Public Sale.

I will offer for sale at my home in Loup City on Thursday, Sept. 14, 1905, commencing at 2 o'clock p. m. sharp, the following property: Two young mares, one good milk cow, one double harness, with robes, etc., one upright piano, household furniture, library, Century Dictionary and Encyclopedia, sectional oak glass book cases, office furniture and fixtures, desks and cases, garden tools and implements, etc. For terms of sale see bills.
T. S. NIGHTINGALE.

Ladies.

I have changed my location from A. E. Chase's store to the building formerly occupied by C. C. Cooper as living rooms, opposite the St. Elmo hotel, and I will be here the first of the month from St. Louis with a complete and up-to-date line of millinery, no old goods left over from other seasons, and invite the ladies of Loup City and vicinity to find me in my new location and inspect a well line of millinery. I will have the trimmer I had last season, who is recognized in the wholesale house as one of the best, who has won her reputation in the cities, not a country town, and will guarantee to please, both in style and work. Thanking my old customers for their liberal patronage the past season, and hoping to greet them and many new ones in my new location, I am,
Resp. Yours,
A. ANNA HUNT.

Notice To Non-Resident.

To Edward E. Teeter, non-resident defendant: You will take notice that on the 14th day of August, 1905, the plaintiff herein, Ellen E. ## Republican County Convention

The Republican county convention met in Loup City, at Society hall, on Tuesday of this week. We have received too late for publication this week a rough draft of the convention's proceedings prepared by the secretary, from which we will call the principal work of the convention:

The convention was called to order about 11 a. m. by W. R. Mellor, chairman of the county central committee, who read the call of the convention.

Robt. P. Starr was selected as temporary chairman, with C. T. McKinnie secretary and W. M. Smelser assistant secretary.

On motion of Judge Wall, a committee on credentials of one from each township in which there were no contests was appointed, as follows: Loup City, J. S. Pedler; Clay, John Mathewson; Rockville, H. F. Tangerman; Webster, M. A. Gilbert; Harrison, A. H. Gray; Logan, H. B. Musser; Oak Creek, H. Spurling; Scott, Chas. Greenwald; Washington, G. H. Whitman; Bristol, Wm. Jacobs.

A committee on resolutions was then appointed by the chair as follows: Senator Wall, R. J. Nightingale, H. Gibson of Webster, E. E. Tracy of Logan and C. E. Ackenback of Harrison.
Other committees were appointed as follows:
On order of business: Wright Reynolds, R. S. Nightingale and J. B. Ford
On permanent organization: P. G. Paige, S. A. Allen and Mike Chelowski.
Recess was then taken until 2 p. m.

Meeting was again called to order at 2 o'clock.
Committee on permanent organization reported, recommending the temporary organization be made permanent, which was adopted.

Committee on credentials reported the following delegates entitled to a seat in the convention, and the report was adopted:

Ashton—Theo. D. Wilson, Julius F. Heuschausen, Theo. Ojendyk, John E. Shoup, Thos. E. Jamrog, W. Duncker, H. Smelser and A. Wanek.
Committee on order of business made report which was adopted by the convention:
The following ticket was then named by the convention:
Sheriff—L. A. Williams.
County Judge—Geo. W. Hunter.
Coroner—Dr. S. A. Main.
Treasurer—Clyde Truelsen.
County Clerk—John Mathewson.
County Superintendent—M. H. Mead.
Surveyor—To be supplied.
Committee on resolutions presented the following which voiced the sentiments of the convention and was heartily adopted:

RESOLUTIONS
We, the Republicans of Sherman county, Nebraska, in convention assembled, congratulate the American people upon their unprecedented record of success, and the unbounded prosperity which prevails in every section of our country.
We call upon the people to witness the transition from Democratic misrule and limitless disaster to the long line of Republican achievements and national success, both domestic and foreign.
Every promise made by the Republican party during the decade which has just passed has been amply fulfilled and every prophecy it has uttered has become an accomplished fact to the extent that every legitimate enterprise within the limits of this great nation has met with unequalled and unparalleled success, till our nation has become the marvel and the admiration of the world.
We commend Roosevelt upon the wise, far seeing and able policies that has marked his course, and upon his efficient and honest administration as the chief executive of the United States.
We congratulate the people of the state of Nebraska upon its honest, able and efficient administration, and we express our pride in the phenomenal development of the state at large and the thrift and prosperity evidenced everywhere within its borders.
Republicanism can find no better encomium than the contrast constantly presented between Fusion and Republican rule within the state.
In the interests of justice, on behalf of patriotism and good government, we pledge ourselves anew to the time honored principles and doctrines of the Republican party and we cordially invite the honest and patriotic, honest government and good administrators, county, state and National and all who believe in progressive policies to join with us in this coming campaign.

Delegates to the State Convention were then selected as follows: J. W. Burleigh, Aaron Wall, Theo Ojendyk, John Cressler, R. P. Starr, R. J. Nightingale and A. H. Gray.
The following county central committee was then chosen: W. R. Mellor, chairman; R. P. Starr, secretary; with these township committeemen: Loup City, R. J. Nightingale; Oak Creek, H. Spurling; Washington, Clarence Landen; Webster, W. B. Reynolds; Ashton, Julius Bushausen; Clay, Ira Daddow; Scott, E. H. Ormsby; Bristol, G. W. Holmes; Logan, E. E. Tracy; Elm, A. Zahn; Rockville, P. G. Paige; Harrison, J. Pleasance; Hazard, K. Munn.

On motion of Judge Wall that this convention stand by each and every candidate, every delegate arose to their feet in affirmation.
There being no further business before the convention, adjournment was taken.

A. P. CULLEY, President. W. F. MASON, Cashier.
