The 1914 gridiron record of some of the leading schools of the East discloses the fact that Harvard's claim to the championship of the East is far from clear and certain. It will be noticed that Dartmouth overwhelmed Tufts by a score of 68 to 0, while Tufts held Harvard to the count of 13 to 6; but the Princeton Tigers beat Dartmouth 16 to 12, and though Princeton's last touchdown was in the nature of a fluke, nevertheless the Tigers won and Dartmouth's fair record was marred. A couple of weeks later Harvard trimmed the Tigers, 20 to 0.

Yale suffered two defeats this season, the first being to the husky Washington and Jefferson eleven, by a score of 13 to 7, and the second to Harvard, last Saturday, 36 to 0. Old Eli's most conspicuous victories were over Notre Dame and Colgate, the former by a score of 28 to 0, and the latter 49 to 7. Princeton, Penn State, Pittsburg, Washington and Jefferson, and the Army were all represented by strong, fast teams. Records of the teams mentioned are given below:

ATTENTION GIRLS.

Rumor has it that a telegram has been recently received from the delegates to the Conference of Women's Self Government Association which told of a rather unusual rule made by the convention for the various Universities. It is to the effect that the co-eds shall be accompanied to their parties by chaperones. Get busy co-eds in order that each of you may find your own chaperone. Although this rule is said to have been made it seems that first an executive force will have to be created to see that this rule is carried out.

For Motion Picture Plots
AMATEURS ONLY: YOUR CHANCE
Big Prize Contest just announced: open only to those who have never before sold photoplays. Great opportunity for New Writers with New Ideas. Previous experience or special education not necessary. If you attend the movies you know the kind of ideas they want, and if you are willing to take a few lessons in spare time at home you have just as good a chance to win a big cash prize as anybody. This contest pays. One of your "happy thoughts" may win, and be made into a photoplay that will be shown, over your name, in theatres all over the country. Write at once, before this Prize Contest closes, for full particulars and for free book on "How to Write Photoplays."
