

Summer School Nebraskan

VOL. I.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, MONDAY, JUNE 12, 1916.

NO. 4.

DR. WINSHIP SPEAKS TO SCHOOL MEN

FRIDAY'S SESSION CLOSES THE
SCHOOL OF SUPERINTENDENCE

Greater Interest is Shown Than Ever Before—Attendance Has Been Large

Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the New England Journal of Education, addressed the School of Superintendence, Friday. In the morning Dr. Winship spoke concerning "Measure of Power and Measure of Results." In the afternoon the subject was, "The Progress of Education in the United States."

Dean Fordyce and Professor Reed are highly pleased with the success of this year's School of Superintendence. The school was never better attended by the superintendents and principals.

The educational leaders have been highly inspiring. Dr. Riley of Springfield, Mass., impressed himself as an educator thoroughly abreast the times. The work of Dr. Monroe was exceedingly practical and that of Dr. Winship was unusually inspirational.

AMERICAN STUDENTS DISCUSS INTERNATIONALISM

Polity Clubs Hold Conference in Cleveland

Important subjects of America's foreign policy will be discussed by experts of national reputation at a conference on international relations for university students, which will be held at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, from June 21 to July 1. The conference will be under the auspices of the Federation of International Polity Clubs of Boston, with the co-operation of the World Peace Foundation, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the Church Peace Union and Western Reserve University.

Among the speakers will be Secretary of War Baker, Frederic C. Howe, commissioner of immigration at port of New York; Dr. James Brown Scott, secretary Carnegie Endowment for International Peace; Rev. Frederick Lynch, secretary Church Peace Union; Herbert S. Houston, president Associated Advertising Clubs of America; George W. Kirchwey, warden Sing Sing prison and president American Peace Society; Senator Heri LaFontaine of Belgium; Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, of Harvard University; Prof. Shailer Mathews, of the University of Chicago; John Barrett, director-general of the Pan American Union; Senator Fall, of New Mexico; Prof. William I. Hull, of Swarthmore, and Dr. G. W. Nasmyth, of the World Peace Foundation.

Some of the important subjects of America's foreign policy to be discussed are: "Pan Americanism: Its Present Day Meaning," "Mexico and the United States," "Can America Re-

(Continued on page 2.)

WHO'S WHO IN THE SUMMER SCHOOL

G. W. A. LUCKEY

Dean of the Graduate School of Education

G. W. A. Luckey, the first dean of the Graduate School of Education of the University of Nebraska, and president of Nebraska Teachers' Association, was born in Decatur, Ind., in 1855. He took his undergraduate work at school superintendence. He was superintendent of public schools successively in Adams county, Ind., Decatur, Ind., and Ontario Cal.

His college teaching began in 1896, when he was called to Nebraska to organize the new department of Education. He was made head professor of this department in 1906, and in 1914 he was made dean of the new Graduate School of Education. This was the Leland Stanford, receiving his degree of A. B. in 1894. During 1894-5 he was fellow in psychology at Clark University, and in 1900 he received the Ph. D. from Columbia. He has also had two years of study abroad. In 1906-7 on a leave of absence from the university he traveled through continental Europe, studying the secondary educational system, especially that of Germany. Again in 1912-13 he spent a year studying Education at Goettinger University.

Dean Luckey's early educational experience was in the line of public first strictly graduate school of education organized in the United States and Nebraska's example in this line has lately been followed by ten or more other universities, among them Chicago, Stanford, and Columbia.

Dean Luckey is widely known in national educational circles. He holds membership in the American Academy of Sciences, the American Psychological Association, and the American Anthropological Association. He is chairman of the executive committee of the Nebraska Child Study Association.

(Continued on page 3)

GERMAN CLUB ORGANIZES

Splendid Spirit Shown at First Meeting
—German Songs a Feature

The German Club held its first meeting of the summer session last Saturday. A heavy rain set in an hour before the time of the meeting and kept falling the rest of the evening, but an enthusiastic crowd dared the elements and ventured out mid lightning flashes to attend the meeting.

Twenty-three persons wrote their names in the secretary's book, thereby signifying their desire to join the society. The number is indicative of the ability of the organization to get there.

The following were elected officers for the summer term: President, Joseph Alexis; vice president, Alexander Beyer; secretary, Fred Schriever; treasurer, Edna Larson. On the Social Committee were appointed August

(Continued on page 2)

PALLADIAN RECEPTION IS SPLENDID SUCCESS

SUMMER STUDENTS ARE WELL
PLEASED WITH ENTERTAINMENT IN PAL HALL

About One Hundred Fifty Attend
—Weekly Meetings Are Planned
For the Summer

About 150 students came out for the reception given by the Palladian Literary Society in their hall, Friday evening. The spirit of sociability was much in evidence, indicative of more college spirit among the summer school students in the future.

The crowd was divided into groups for the writing of an impromptu newspaper, each group furnishing a section of the paper and cub reporters of all types of efficiency were developed.

A short literary program was given consisting of a piano solo by Gladys Weil, a vocal solo by Roy Young, and a reading by Leon Snyder. Afterwards light refreshments were served.

By a practically unanimous vote of those present it was decided to accept the invitation of the society to continue the meetings once a week. Plans are already being formed for future meetings. The first will be given Saturday evening and the program will be furnished by the Palladians who are in summer school. For the following meetings it has been suggested that the former Peru students furnish one program, and those from Kearney another. Further programs will be planned later.

The organization urges all who were present at the last meeting to boost for an even greater attendance.

THE ORDER OF THE COIF ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

Four Men From Senior Law Class
Elects Into Its Honorary
Society

Oto K. Perrin, Raymond Smith, James K. Polk, and Guy C. Chambers were elected to the Order of the Coif, from this year's senior law class.

Otto Perrin, the highest honor graduate, also received a prize consisting of an Encyclopedia of Law and Procedure, valued at $250, given by the American Law Book Company. Mr. Perrin received his A. B. from Nebraska in 1914, at that time being elected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi. All the men receiving the Order of the Coif have been on Nebraska's debating teams.

The Order of the Coif is the honorary scholastic fraternity of the Law College. At the end of each year about one tenth of the senior Law class is elected to membership, election being based wholly on scholarship.

H. L. Bowlby, '05, of Portland, Oregon, is in the city. Mr. Bowlby has been state highway engineer in Washington and in Oregon.