

THE WOMAN'S SECTION

The Woman's Point of View

Western hospitality! How much these two words mean! They mean generosity, thoughtfulness, kindness and democracy. In the east, the people live on tradition; in the west, the people are making tradition.

Most of the girls that are coming to the Girl's club convention, next week, are from eastern schools. They have read and heard of this hospitality of ours, and they are going to expect it. The delegate from Cornell has written that she spent a couple of years in the west and she liked it because the people were "so hospitable."

This reputation for hospitality is not limited to individuals. People speak of it as "Western hospitality." It is the spirit of good-will and thoughtfulness which is the spirit of the west.

Let us show our visitors what real "Western hospitality" is. Let us remember that we have a reputation that must not be changed.

STAR GIRL ATHLETES IN OUTDOOR MEET SOME STANDING RECORDS ARE DOOMED TO FALL

Women's Self-Government Delegates
Will Attend the Meet Which
Will Be Held May 4

The girls' annual track meet scheduled for the afternoon of May 4, promises to bring out the best women athletes of any year. While a large number are not out for practice, those who are taking part are speedy and accurate and show the results of the splendid training which Miss Gittings has been giving them.

The events that are scheduled for the meet are the 25 and 50-yard dashes, pole vault, high jump, shot put, low hurdle race; class relay races, and a baseball game between the freshman and sophomore classes. The relay teams and the freshman and sophomore baseball teams have not been chosen, but will be announced the last of this week.

The visiting delegates of the Women's Self-Government association will be guests of honor at the meet. All students who attend will be excused from class work.

TENNIS COURTS FOR GIRLS ONLY, 5-7 P. M.

The university tennis courts east of the athletic field have been reserved for the use of the girls alone during two hours of each afternoon, from 5 to 7 o'clock. This is the ruling of the athletic board, and insures the girls as much opportunity to use the two courts as is given the men.

From 3 to 5 o'clock each afternoon the varsity tennis squad has exclusive use of the courts. Then the next two hours are given over to the girls. At all other times the courts are open to the students, men and women both, without discrimination or distinction.

TWO CO-EDS BUSY IN NON-CLASS ROOM WORK

Lucile Becker, '13, will go to Columbus in a few days to give a Shakespearean program under the auspices of the library association. Hedvic Provasnik, '16, has written an article telling of the women's vocational conference for the alumni edition of the University journal.

A FOOLISH LITTLE POEM

A fool there was, he made his prayer,
Even as you and I;
He prayed for a girl with golden hair,
With beautiful eyes and complexion fair,
The girl of his dreams was wondrous rare,
Even as you and I.

But, alas, the fool is married now,
Even as you and I;
And his good wife's hair is black as ink,
To look at her your heart would sink,
The girl of his prayer?—Well, I don't think,
Even as you and I.

Sommerberg" in a delightful and finished manner. The numerous comical situations between "Tea Franke" and "Agathon Sommerberg" were well presented and the audience was quick to catch the spirit. Miss Eva Erickson in the part of "Julia Wit," and Axel Swenson as "Oskar Egert," her lover, handled their parts well.

Lulu Johnson took the part of Mrs. Franke's chambermaid and added a great deal of spirit and life to the play.

AN ALUMNA WRITES

Mrs. G. H. Gene, '90, (Dena Loomis), writes from Honolulu that the alumni there often have visits from old time University of Nebraska friends. Mrs. Gene speaks of the changes and growth of the university and says, "I am afraid I should feel very out of place were I to find myself on the old campus again."

KOMENSKY PICNIC AT CRETE SATURDAY

The Komensky club will hold its annual picnic at Crete Saturday, May 6. A ball game, boat riding, a dance and a large basket supper are the features of the extensive program which is being prepared by the committee in charge. Members of the club may secure reservations from any of the following committee: Ida Dusatko, Hedvic Provasnik, Libbie Breuer and Bertha Dusatko. This should be done before Friday, April 28.

concerning the junior-senior picnic is that girls must be accompanied by men. This is absolutely incorrect, as lone girls will be in demand. Every junior and senior girl and man should have enough class enthusiasm to get out and support this function regardless of obstacles.

TEGNER ANNUAL PLAY A REAL TRIUMPH

The Tegner society of the university presented its annual play to a large and very appreciative audience at the Temple theatre last Saturday evening. The play was Helen Nybloom's farce, "Det Ringer." It was written as a parody on certain fads of Stockholm life, especially the newly acquired telephone.

The work of Harry Magnusson deserves special mention, as he handled the difficult character of "Agathon
