We received a pleasant call on Monday from our good friend, A. P. Paulson of Boelus. Mr. Paulson is an ardent supporter of John Mathewson for county clerk, and he well might be, and for good reason. Some eight years since, while living on Wiggie Creek, a fire burned his residence and everything therein, and in which he lost a little daughter, Mr. Mathewson was the first to call and render deep sympathy and substantial assistance, and Mr. Paulson, with tears in his manly eyes, recalled the incident, and said to his dying day he would never forget Honest John Mathewson and his friendship on that occasion, and was insistent on THE NORTHWESTERN saying John was one of nature's noblemen and he wanted to see the gentleman placed in the clerk's office and anything Mr. Paulson could say or do toward that end would be done. And that is the kind of a man John Mathewson is. Such a man is entitled to the best going.

IN A PAINFUL SITUATION.
Distinguished Traveler Victim of Mislake of Bell Boy.
The train on which the distinguished citizen was traveling for the purpose of fulfilling a lecture engagement was late and he arrived at his destination only an hour or two before the time appointed for the meeting.
He went straight to a hotel and was shown up to his room.
"Boy," he said, "bring me a whisky."
The boy went to execute the mission, and a few moments later a committee from the local society under whose auspices he was to appear called upon him in his room.
He was conferring with the committee when the boy returned, bearing a tray containing a glass of water and a smaller glass with a red liquid in it.
"What's this?" he demanded.
"It's the whisky you ordered, sir."
"I didn't order any whisky!" he gasped. "I ordered a whisky broom!"
But every member of the committee representing the Turkeyville Total Abstinence Society will believe in his dying day that the distinguished lecturer got exactly what he had ordered on that occasion.

European City Growing.
As the increased traffic which new railways will bring to Trieste will necessitate larger harbor facilities than the present contracts call for, the government has decided to change its plans and to construct at once a new harbor in the bay of Muggia of a capacity at least equal to that of the old one to the northwest of the city. A considerable quantity of granulated rice and rice flour was exported from Trieste to New York and Philadelphia during the last year. This article is laid down in the United States at from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents a pound, and is said to be used for horse feed in the Eastern States.
Negus Bars the Way.
The chief interests connecting Abyssinia with the outside world are the powerful influence of the Negus and the possible later connections with the interior of Africa through instrumentalities in his possession. The French, English and Italians have for a long time been carrying on correspondence with the Negus with the view of developing the industries of these countries.

IF YOU BUY

a heating stove without a reputation, because it is low priced, and you take it home and put a fire in it and it does not do the work as you think it ought to, what are you going to do?
There is trouble ahead, no matter what is done.
You know, or, if not, it can be proved to you, before you take a genuine Round Oak home, that it is absolutely the best of all heating stoves. It is guaranteed—you are not allowed to take any chances.
We, therefore, advise our customers that it is economy for them to buy the genuine Round Oak.
We know that, for soft coal, with the new hot blast it makes the finest fire ever seen in a heating stove; that it will also burn hard coal (with or without magazine) to your perfect satisfaction; also coke or wood, and it will last. How long do you think the ordinary cheap heating stove will stand up? There is a point it will pay you well to look into.
Only the genuine has the name "Round Oak" on the leg.

Sold by
P. O. REED

"This is the famous, genuine Round Oak, Fritz—the stove you heard about 'way over in Germany. It is conceded to be the best heating stove in the world. It is the most popular stove ever made, and has the largest sale."

The Man With The Gun.

Most every farmer knows this fellow—not the true sportsman, who will seek permission before he will raid a man's farm and who will courteously observe the rights of the farmer respecting the game which may be on his land, but the pirate and pothunter who is out to kill and slaughter every living thing not strictly domesticated, who hunts not for sport, but that he may sell his pothunting spoils. This fellow will bunch and kill the bevy of quail which you have been feeding and protecting, the red and gray squirrels which are your household pets, will cut your barbed wire fences, leave the gates open shoot among and frighten your stock and is the very worst all-round municipal nuisance which ever gets loose in the country. In some communities the farmers have organized and agreed to arrest and prosecute this pirate if he ever sets foot on their land, and this example should be generally followed. Aside from any value which game birds may have as food, they are all of inestimable value to the farmer as weed seed eaters and insect destroyers, and with the game birds we would include the hawks and owls, whose living is almost wholly obtained from the vermin pests of the farm. The presence of this wild bird life and the importance of protecting it are subjects which the farmers may well interest themselves in, and one of the most important steps in connection with the matter is the banishment of the man with the gun from their respective farms.—Des Moines Register and Leader.

To the Public.

I have recently secured Blondin & Leon's celebrated Rip Van Winkle Co. to play here on the night of Monday, Oct. 23. I take this method of notifying the patrons of the house that I consider this company one of the best and strongest on the road this season. They come to us highly recommended, with the stamp of metropolitan approval and a dramatic as well as a musical treat is assured. Messrs. Blondin & Leon have, of their own accord, authorized me to make the following guarantee: "Anyone dissatisfied with their performance here of Rip Van Winkle, can at the end of the second act, step to the box office and have their money refunded." I hope to see a full house greet this deserving attraction.
Signed T. L. PILGER,
Manager Opera House.
