About eighty of our young people were in attendance and a splendid time was reported. S. F. Reynolds returned from his extended trip to the east last Friday. Of course, he had a No. 1 time and reports to that effect, but is glad to get back to the old camping ground. Asking Mr. Reynolds what he was going to do now, he said he should buy stock and was on the market for anything in that line the dear people had to sell. There are a great many people now-a-days who delight in telling us what they think of a hypocrite. He is indeed a despicable creature, and still it is worth our while to make a thorough analysis of his make up and to make a real diagnosis of his disease. With this end in view, the pastor of the Baptist church will deliver a sermon next Sunday evening on "Hypocrisy." A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

A big force of men are rushing the work on the First National Bank and the brick work is climbing rapidly up and. What did we say would happen when Culey built his new bank. Just look at the new cement walks going up all over town. We are under obligations to our good friend, Henry Dolling, Monday of this week for a mess of new corn and a juicy pumpkin, the first of the season. The contract has been awarded Ohlsen Bros. for the new Catholic church, the same to cost some $15,000, and will be commenced in a short time. Next week will be strenuous times for Loup City, with a big circus and menagerie on the 22nd to be followed the next three days with the fair and Carnival. Better be here the entire four days. They will go to North Yakima, Wash., for a visit and then to the Portland Exposition. Last week we spoke of the Ravenna Creamery Co. taking in over fifty thousand pounds of cream during July. We should have said 50,150 pounds of butter made, so lay the error to the writer and understand there was received over 150,000 pounds of cream. A good lady friend from the country, hearing that the editor was the brother of a preacher, with the same love for yellow-legged chickens, brought in one of the juicy breed the first of the week, but ordered the editor not to mention the name of the donor, on pain of never having that history repeat itself. And we p-on is-d, for we love chicken.

HYMENEAL.

Lofholm-Criss. One of the pleasantest weddings of the season was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lofholm, in this city, last Friday evening, the occasion being the marriage of their third daughter, Miss Sarah A. Lofholm, to Mr. Simpson N. Criss, also of this city. The beautiful lawn at the home was lighted by a profusion of Japanese lanterns, where the celebration of the nuptials occurred. A little before nine o'clock in the evening, after the invited guests to the number of perhaps a hundred had assembled, and to the sweet strains of the wedding march, the bridal party, led by the Baptist minister, Rev. H. S. Wold, and the attendants, Misses Minnie and Etta Lofholm, sisters of the bride, as bridesmaids, and Messrs. Frank Foster and L. Banks Hale, as groomsmen, and with petite Lois Henry as flower girl marched from the house to the front porch, draped with lace curtains, where in a few appropriate words the man of God made the happy couple man and wife, following which the guests passed the party offering their well-worled congratulations. The scene was a very pretty one and calculated to impress those present with its memories for many a long day. At the close of the ceremony, the guests were seated at long tables covering the lawn, where refreshments were served, after which they repaired to their several homes, breathing best wishes to the newly made household. The bride is one of Loup City's very choicest girls, and a general favorite with her legion of friends here with whom she has lived since childhood, and where she has passed through her school days and since been one of the choicest teachers in the county. The groom is one of our steadiest and most industrious young men and we believe will make a model husband to the lovely girl who has made him the choice of her life. The happy couple immediately went to housekeeping in the W. H. Morris cottage, where they will be until the erection of a home of their own, which Mr. Criss will begin at once. THE NORTHWESTERN wishes them the best of all the good things of life and a happy and prosperous future. Miss Rhoda Reed of York, arrived Tuesday evening for a short visit with her uncle, D. M. Gue and family, of Webster township. Our good friends, Oliver Dubry and August Jaeschka are among those who have renewed allegiance to THE NORTHWESTERN the past few days Thanks. Jenner's Park is the finest place in this section of the country for picnic parties and entertainments of a like character. Mr. Jenner will make satisfactory arrangements with those desiring the use of the park for such purposes. Editor Brown wants one hundred of his subscribers to come in and pay up arrears on subscription. If we had no greater number than that who should come in to us for that purpose, we should be ashamed to mention it. We see him and go two or three hundred better. Please do not all come in at once. Cook & Barrett's railroad show exhibited in Marion, Mich., June 15, and the Dispatch-Leader of that place in speaking of the show after it had gone says: "The Cook & Barrett circus which exhibited here yesterday gave the best performance of any show that has ever visited our city. There was not a poor act presented and several were the best we have ever seen. The slack wire, the contortion act and the barrel kicking were worthy of special mention." When the press speaks in this manner of a show after it is gone, there can be no doubt of its character. They show in Loup City on Tuesday, Aug. 22nd, and give a grand street parade in the forenoon.
