

CURIOS TO OMAHA

LARGE COLLECTION TO BE ON DISPLAY IN METROPOLIS.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY GOODS

Relics Dating Back to Years of Forefathers—Long List of Interesting Features in Library.

C. S. Paine, secretary of the Nebraska state historical society, Dr. Gilmore, curator of the museum, and Mrs. Knotts, the society's librarian, accompanied to Omaha Tuesday a collection of relics and curios which are on display this week at the meeting of the Nebraska Territorial Pioneers' Association.

One of the interesting relics is an old wooden breaking plow. In point of years and general appearance this particular plow would have not the slightest difficulty in passing as the modus operandi mentioned in that chapter of the Bible where reference is made to Moses' ploughing through the wilderness for forty years.

Other articles in the collection were plants used for food by the Indians, a small tepee, photographs and documents from the library, and a number of pieces of wearing apparel in which the hale and hearty frontier girl was wont to deck herself.

The curios taken to Omaha are only a few out of an immense collection that the historical society has acquired. The rooms of this society in the basement of the Library are open to all students and it is well worth the time required to visit this part of the campus.

FOOTBALL RALLY AT CONVOCATION TODAY

Today is "Pep" Day—Everybody Talk and Think Football—Big Chapel at Eleven.

Today is "pep" day. Pep—in connection with football. A monster chapel is to be held at eleven o'clock in Memorial Hall. This is to be a football chapel through and through.

TEGNER SOCIETY.

Swedish Society to Hold First Meeting in Library Next Saturday Night.

Tegner society will hold its initial meeting in Art Hall of the library, Saturday evening, October 3, at 8 o'clock. A short program has been planned, together with the regular social hour. Refreshments will be served in the Swedish style.

Y. W. C. A. PLAN FOR BIG CAMPAIGN WEEK

Had a Fine Meeting Last Night—All Plans Completed for the Coming Week.

Wednesday evening at 7:00 o'clock all team workers in the missionary campaign assembled in the association rooms to talk over plans for the coming week. Last spring Nebraska women pledged fifteen hundred dollars toward the support of Miss Grace Coppock, who graduated from Nebraska in 1905, and who is now the executive secretary for the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Associations of China.

Miss Mary Graham gave a fluent discussion of the value of such a campaign for Nebraska women. She saw in it an enviable experience for all Nebraska girls. Jeanette Finney, leader of the campaign, gave the general plan for the campaign. It is as follows:

All girls on teams, or those interested in the campaign, meet in the (Continued on page 3)

THE DRAMATIC CLUB WILL HOLD TRYOUTS

Date Set for Next Wednesday—Candidates Must Register in the Morning.

Tryouts for the University Dramatic Club will be held next Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in the Temple Theater. Candidates for admittance to the club may register next Wednesday morning from eleven to twelve-thirty o'clock in room 196, University Hall.

The Dramatic Club, under the able leadership of Miss Alice Howell, has become one of the most important of University organizations. The club has taken a stand for the best in modern drama, and each year it presents one or two of the best of modern plays. It does not confine itself to one class of plays, however, but presents not only plays of a serious nature, but the best modern comedies as well.

Last year the club took a decided stand for the better class of plays by presenting "The Servant in the House." Some of the other plays that the club has given are, "The Romancers," "Candida," "The Amazons," "An American Citizen," "You Never Can Tell," and "David Garret."

REAL FRAT RALLY

CO-OPERATION IN ALL FORMS TO BE CAREFULLY DEALT WITH.

BUSINESS ESSENTIAL OBJECT

Prominent Students and Others Are on Program—Scholarship Attainments to be Earnestly Emphasized.

Co-operative buying by the fraternities is to be discussed by the Greeks tonight in the Law auditorium. The Inter-fraternity Council will present their general policy and invite a general discussion. Last year at a similar meeting to the one to be held tonight, the fraternities agreed to try out co-operation this year in purchasing their supplies.

The rally however, will be more than a business meeting; good music and some leaders in student activities will put the vital ginger into it.

Prof. Buck, president of the Inter-fraternity Council, will make some remarks on "The Rules," discussing the advantage and necessity of co-operation among the fraternities. Mr. Rudge, of Rudge & Guenzel, will speak on "What Business Men Demand of University Men." "Bill" Ritchie has been planning hard on a high scholarship standard among the Greeks for this year. He firmly believes that promptness in handing in assignments and the elimination of the chronic sluffer will raise the average scholarship 10 to 15 per cent.

When the new pledges return to their relatives Thanksgiving, their newly acquired honors often age them considerably. C. A. Sorenson will discuss the relation of a fraternity man to his home community. Edgar Kid-doo, will discuss the hows of making a success of the freshman year.

WHITES WIN. Results of Girl's Club and Y. W. C. A. Campaign. Whites, Members 324. Miss Leila McNein, Leader. Reds, Members 300. Miss Mable Stearn, Leader.

ENGBERG TELLS FRESHMEN.

Speaks at Y. M. C. A. to University Men—Large Audience Hears Him.

Dean Carl C. Engberg addressed the Freshmen at the mid-week meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last evening. A large audience spurred the Dean to his best. It seems that the larger per cent of University students much rather prefer hearing Dean Engberg lecture to the whole student body than to hear him lecture to individuals.

The subject of the Dean's address was "A College Man's Use of His Time."

SIGMA DELTA CHI.

Journalistic Fraternity Has Lunch at Commercial Club—Ten Members Present.

The journalistic fraternity, which received its National charter from Sigma Delta Chi last year held its first meeting this year yesterday at the Lincoln Commercial Club rooms. A general discussion of the past and the coming years was indulged in, together with plenty of food. Ten of last year's men answered the invitation with their presence. A banquet will be given in the near future.

STUDENTS TO STUDY SYMPHONY MUSIC

Music Lovers Organize Under Mrs. Raymond to Study Construction of Symphonies.

A few music lovers have grouped themselves together to make a closer study of the symphonies which Mrs. Raymond hopes to present once a month at convocations. The construction of symphonies will be analyzed in an informal way and the motifs pointed out in simplified form so that all may become acquainted with them before the symphony is given. Meetings are held each Saturday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock in Art Hall. Professor Dann and Mrs. Raymond have consented to take charge of these very informal meetings.

FARM BULLETIN IS BEING SENT OUT

Contains Discussion of Milk Test—Prof. Frandsen Says Subject Not Understood.

"The Babcock Test and Its Use in Herd Improvement," by J. H. Frandsen, head of the department of dairy husbandry, is the title of Extension Bulletin No. 25 just issued. The author writes in his opening paragraph, "As the farmers of Nebraska are realizing the importance and possibilities of systematic improvement of their dairy herds, there is an increasing demand for information in regard to operating the Babcock test."

Prof. Frandsen would impress the reader that although the test requires care, yet at the same time it is an inexpensive and most useful operation.

Girls' Notice.

The Black Masques request that all girls who have tickets for the girls' section at the football game Saturday will meet in the Music Hall of the Temple from one-thirty to two-thirty, Saturday afternoon, to practice songs and yells. We will then go to the game in a body.

WASHBURN HOPEFUL

ICHABODS HAVE VETERAN TEAM WILL GIVE REAL BATTLE.

TEAM PUT THROUGH GRIND

Howard and Rutherford Are Again in The Line-up—Coach is Still Working to Develop Suitable Ends.

By H. I. Kyle.

A rather short but exceedingly hard scrimmage session was the feature of Coach Stiehm's football program yesterday afternoon. Amack and Balls were placed at the ends of the varsity line-up, while Wilson and Schmirda played the same positions on the second team. As before, the principal attention of the coaches was directed toward these men with a view to fitting them, as far as possible, to their jobs, before Saturday's game.

Warren Howard was out in full regalia and able to limp through signal practice, though he did not participate in the scrimmage. He announced that he would be in condition to play against Washburn on Saturday if the coach saw fit to use him. Porter, who is also a promising candidate for the quarterback position, is laid up with a badly sprained ankle. This throws the brunt of the quarterback work on Hawkins who is showing rapid improvement. Rutherford was back on the job playing with all his old time pep and vigor. As a fullback Guy Chamberlain is just beginning to find himself, much to the satisfaction of the coaches and the delight of the fans who fill the stands each afternoon.

Washburn Game Not a Cinch. News comes from Topeka that the Washburn Ichabods "admit" that the result of next Saturday's game with Nebraska is doubtful. To the Nebraska partisan who feels inclined to laugh at what he may consider an unseemly and presumptuous attitude on the part of our little southern rival, (Continued on page 3)

ELECTION PROSPECTS ARE THE SAME TODAY

No more Announcements Reported—All "Would-be's" Must File Before Friday Night.

Election is near. Next Tuesday every one should cast his vote. Friday night at 5 o'clock is the last chance that a candidate will have to enter his name on the ballot. All men who are thinking about putting their feet into the election pot will have to announce yourself at the earliest possible date and then begin electioneering with all kinds of vim. As was stated in yesterday's Nebraskan only seven candidates have thus far signified their intention. They are as follows:

- Senior: "Bob" Harley and "Vic" Halligan. Junior: John E. Lanz. Sophomore: Roy Harney. Freshmen: "Jack" Lyons and Wallace Gerrie. The more candidates the more interesting the election.
