CORPORALS TAKE SHOTS AT BULLSEYE

RIFLE PRACTICE STARTS IN BASEMENT OF M. E. HALL

Five Shots Taken at Each of Four Targets by Cadets—Most Shots Near the Mark

"Spat!"
"Spat!"
"Spat!"

On the firing line at the rifle gallery in the basement of the Mechanical Engineering hall Thursday, corporals in the University cadet battalions fired shot after shot at the big black bullseyes. Sometimes they hit the bullseyes, sometimes they did not, but most of the shots neared the mark.

"Cease firing," shouted Lieut. C. H. Gribble as he switched on the range lights and went to the targets to pick up a sheet which had fallen.

"You men will have to hurry along as it is twenty-five minutes to 6," shouted Sergeant Allen, assistant commandant to the men on the firing line.

"Shall we fire ahead, then?" said a prone cadet.

"You don't shoot in war when the command 'cease firing' is given, so hold your horses," replied the officer.

Therefore, when Lieutenant Gribble had obtained the sheet, the lights were turned down again and at the command "resume" firing, the crack of rifles was again under way. Each cadet shot twenty times, five times at each of four targets. The bullets used were of .22 caliber, shot in a special bore Springfield.

PROF. AYLESWORTH URGES HOME RULE CHARTER FOR LINCOLN

Prof. Leon E. Aylesworth of the University department of political science and sociology in an address before the East Lincoln league last night declared that Lincoln should have a home rule charter in order that as a modern city she can determine her own policy, develop a greater sense of municipal responsibility and obtain other benefits which more independence from the state legislature will bring her.

Professor Aylesworth's address was an informal one, given in response to an invitation from the league to discuss "Home Rule and the Commission Form of Government as Compared With the City Manager Plan."

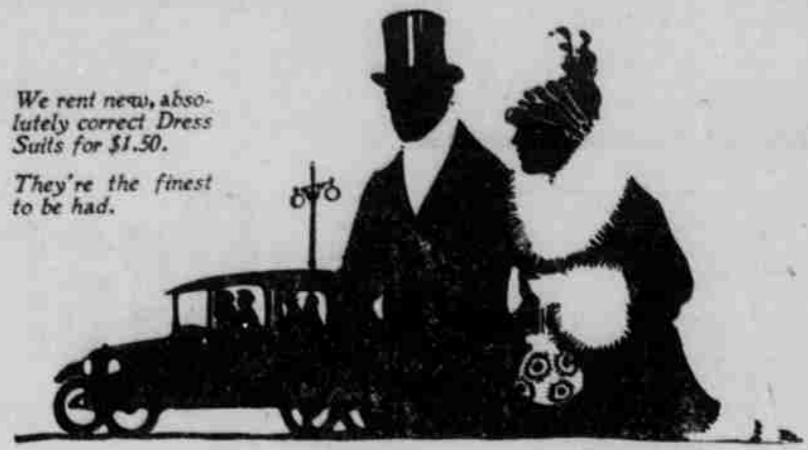

PROF. HRBKOVA LECTURES TO HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Prof. Sarka Hrbkova gave a very interesting, illustrated address on "Home Life in Slavic Lands" to the Home Economics club. The pictures showed some of the beautiful scenery of Bohemia, costumes of the people, their homes, industry, and amusements. In the cities there is a public market to buy poultry, eggs, etc. The price is always raised above actual value as the women expect one to haggle about the price, the speaker said. On Palm Sunday the people wear the pussy willows which are the first harbingers of spring, she said.

ANITA KING appears in "ANTON THE TERRIBLE," at Magnet Friday and Saturday.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS TO GET BIG APPROPRIATION

Congress will be asked to appropriate about $4,500,000 for the reserve officers' training corps at the coming session. The war department estimates that during the coming year there will be in the reserve officers' training corps about 50,000 students, and officers will have to be provided for them. Of the sum appropriated, uniforms, equipment, tentage and transportation will require almost two and a half million. Besides universities, the high schools of thirty-five cities have applied for governmental aid under the provisions of this act. Nebraska University will be given a branch.
