The work of the county Republican convention here last week commends itself in its entirety to all fair minded republicans. The ticket is made up of good, well equipped men for the various offices within the gift of the people, and each one gained his nomination honestly, fairly and impartially. To say that the convention was packed in the interest of any faction, man or set of men, is a gratuitous insult to every delegate to the convention. On the hypothesis that a corpse never kicks, the Republican convention was not one of that kind, and the effort of the populist organ to make a mountain out of a molehill, in its spasmodic attack of last week, is more amusing than serious. To be sure, there appeared before the convention two contesting delegations from one of the townships, but the chairman, in the fairest manner appointed one delegate from each township, other than the contesting one, on the committee on credentials and they settled the matter to the entire satisfaction of the convention, save only the unseated ones, and the convention went ahead with its work and made a wise selection of candidates whom the convention by a rising vote pledged themselves to stand by and work for, without one dissenting vote. Does that look as though the Republicans were torn by dissensions and internecine strife? Of course, it was expected our worthy contemporary would, with the customary populist howl, attempt to decry the convention's work, but the people, who are used to such pleasantries on the part of the party of howls, will take it as a matter of fact and let it pass as such much wind.

Bro. Brown, of the Times Independent, who has for lo! these many years upheld the banner of populism and worked hard for a party that is fast passing into history as a has-been, and even now has a hold on but few counties in this, the only state, almost, that has a populist party organization, received his reward for all these years of untiring party work at the late populist county convention, when as a candidate for county treasurer he only received a paltry eight votes out of the dying cause for the party's nomination for that office. Bro. Brown should remember that an editor should confine himself to the duties of a "hewer of wood and carrier of water" for his party, and not aspire to any place of honor or emoluments. Remember Bro. Brown, that the offices in many instances go to those who have done the least for party weal, and that those who do the drudgery, carry the heaviest burdens and do the most to keep the party at its best, are the last to receive returns. We are astonished and mystified that an editor should take in earnest any pledges looking to party reward.

The late populist party convention for Sherman county, held in this city some two weeks since, was a queer affair. They seem to believe and work with the end in view that it is perfectly right and proper to make fish of one and fowl of another, to use a homely phrase. They concluded that Supt. Hendrickson should not succeed himself in office, because he had held office several terms, and then re-nominated Judge Angier for his office, because he had held the office aspired to a number of years. To be sure, some of the populist brethren assured us they provided for Mr. Angier because they had no other available timber, but others acknowledged that they renominated the judge as they were assured he would get a large number of republican votes necessary to his election, which a new man could not get. How is that for party principle? Then we are to understand they simply nominated the judge to hold the office inside their party lines!

A correspondent from Ashton to the Times last week, who is generally understood to be a socialist, and who attempted to break into the republican county convention as a delegate from Ashton township, hurled anathemas at the convention's proceedings because, forsooth, he was gently pitched over the transom, and not allowed to enter the sacred portals. His insensate mouthings are too well known even among those who know him best to be of any value save to possibly a few kindred spirits, and to answer his screed would be to put a low value on newspaper space. If, as it is claimed by some, he has left socialism and came over to republicanism, it would take a powerful microscope to detect it from his talk and rant as shown by last week's Times.

Among the numerous candidates for the supreme judgeship before the coming state republican convention are Judge Reese, Duffie, Davidson, Ames, Calkins, Letton and a number of others. Take your pick.

The Republican party cannot afford to elevate to the supreme bench one who is in the least tainted with Bartleyism. Judge Ames' past record renders his candidacy unwise to say the least.

Let us make a prediction. The republican ticket selected last week will be elected to a man. Mark the prediction.

Ashton News.

Dr. Wanek reports the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grobowski.

Cal. Schaupp moved his family into the rear of his store building, which has been fitted up into living rooms.

The Taylor elevator paid out $1,500 for grain last Saturday. How is that for prosperity?

The society of St. Isidor held a picnic last Sunday in Mr. Jankowski's grove. All report a merry time. This society is a Catholic benevolent society and is one of the strongest in Sherman county.

Thos. Jamrog and daughter Clara are attending the State Fair at Lincoln this week.

Bob Szwanek is in Chicago making the fall purchases for their store, some of the goods having already arrived.

Mr. Jas. Bartunek will move his family to St. Paul this week. We are sorry to lose Jim as he is considered one of our hustling merchants, but we wish him success in his new home.

The Ashton public schools opened with a full attendance, Monday. Prof. Currier says he will keep the youngsters out of mischief by giving them plenty to do.

The new lumber company's sheds are nearly completed and are being filled with the choicest lumber. We bespeak success for the new enterprise.

Stanley Galazinski will begin the erection of his new residence at once. We understand this will be one of the best residences in Ashton.

County Clerk Gibson was in our burg last Sunday consulting with some of the other "sore-heads" of the defunct socialist party, who tried to control the republican primaries, but had to "hike."

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Kettle entertained at a dancing party in the M. W. A. hall, last Monday evening.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Josefa Kalkowski to Michael Pawlowski, on Sept. 11th.

Freddie Jakubowski is seriously ill with peritonitis, which resulted from a kick of a cow.

Several of our young people are attending Business College at St. Paul. Representative Smelser and wife are taking a look at the pumpkins at the State Fair this week.

Hymeneal.

The marriage of Miss Katherine Polski to Mr. Claire A. Kettle, was solemnized Tuesday morning, August 29th, at 10 o'clock in the St. Francis church at Ashton, Father Radka officiating. The bride was attired in an exquisite gown of white silk. Her veil was held in place by sprays of lilies of the valley and she carried a beautiful shower of bride's roses.

Misses Josie Bogacz, Clara and Helen Jamrog and May Kettle acted as bridesmaids, and all wore beautiful gowns of blue crepe de chine. Miss Josie Polski, sister of the bride, acted as maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of pink silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. Stephen Polski.

After the ceremony all repaired to the home of the bride, where a bountiful dinner was served on the lawn. About 175 guests were in attendance. The presents were many and beautiful.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Polski, of Ashton. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kettle. We join their many friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Obituary.

Mrs. Alice Fletcher died Sept. 3rd, 1905, at her home near Arcadia. She was born Feb. 27th, 1860, in Bradford county, Penn. The days of her youth were spent at Verona, Wis. At the age of fourteen she united with the Baptist church at that place and her life has been an exemplification of her belief. She came to Nebraska in 1878 with her parents, and was married to Milton J. Fletcher Dec. 24, 1879. This union was blessed with three children, two sons and a daughter, who died in infancy. She leaves a husband, two sons, mother, brother and two sisters, to mourn her loss. Her life was exemplified by any deed of kindness she could do to anyone in need of a cheering word. During her entire illness, which was prolonged through many months, she was patient, suffering great pain, but she never complained, although she clung to life for the sake of her loved ones, she was ready when the Master called.

At last accounts, ex-Speaker Henderson was lying at death's door at his home in Iowa. He is one of the greatest, brainiest and most prominent republicans of the present day.

Some of the county superintendents elected under the old order of things were scarcely calculated to sustain Nebraska's low rate of illiteracy, and State Superintendent McBrien announces that the new law requiring all such officials to hold first grade certificates will be strictly enforced. Certificates issued to themselves by superintendents elected two years ago will be held invalid and of no effect. Every man who aspires to manage the public school system of his county must pass a bona-fide examination in the higher branches of education—not an unreasonable requirement by any means.—St. Paul Republican.

A. P. CULLEY, President. W. F. MASON, Cashier.
