prayed, and that doesn't help me."

RESERVOIRS WELL POPULATED.

Some of the great reservoirs in the country districts that supply certain English cities with their water have become populous breeding places for water fowl and are well stocked with valuable fish.

THE ONLY WAY.

Kang Yue Wei, the Chinese reformer, was describing the hardships that are undergone for reform's sake in China.

"But reform," he said, "is never brought about except with suffering. They who carry the torch of progress make targets of themselves. Reform and persecution walk hand in hand. It is always so. It is the only way. You remember our Chinese sage, Chang Wu?"

"Chang Wu found one day among his disciples a beautiful princess. She had come to propound certain questions to the sage, but the old man's great age, his manifold infirmities, shocked her. She forgot her questions, and kneeling, she gazed at Chang Wu in silence.

"Daughter," said Chang Wu, smiling, "why do you regard me so strangely?"

The princess flushed and murmured confusedly.

"Oh, father, do you not find it very unpleasant to grow old?"

"Yes, very," Chang Wu answered. "But is there any other way of living a long time?"

ME TOO

The "Tail Enders" That Follow Genuine Articles.

It is sometimes interesting to watch the curves imitators make to get the public to buy imitations of genuine goods.

Every now and then some one will think there is a splendid opening to fix up something like Postum Coffee and advertise the same way and take some of the business.

An imitator is naturally ignorant of food values and how to skillfully make a cereal coffee, on scientific lines.

Such men first think of preparing something that looks and tastes like the original, with no knowledge of how the grains should be treated to prepare them so that the starchy part is transformed properly and the valuable nourishing elements made digestible.

Such imitations may be foisted on the public for a short time, but the people are critical and soon detect the attempt, then the imitators go out of business.

Something like 400 of these little factories have been started in various parts of this country in the past 9 years, and practically all of them have gone the "long journey." Just lately a new one has come to life and evidently hopes to insert itself in public favor by copying the style of the Postum advertising in the papers.

This is a free country and every man who makes an honest product and honestly labels it has reason for some recognition, but the public has the right to know the facts.

Postum is the one original and genuine Cereal Coffee, made skillfully and for a definite purpose. It has stood through all the wars of the imitators, has won the approval of the Physicians and the people.

People who really seek to free themselves from the coffee habit and at the same time to rebuild the soft gray matter in the nerve centers, and thus reconstruct the nervous system, broken down by coffee, can rely on Postum.

There's a reason.

HER COME-BACK.

"Well, madame," shouted Mr. Jawback, triumphantly, as he entered the house with an idea of vengeance in his brain, "your goose is cooked."

"Good gracious, my dear," cried Mrs. Jawback, anxiously, "I know this weather is frightfully warm, but do you feel so bad as that? Cooked is a strong expression. Shall I get you a drink of lemonade, or put some cracked ice on your head?"—Cleveland Leader.

FIRES THAT NEVER GO OUT.

Hearths in England Have Been Kept Glowing for Centuries.

There are domestic fires burning in Yorkshire, England, to-day which have never been out for hundreds of years. At the old-fashioned farm-houses in the dales of Yorkshire peat is still burned. The fuel is obtained from the moors and stacks of it are kept by the farmers in their stack garths.

The country round is noted for its "griddle cakes," which are made from dough baked in quaint pans suspended over the peat fires. These fires are kept glowing from generation to generation and the son warms himself at the fire which warmed his sire and his grand sire and his grand sire's sire and which will warm his son and his son's son.

There is a fire at Castleton in the Whithy district which has been burning for over 200 years. The record probably is held by a farmhouse at Osmotherly, in the same district. This fire has been burning for 500 years, and there are records to show that it has not been out during the last three centuries.
