AMERICAN BRAINS MEDIUM SINCE JONATHAN EDWARDS

Shallow Pretence of Learning Far-Reaching and Dangerous, Says Whitman President

University of Washington. — America has had no master mind since the time of Jonathan Edwards, Stephen B. Penrose, president of Whitman college, told members and guests of Phi Beta Kappa in the course of a formal address before that honorary fraternity, recently. Philosophy since Edwards' time has yielded its supreme place in educational development, declared the speaker, and the predominance of the sciences and the practical arts has given rise to a shallow pretence of learning that is at the same time far-reaching and dangerous.

The spectacle of men of the Greek letter societies who know no Greek at all except the letters in the name of the organization to which they belong was emphasized by Dr. Penrose to show the modern trend of education, and the forcing into the background of that, which was considered highly fundamental only a few years ago.

A practically unanimous sentiment

YOUNG PAUL REVERE'S RIDE A "Movie" Melodrama in 16 Thrilling Scenes By GOLDBERG

A "movie" reel can't beat a tin of Tuxedo for real action. There's a thrill in every pipeful—an emotion in every puff! "Tux" is packed so full of snap and vigor that you begin to register joy from the scratch of the match.

Tuxedo
The Perfect Pipe Tobacco

Maybe you think you "can't smoke a pipe." Listen:—Tuxedo has already converted into steady, joyful pipe-smokers thousands of men who once thought the same way—until they tried Tuxedo and found the one tobacco that positively cannot bite or irritate the most sensitive throat and tongue.

REX BEACH
Famous Author, says:

"I have smoked Tuxedo in sub-Arctic Alaska, at Panama and everywhere—would not smoke another kind"

Rex Beach.

The original, exclusive, secret "Tuxedo Process" is the reason. This Process was invented by a doctor for the express purpose of removing the last, lingering trace of bite and sting from the ripest, mildest tobacco, made rich and mellow by ageing from 3 to 5 years!

No other tobacco can be like Tuxedo. That's why all imitations of Tuxedo fall down when they reach your pipe. Put Tuxedo to the pipe-test today.
