ALL IS READY FOR OLYMPIC BATTLE

sophomores mix with the incoming class is free.

Chief Interest

Although the chief interest of the morning will center on the class fight, in which the sophomores will gather around the pole on the top of which will be pinned the class colors, and attempt to save the colors from the attacking horde of freshmen for a certain length of time, the events where the two classes will be represented by individuals, as in the wrestling and boxing, will be particularly enjoyed because of the fact that the entries seem to be so well matched.

Not all of the entries have been decided yet. At both tryouts it was impossible to draw final decisions, and another set of preliminaries were held for the freshmen last night and the sophomores this afternoon, but some positions still remain unsettled. The entries as far as they are known, follow:

Freshmen

Lightweight boxing, Hanson or Riddenspracher.

Middleweight boxing, Andrews.

Heavyweight boxing, Munn.

Lightweight wrestling, Campbell or Jansen.

Middleweight wrestling, Hinds.

Heavyweight wrestling, Munn.

Sophomores

Lightweight boxing, Drake or Bennett.

Middleweight boxing, Gomery.

Heavyweight boxing, Kositsky.

Lightweight wrestling, undecided.

Middleweight wrestling, Kindig.

Heavyweight wrestling, Shirley.

When you buy a shoe you have it fitted and you take it because it looks well and feels comfortable.

But a careful selection of your corset is much more important.

You must feel comfortable—and your corset must form a fashionable smooth base for your gown.

NEBRASKA NEEDS BETTER ROOTING

unless there is a different spirit shown. If we put the spirit into it what we did in the Oregon game, will be a chance to win.

There will not be a difference of more than seven points in the final score, and it may be either way, predicted Doctor Stewart. It may be the year that Kansas steps on Nebraska.

The team has won in spite of the lack of spirit. It plays three-fourths of the game, the student body plays 25 per cent of it. This means that if there is the right spirit and the student body does its share, the team will have 25 per cent better chance of winning.

"Kansas has a big, powerful team. It is coming up here to win," declared the coach.

"There is something concrete in a psychic wave. It is just as much an element of victory as it is defeat."

"The score of the Ames game was as much your fault as it was ours," said Doctor Stewart, and he went on to tell of the injuries of the different players. There were times when Shaw didn't know whether he was on the line or not; he should have been in a hospital. We should have given the team credit for beating the kind of a team that Ames has this year.

McBride's Prediction

McBride in the Kansas City Star predicts a score of 9-7 in favor of Kansas, next Saturday, according to Coach Stewart.

The girls were urged to get together in their rooting section in the bleachers. Fussing dates should be abolished. The coach said that the girls generally show better spirit than the men, and as much as at most institutions, but better organized rooting is necessary to show that the girls are making an effort to do their share. A man thinks that some restriction should be put on his enthusiasm if he is fussing. Doctor Stewart urged that the girls make "no fussing at games" a tradition of the school, and added that they could do more by this than anything else they could do.

Carl Harnsberger urged the sophomores to go to the Olympics Saturday. Most men have to sit on a tack before they'll move at all, according to the sophomore president. He said that all men who weren't at the Olympics could prepare to be hazed Monday.

John Cook said that Kansas has an "awful gang of rooters," and that they expect to have two sections, which will be as much as we have. The student body must drown out the Jayhawk yell, and he guaranteed that if they would, the team would win the game.

Owen Frank Spoke

Owen Frank '13, said that the Nebraska team always had won and that it always would win if the rooters were doing their share.

Ted Riddell told of the strength of the Kansas team, and said that the team needed all the spirit the school can give. "With the help of God, and everyone else, we'll win," he promised. Vic Halligan—whom the chairman introduced as president of the Woodrow Wilson club, said that the rally was the poorest he had ever seen, since he had been in school. Nebraskans must stand behind the team. Kansas has more enthusiasm than we have. Kansas beat Oklahoma this year, for the first time since 1909 and they say that they are going to beat Nebraska.

TEACHING PLACES WILL BE OPEN SECOND SEMESTER

Calls are now coming in for teachers in the public schools in the state for the second semester. The bureau of placement usually locates about a dozen University students at the mid-year. Those qualified to take places at this time should report to Prof. A. A. Reed at an early date. Any candidate who would like to take a place in the department of Latin in a nearby public school for the second semester should call upon Dean Charles Fordyce as he now has an urgent call for such a teacher.

The present number of British recruits is officially estimated as 5,250,000 men. It is now admitted that compulsory service was introduced less for the sake of rounding up an additional couple of hundred thousand men than for the establishment of the principle that every man should do his duty.—Ex.

Books Seek Out Guardsmen

M. A. C. officials are making an effort to enable college seniors who are with the state guard on the Mexican border to graduate with their class next June. Books have been sent to all such students, with detailed instructions as to courses of study, written work and examinations, and the president of the agricultural college announces that every effort will be made to enable the student guardsmen to keep up their collegiate work.—Ex.
