POLO IS MOST POPULAR ALL-AROUND SPORT

FAST GAME AT AIKEN, SOUTH CAROLINA.

Polo is played in this country practically all the year round. During the winter months the climate and conditions of the grounds are suitable for the Pacific coast clubs, Hawaii and the Philippines; in spring the game is played in the Southern circuit, which includes Aiken, Camden, the several army posts and Washington; in the late spring the game is popular in Philadelphia and adjacent suburban clubs and Lakewood, N. J., and is next followed by the Western and mid-Western circuits. In May and June the game is in full swing at all the Eastern clubs and Narragansett Pier, R. I., annually witnesses the championship series extending over a period of several weeks. In the recent tourney decided there the mounts used represented a cost of from $50,000 to $100,000.

SPORTING WORLD

Boston has an Interscholastic Ice Hockey league. . . .
Richmond (Va.) junior high school teams are playing soccer football. . . .
New York university will add a swimming team to its activities. . . .
Birmingham, Ala., contemplates constructing a municipal golf course. . . .
Eighty or more new 2:10 trotters will join the select ranks this year. . . .
Princeton's first baseball game next year will be March 24 with Dickinson. . . .

The agitation to put a ban on all kinds of betting in baseball is a good one. . . .

A movement has been started to build a half-mile track in Lincoln park, Chicago. . . .

Football is a game that requires a stiff backbone, a stiff arm and a stiffer upper lip. . . .

Ward Miller, veteran right fielder of the Browns, is to be operated on for a double hernia. . . .

Stoughton A. Fletcher has engaged the young western trainer Henry Thomas for 1917. . . .

Gaiety Lee 2:36 1/4, dam of Lee Axworthy, is in foal to San Francisco 2:07 1/4, this year. . . .

People who speak of "playing golf" do not have the right idea. Golfers do not play—they work. . . .

The pacing stallion Minor Heir 1:58 1/4, by Heir-at-Law, will make his future home at Millston, Tenn. . . .

Why is it that all those football players we see in the papers must have their hands on their hips? . . .

Soccer clubs of Philadelphia and vicinity boast 3,800 players enrolled in the district governing association. . . .

The Australian Jockey club subscribed and raised for English patriotic purposes during the last year $186,850. . . .

Boston, Brooklyn and Cincinnati will not be represented in the Interstate Three-Cushion league this season. . . .

Mabel Trask, 2:08 1/4, won 13 races and more than $33,000 in light harness races over grand circuit tracks this year. . . .

Tom Eck, the well-known bicycle rider and promoter, is coach of the University of Chicago cross-country team. . . .

Jose R. Capablanca, the Cuban champion chess player, will give a series of lectures in New York November 14 and 21. . . .

Tris Speaker is wise enough to know that he is a star in the playing end of the game and that he might be a dub as a manager. . . .

COOMBS WELL-GUARDED WHILE ON BALL FIELD

Every time Jack Coombs, pitcher of the Brooklyn (National league) champions, goes out on the field to pitch he wears a heavy rubber brace from knee to hip, and supplements this with yards and yards of bandages. Jack also carries a heavy steel brace as a protective device. They are necessary, following his severe illness which ended his career with the Athletics. His wonderful stamina is shown by his ability again to hold his end up as a pitcher with the champions of 1916. Coombs alone beat the Red Sox in the recent series and has never been defeated in a world's series.

CLABBY RETAINS COOL HEAD

Laughs at Warning of Newspaper Men That George Chip Had a Punch—Kids With Scribes.

Jimmy Clabby is a fine example of the boxer who keeps cool at all times. Jimmy was boxing 20 rounds with George Chip at Daly City. He had been warned that if Chip ever connected with his chin he would be "knocked dead." Along about the tenth round, while sitting in his corner, Clabby leaned over and spoke to those in the press seats.

"Pay," he said, "I thought you fellows said this guy had a punch."

"Better be careful, Jim," cautioned one of the scribes, "if he lands you'll find out."

Clabby threw back his head and laughed. Then he came back with this:

"If a guy has a punch and can't land it he hasn't got it, has he?"

The newspaper men had no immediate reply to the question. Jimmy had their goat. And throughout the remainder of the fight, between rounds and in the clinches, Clabby kept kidding the newspaper men about the punch that wasn't landing.

Players and Owners Fight.
The prospect for a fight between the players and clubowners over the salary question is about the liveliest topic the winter league fans have to discuss.

Big Horse Race.
The gate receipts at the recent Russian derby, the big horse-racing event in Moscow, totaled $700,000.

"TELLING THE OTHER FELLOW"

It's typical of the average American to want to "Tell the Other Fellow."

It's a big part of our business—in fact we sell information about Clothes when you buy from this store.

Not only do you pay for good fabric and good tailoring—You pay for "good style" which is another name for the information which we sell you.

We are directly responsible for the good or bad of that information and we want that you understand us to be responsible.

How about some exclusive information which has to do with your Thanksgiving Day appearance.

Whether you go out to dinner—to the theatre—to the football game—for an auto trip—or on a hunting trip—

a speedy flight-across country to the waiting turkey. Those who can catch a train out of Lincoln immediately after the game are also planning for two Thanksgiving feasts, one on Nebraska field, and the other in the dining room at home. Classes will begin again at 8 o'clock

Monday morning. Most of the students will be back in Lincoln by Sunday evening, happy in the memories of their short visit home and in anticipation of the longer one only two weeks away.

Edna Froyd, 16, who is teaching English literature in the high school at Tecumseh, Nebr., will be a visitor at the Alpha Omicron Pi house Thanksgiving day.

BE YOURSELF

Are you the individual or the type? So many people look alike, dress alike and act alike. Why not be different from the rest? Be individual, acquire a taste and style different from the others. Make yourself not as one of the many, but as just one. Form your own opinions and ideas, and stand by them. Think, act, and do, as you think best, and not be swayed by the way other people do. In other words, be yourself.—Ex.
