Alex Baillie brought in a couple of loads of fine Poland China hogs, Tuesday, receiving $5.20 per hundred for same. They were beauties. Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Musser of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Mr. J. K. Barr, Miss Marie and Master John Barr, all of Lincoln, are guest of H. B. Musser and family.

We received a pleasant call on Tuesday from S. C. Chilson, who is one of our good readers living some twelve miles south of Ravenna, and who was here transacting business. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long and Editor Brown left for Lincoln last Saturday to be in attendance at the Epworth League Assembly in that city over Sunday, returning home Monday.

The following new phones have been placed this week: T. A. Taylor, Frank Foster and M. Biemond, city residences; Draper Bros., business house; George McFadden, Will Hawk, Wm. Hancock, and Jonas Hedges, farm residences. Get prices from the Keystone Lumber Co. on Rock Springs, Canon City, Maitland, Hanna and Monarch coal. Also eastern and western anthracite. The Keystone Lumber Co. is making a cut price on coal for June and July.

W. O. Mason left Tuesday morning via the Union Pacific, for Portland He will take a trip down the Pacific Coast, and will also stop at Grand Junction, Colo., to register for a chance in the drawing for the Uintah lands. Drs. Davis & Farnsworth of Grand Island, Neb., are prepared to treat all forms of chronic diseases, such as Rheumatism, Stomach disorders, Tumors, Cancers, Paralysis, Kidney diseases, etc. The doctors use, besides medicine and surgery, the x-ray, hot air baths, electricity and massage.

A petition to the village trustees was circulated Tuesday, asking the honorable board to pass an ordinance prohibiting the use of sling shots, "nigger-shooters," so called, within the corporate limits of the village. It was signed by all to whom presented, and should and undoubtedly will receive proper recognition from the board.

W. K. Storrs was down from Sargent Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nickerson of St. Edwards are guests at the home of W. H. Creary. R. J. Nightingale and family left Tuesday morning for their outing in the mountains.

Miss Anna Hunt of Aurora, was in the city Tuesday looking up a location for her millinery store. Mrs. Rube French of Pendleton, Ore., arrived this week Tuesday, on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Simpson Criss. The aged mothers were entertained this last week at the homes of Mrs. Col. Young and Mrs. Geo. Leininger.

A. P. Culley and family left Monday morning via the U. P. for Portland. They expect to be gone thirty days. Mrs. McCray and two daughters of Sargent were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Henry of this city.

Dar Grow and Gene Hickman returned from their trip south last Friday. Dar says he will make no change for the present. Misses Fannie and Bess Ford, cousins of the Misses Adamson, arrived Monday from their home at Cheyenne, Wyo., on a two weeks' visit.

Earl Thompson returned from his extended trip south, Tuesday evening looking as though his vacation had heartily agreed with him. The Misses Esther, Mary and Anna Newm n of Omaha, arrived last Thursday for an extended visit with their cousins, the Misses Lofholm.

Excavation for the foundation of Banker Culley's new residence began last Saturday. Walter Smith has the contract for building same, which is to be 24x28, with a "T" 16x22. Mrs. George Leininger's music class gave a delightful recital Monday evening of this week, and the parents of the pupils who made up the class are highly pleased and satisfied with the progress made.

E. S. Hayhurst, W. T. Gibson and F. E. Brewer left Saturday morning via the U. P. for Salt Lake, Utah, where they will spend a few weeks at the Hot Springs. They will visit other places of interest before their return. Mr. F. M. Henry of the Ravenna Creamery Co.'s branch in Loup City reports a big business for July, in that they received the immense amount of 50,154 pounds of cream at this place during that month. Pretty good, isn't it.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cooper have the past week been entertaining a number of their intimate friends with a series of perfectly appointed dinners, which have been most heartily enjoyed by those who have been fortunate in being so honored. The Baptist Aid Society, of which she is a member, surprised Grandma Smith at her home Saturday and helped her celebrate her 91st birthday. Mrs. Hunter served an elegant lunch to the friends who remembered her mother so thoughtfully.

We received a pleasant call last Thursday from our good friend, W. R. Jackson of Elm township. W. R. is rejoicing over the advent of the fourth boy in his family, who came to his home the 22nd of last month, but which occurrence has kept him so closely at home that he has had no previous chance to even hint to the editor of the happy fact. Here's good luck to the future president, anyway. Sheriff Williams took a young man named Daniel Fitzgibbons, living near Austin, to the asylum at Lincoln, yesterday. About a week ago the young man was brought before the insanity commission in Loup City and adjudged insane, though his dementia was of a mild form. Since that time it has been deemed his condition was sufficient to cause his confinement in the state asylum and the sheriff took him down there yesterday.

J. B. O'Bryan and daughter, Miss Gladys, left Saturday for a two weeks' trip to Utah Hot Springs and Denver. They may visit Portland before their return. The pretty schoolmarm's have left us, and as we must have some excitement connected with the feminine contingent to make "life worth livin," let's all whoop it up for our Queen of Carnival.

The vote on the Carnival Queen, Monday, developed the fact that Misses Cora and Jessie Leininger, Ella Taylor, Belle Mulick and Laura Benschoter are to be the five leading favorites in the race for the honors. Now chose the lady you wish for Queen of the Carnival. We understand that Litchfield gives it out strong that they intend to win with a candidate from that live little berg, and it behooves Loup City to be up and moving, if they expect to provide the Carnival with the Queen.

The new catalogue of the Grand Island Business & Normal College of Grand Island, Neb., is now being sent out and should be read by every ambitious young man and woman. One remarkable feature of this school is the plan it has of giving students who wish it, time on expenses, and allowing them to pay after the graduate and have been placed in positions. Several from this county have arranged to enter soon. It is said to be one of the greatest Business Colleges in the United States and its catalogue is sent for the asking.

Miss Ernie Odendahl gave a very pleasant and unique lawn social and luncheon at her home last Friday evening to a few of her choice lady friends, the only exception being the presence among the guests of the two editors, undoubtedly to add dignity to the occasion, and the presence of two of Loup City's finest to wait on the fair assembly. The guests arrived shortly after the hour of six and marched to the elegant baquet board on the beautiful lawn, the editors being placed at the head and foot of the long table, with the fair guests ranged along each side in even numbers. As soon as the guests were comfortably seated, they were served by two prince of waiters, Dr. S. A. Allen and Prof. Newton Vance, who had graciously consented to perform the very difficult function, much to the surprise and pleasure of the guests, and who did so in the most artistic manner. At the close of the excellent repast, the remaining hours of the evening were passed with choice vocal and instrumental music, readings, archery and a variety of amusements after which the guests departed showering thanks upon the fair hostess for giving them one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season. Those present were: The Misses Mary and Edna Minshall, Belle Mulick, Blanche Bennett, Ethel Lewis, Henry Young, Hattie Froehlich, Beth Zimmerman, Edna West of Boston, Clara Reynard of Ottawa, Kan., and Josie Polski of Ashton, and the Messrs. A. S. Allen, N. Vance, E. A. Brown and the writer.
