

Tumors Conquered Without Operations

Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Cases of Mrs. Fox and Miss Adams.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, tumor.

So-called "wandering pain" may come from its early stages, or the presence of danger may be made manifest by excessive menstruation accompanied by unusual pain extending from the ovaries down the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or operation or displacement, don't wait for time to conquer your fears and go through the horrors of a hospital operation; secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use and write Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., for advice.

Read these strong letters from grateful women who have been cured:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First Letter.)
"In looking over your book I see that your medicine cures Tumor of the Uterus. I have been to a doctor and he tells me I have a tumor. I will be more than grateful if you can help me, as I do so dread an operation."
—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut St., Bradford, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second Letter.)
"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine."

"Eighteen months ago my monthlies stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician, and was told that I had a tumor on the uterus and would have to undergo an operation."

"I soon after read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After taking five bottles as directed, the tumor is entirely gone. I have again been examined by the physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my monthlies around once more, and I am entirely well. I shall never be without a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the house."
—Fannie D. Fox, Bradford, Pa.

Another Case of Tumor Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"About three years ago I had intense pain in my stomach, with cramps and raging headaches. The doctor prescribed for me, but finding that I did not get any better he examined me and, to my surprise, declared I had a tumor in the uterus."

"I felt sure that it meant my death warrant, and was very despondent. I spent hundreds of dollars in doctoring, but the tumor kept growing. All the doctor said that nothing but an operation would save me. Fortunately I corresponded with my aunt in the New England States, who advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before submitting to an operation, and I at once started taking a regular treatment, finding to my great relief that my general health began to improve, and after a few weeks I noticed that the tumor had reduced in size. I kept on taking the Compound, and in ten months it had entirely disappeared without an operation, and using no medicine but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and words fail to express how grateful I am for the good it has done me."
—Miss Luella Adams, Colquhoun Hotel, Seattle, Wash.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and should give confidence and hope to every sick woman.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all ailing women to write to her at Lynn, Mass., for advice.

QUEER CRADLES.

What Children Are Rocked In—Just as Happy.

When a baby is born in Guinea all sorts of funny things happen to it. Its mother buries it in the sand and its wail, so it cannot get into bad mischief, and this is the only cradle it knows anything about.

The little Lapp infant is cradled in a shoe—his mother's. This is a big affair covered with skin and stuffed with soft moss. This can be hung or a tree or covered up with snow while mamma goes to church or any place where babies are not invited.

The baby of India rides in a basket which hangs from his mother's head or from her hip, or in a hammock. In some parts the baby's nose is adorned with a nose ring, and in others its face is wrapped in a veil like its mother's.

The Chinese baby is tied to the back of an older child.

The Mongolian infants travel about in bags slung on a camel's back.

In some countries the mothers lay their babies where a stream of water falls on their heads. This is to make them tough, which it does unless the babies die as a result of this treatment. Another mother covers her baby's head with paste, while the Tartar baby is covered with butter. The Turkish baby is salted—perhaps to keep it sweet—while the worst fate of all falls to the lot of the newly born children in Bulgaria. Their mothers put a hot omelette on the little ones' heads to make them solid and protect them from sunstroke. The Bulgarian baby doesn't like it any better than you would. He makes a great howl about it, but it is not a bit of use. His mother thinks she knows better about some things than he does, so he has to submit, which he does with a very bad grace indeed.

GOING FAR FOR PURE WATER

Los Angeles Proposes to Go 240 Miles Away for Supply.

A notable water works project is proposed by Los Angeles, Cal., for a better supply of water. Never before, so far as we know, has an American city proposed to go so far afield (240 miles) for water, and with the exception of the pipe line for the supply of the Coolgardie gold fields of western Australia do we not know of so long a water supply conduit anywhere in the world. The Coolgardie pipe line is only thirty inches in diameter, but it is about 330 miles in length. Instead of being a gravity line water is pumped through it to an elevation of 1,313 feet. This lift is distributed between nine pumping stations, and the nominal daily capacity of the conduit and pumps is 6,000,000 gallons. The causes for going so far for water in western Australia and in California are in some respects similar, but differ materially in that at Los Angeles there is a highly developed and prosperous community instead of a series of gold-mining camps. For years Los Angeles has obtained close at hand water enough to supply its most pressing needs at least, but its future and that of both town and country around it depend upon a large increase in the water supply. The near-by sources are not sufficient for the prospective wants of the city and its suburbs, and are more than needed for irrigation. If the future of the city will warrant so large an outlay, and that future certainly looks bright, then Los Angeles is to be congratulated on having at least solved a water problem which has been more perplexing and serious than outsiders have suspected and that most of its own citizens even yet fully realize.

Never Satisfied—A Fable.

One day a ragged beggar was creeping along the street. He carried in his hand an old wallet and he asked every passerby for a few cents. As he was grumbling at his lot he kept wondering why it was that people who had so much were never satisfied, but were always wanting more.

"If I only had enough to eat and wear I should be satisfied," said the beggar.

Just at that moment Fortune came down the street. She saw the beggar and stopped. She said to him:

"Listen! I have long wished to help you. Hold your wallet and I will pour this gold into it. But I will pour only on this condition. All that falls into the wallet shall be pure gold, but all that falls upon the ground shall become dust. Do you understand?"

"Oh, yes, I understand," said the beggar.

"Then have a care," said Fortune. "Your wallet is old."

He opened his wallet quickly and the yellow metal was soon pouring in.

"Is that enough?"

"Not yet," said the beggar.

"Isn't it cracking?" asked Fortune.

"Never fear; just a little more," said the beggar. "Add just another handful."

Another handful was added and the wallet burst from end to end.

Every housekeeper should know that if they will buy Defiance Cold Water Starch for laundry use they will save not only time, because it never sticks to the iron, but because each package contains 16 oz.—one full pound—while all other Cold Water Starches are put up in 3/4-pound packages, and the price is the same, 10 cents. Then again because Defiance Starch is free from all injurious chemicals. If your grocer tries to sell you a 12-oz. package it is because he has a stock on hand which he wishes to dispose of before he puts in Defiance. He knows that Defiance Starch has printed on every package in large letters and figures "16 ozs." Demand Defiance and save much time and money and the annoyance of the iron sticking. Defiance never sticks.

We pity the man who is unappreciated to the extent that his wife does not believe his smoking on the porch will drive away mosquitoes, and that he really smokes to keep the mosquitoes away from her fair skin.

To the housewife who has not yet become acquainted with the new things of everyday use in the market, and who is reasonably satisfied with the old, we would suggest that a trial of Defiance Cold Water Starch be made at once. Not alone because it is guaranteed by the manufacturers to be superior to any other brand, but because each 16 oz package contains 16 ozs., while all the other kinds contain but 12 ozs. It is safe to say that the lady who once uses Defiance Starch will use no other. Quality and quantity must win.

Many hands want light work.

When Your Grocer Says

he does not have Defiance Starch, you may be sure he is afraid to keep it until his stock of 12 oz. packages are sold. Defiance Starch is not only better than any other Cold Water Starch, but contains 16 oz. to the package and sells for same money as 12 oz. brands.

Don't be ungrateful.

GOOD BLOOD FOR BAD

Rheumatism and Other Blood Diseases are Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"In the lead mines I was at work on my knees with my elbows pressed against rock walls, in dampness and extremes of cold," said Mr. J. G. Meukel, of 2975 Jackson avenue, Dubuque, Iowa, in describing his experience to a reporter, "and it is not surprising that I contracted rheumatism. For three years I had attacks affecting the joints of my ankles, knees and elbows. My ankles and knees became so swollen I could scarcely walk on uneven ground and a little pressure from a stone under my feet would cause me so much pain that I would nearly sink down. I was often obliged to lie in bed for several days at a time. My friends who were similarly troubled were getting no relief from doctors and I did not feel encouraged to throw money away for nothing. By chance I read the story of Robert Yates, of the Klauer Manufacturing Co., of Dubuque, who had a very bad case of rheumatism. I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, the remedy he had used. In three or four weeks after beginning to use the pills, I was much better and in three months I was well. The swelling of the joints and the tenderness disappeared. I could work steadily and for eight years I have had no return of the trouble. My whole family believe in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Both my sons use them. We consider them a household remedy that we are sure about."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills did for Mr. Meukel they are doing for hundreds of others. Every dose sends galloping through the veins, pure, strong, rich red blood that strikes straight at the cause of all ill health. The new blood restores regularity, and braces all the organs for their special tasks. Get the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at your druggists' or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N.Y.

Johnny's Lesson.

There was a great commotion in the back yard. Mother hurried to the window to see Johnny chasing the cat with stones.

"Why, Johnny, what are you doing? What is the matter with kitty?" she called.

"She's all dirty, mother. Somebody shut her up in the coal-hole."

"Is that all?" mother wanted to know.

"Why, yes," said Johnny. "She's dirty and black and horrid. We don't want her around."

Presently Johnny came in crying, and ran to his mother for help. He had fallen into a puddle and was dripping with mud. "O, mother, mother!" he cried, sure of help from her.

"Jane, she said quietly to the nurse, who was sewing near by, 'do you know where there are any good-sized gravel stones?'"

"Stones, Ma'am?" asked Jane.

"Yes," said the mother, "to throw at Johnny. He's been in a puddle and is dirty and black and horrid."

Johnny felt as if this was more than he could bear. "Please, mother, I'll never do it again," he cried in humble tones. "Poor kitty! I see now how bad I made her feel."

Johnny was then washed and comforted. He did not soon forget the little lesson of kindness to those in misfortune.

DISFIGURING HUMOR.

Brushed Scales from Face Like Powder—Doctor Said Lady Would Be Disfigured for Life—Cuticura Works Wonders.

"I suffered with eczema all over my body. My face was covered; my eyebrows came out. I had tried three doctors, but did not get any better. I then went to another doctor. He thought my face would be marked for life, but my brother-in-law told me to get Cuticura. I washed with Cuticura Soap, applied Cuticura Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. I could brush the scales off my face like powder. Now my face is just as clean as it ever was.—Mrs. Emma White, 641 Cherrier Place, Camden, N. J., April 25, '05."

Most people are overstocked with good intentions.

He Ought to Know.

The late John W. Mackey was attending to business at the great Comstock mine one day when a party of tourists approached and asked if he knew of a guide who would take them around. Evidently none of them knew him. Mackey offered to escort them, and did so, explaining the mystery of gold and silver quartz mining. When they had emerged the visitors thanked the guide. Among them was Andrew D. White, recently ambassador to Germany, and at that time president of Cornell university. "Here my man, take this," he said. "Your explanation of the working of the mine has been singularly clear and informing."

"Well, it ought to be," replied the guide, as he slipped the half dollar in his overalls pocket, "I dug 'em and I own 'em."

She Was Used.

"I hear you have a little sister at your house," said a Chicago grocer to a small boy. "Yes, sir," said Johnny. "Do you like that?" was queried. "I wish it was a boy," said Johnny, "so I could play marbles with him, an' baseball." "Well," said the storekeeper, "why don't you exchange your little sister for a boy?" Johnny reflected for a minute, then he said rather sorrowfully: "We can't now. It's too late. We've used her four days."

Crushed.

"Why am I like a pin?" asked Mr. Jones, triumphantly, of his wife. He expected she was going to say, "Because you are so sharp," and he was simply paralyzed when she replied: "Because if you should get lost it wouldn't be worth while to spend time looking for you."

Suffered 23 Years From Constipation and Stomach Trouble

Wilbert Thompson never knew a well day—he had been constipated all his life—many doctors treated him, but all failed to even help him—his health failed rapidly and on January 21, 1903, Mrs. Thompson asked us to suggest a treatment for her husband. We thought the case too serious and recommended that a specialist be consulted—but he also failed to help the patient—NOW HE IS WELL.

Mull's Grape Tonic Cured Him

Mrs. Thompson first wrote us as follows: "My husband, aged 34, suffers from sharp pains in his stomach and sometimes thinks it is his heart. Let me know by return mail what causes the pain, if you can. Mr. Thompson has been treated by several doctors, but they have given him up."

We promptly advised that a first-class specialist be consulted. We quote: "We want to sell Mull's Grape Tonic, because we know it will cure constipation, but $6 a bottle is no object to us when a human life is at stake, and if your husband's case is as serious as you state, we suggest you consult a reliable specialist, not the advertising kind, promptly. At the same time knowing that Mull's Grape Tonic could do no harm, we advised its use until a physician could be consulted. January 23th, Mrs. Thompson wrote that a physician had been consulted. He diagnosed the case as being chronic constipation and dyspepsia. His treatment was followed faithfully, but there was no perceptible improvement in Mr. Thompson's health. Then he began taking Mull's Grape Tonic and on September 3, 1903, we received the following letter from Mrs. Thompson:

"You will remember that I wrote to you last January in regard to my husband's health. It is four months since he quit taking Mull's Grape Tonic for constipation, which he suffered from since birth. He took just 24 bottles of it and is perfectly cured. He is much stronger and has gained considerably in flesh. I cannot thank you enough for Mull's Grape Tonic. It is worth its weight in gold. Just $12 cured him and he has spent hundreds of dollars with doctors who did him no good. It did it and you claimed it would."

Very respectfully yours, MRS. W. H. THOMPSON, 801 Main St., Peoria, Ill.

Mr. Thompson stopped taking Mull's Grape Tonic in June, 1903. He has been completely cured and has taken no other medicine since that date. Over two years and no return of the disease, should prove a permanent cure.
