ST. JOSEPH'S AND ST. THOMAS COLLEGES TAKEN INTO CAMP

Nebraska Defense Shows Great Strength—Best Work Shown at St. Paul

After a lapse of one day in which they were defeated by Grinnell the Nebraska Cornhuskers came back strong and won from the St. Joseph's college team of Dubuque, Ia., last Thursday night by the score of 21 to 11, and on the following night gained a victory over the St. Thomas college team of St. Paul, Minn., by the score of 23 to 8.

The Nebraskans played a great defensive game at Dubuque and the Iowans had a hard time scoring in the first half. Most of the scores of both teams came as the result of long distance shots.

At St. Paul the Nebraskans again made a favorable impression with their close guarding and held the St. Thomas college quintet to a scant two field goals.

While the collegians were making two field goals between them, the Nebraskans were each making two. Collins again led in the scoring with two field goals and three free throws.

The Cornhuskers did not get down to business until the last half was well under way, but when once started there was no stopping them until the game ended.

NO GAME WITH MICHIGAN AGGIES

Northern School Won't Meet Western Conference Eligibility Rules

Hopes for a Nebraska University-Michigan agricultural college football game on October 27, 1917, were lost Saturday morning with the announcement that the Aggies would not agree to abide by the rules of the western conference, prohibiting more than three years football play for any man on the team.

Michigan university still remains a schedule possibility for this date. The Wolverines are balking on signing a two-year contract, giving them the 1917 game at Ann Arbor, and bringing them to Lincoln for a return game in 1918. The Nebraska athletic authorities are not expected to agree to take on Michigan in their home city without a chance to get back at them the next year in Lincoln, so this game may not materialize as hoped for.

The Husker schedule thus has the present appearance:
 October 6, Wesleyan at Lincoln. (Probable.)
 October 13, Iowa at Lincoln.
 October 20, Notre Dame at Lincoln. (Probable.)
 October 27, not filled.
 November 3, open.
 November 10, Missouri at Lincoln.
 November 17, Kansas at Lawrence.
 November 24, open.
 November 29, Syracuse at Lincoln.
