Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Nebraska's heaviest social calendar for the season, the play, "The Piper," this evening in the Temple theatre, the Olympics at the Lincoln baseball park at 9:15 tomorrow morning, and the Missouri game tomorrow afternoon, are the main attractions planned for the Homecoming today and tomorrow. This is less than the University usually offers the returning grad, but at that it should give him a chance to get in close touch again with the several sides of his school's activities. He will find the Olympics—if he comes from a class that dates after the Olympic era—much the same as they used to be, with perhaps less of the atmosphere of the rare old Buster Brown college boy. The football team he will find is a much patched up and bruised husky, fighting, however, with the same old Cornhusker spirit. The parties is where he will probably find the biggest change. There will be good music and good dancing but little folderol, which, since he is a good Nebraskan, he will find very much to his liking. We are sorry that there are not more attractions for the Homecoming but we will all do our best to entertain him, and if it is possible to make up in the warmth of our personal greeting for the lack of "set" entertainment, here is the heartiest of welcomes.

Although the game with Missouri is bound to be, because of the depressingly crippled condition of the Cornhuskers, a hard-fought contest with the outcome a matter of grave doubt, The Nebraskan welcomes it. Tomorrow, for the first time this season, Nebraska students will have some work to do. In the games so far played the team has always had the necessary punch and the fight, tomorrow it will not be a representative Cornhusker team and it cannot therefore be the same Cornhusker fight—unless the stands step in as substitutes. The eleven will be lacking the services of Captain Shaw, Riddell, Otoupalik, Kriemelmeyer, and perhaps Dobson and Hubka, and the work of at least three other regulars will be severely handicapped by the badly crippled condition of the men. These men will fight, and their spirit will help much to overcome the dragging weight of injuries. But the substitutes who fill the places of those who are out of the lineup—they must be imbued with the fight that can come in but two ways—from experience and from constant encouragement. That is the responsibility Nebraska students in the stands must assume. There must be no shirking, no slacking tomorrow. A Missouri Valley championship may be in the balance. If Nebraska University deserves a championship she will work for it—students and team together—tomorrow afternoon.

IOWA STATE MEN TO LEARN JIU JITSU TACTICS

A course in ju jitsu, the method used in trench warfare, is the latest addition to the courses offered in the military department of the Iowa state university. "The work will include everything that will be of benefit to the men in the trenches, along the line of the ju jitsu," said Director S. G. Schroeder. "The course will be rough, but it will prepare the men for the work that they will get in the trenches, should they ever have to enter the war." Boxing, wrestling, fencing and all kinds of throws and falls involved in hand to hand encounters will be included in the course.

MISS BERTHA CONDE TO VISIT UNIVERSITY

Miss Bertha Conde, one of the student secretaries for the national board of the Y. W. C. A., arrived today. While she is in the city she will be entertained at the home of Mrs. L. H. Stuart. During her stay here she will speak at a number of All-University meetings.

Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women, will give a tea this afternoon in honor of Miss Conde from 3 to 5 o'clock for all University women.

Miss Conde will speak at a Vespers service at the First Congregational church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Her subject will be "Women, at the Present Crisis." She will also speak Monday evening at 7 o'clock and Tuesday at 5 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. rooms in the Temple.

Tuesday morning Miss Conde will speak to a group of city women at a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. Samuel Avery.

Miss Conde has taken advanced work in the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. She has met and spoken to students in almost every country in the world. In connection with the John R. Mott campaign in Russia, Turkey and China, she has spoken to assemblies of women. She has also visited all of the large colleges in this country where she has had great influence. For two years the University Y. W. C. A. has been asking for a visit from Miss Conde.

Change Age Requirements for Training Camps

HUSKERS TO MEET MISSOURI TIGERS

aging to keep in fair physical condition during the past week, will be counted on for the largest amount of Nebraska's offensive work. The two have been occupying halfback positions in the practices of the week, thus giving the coach the opportunity to use their speed around either end of the line.

If Nebraska's inexperienced crew can get the jump on the Missouri eleven the Cornhuskers will probably win the game. If however, Missouri's older aggregation get started first and throw a scare into the green Cornhuskers there may be a sad story to tell at the end of the battle.

OLUS SHIRTS
COAT CUT

TURN YOUR SHIRT-TAILS INTO DRAWERS
What good is a Shirt-tail anyway?

IN OLUS the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment.

This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment. OLUS is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUS one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUS shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch. No strings to tighten or come loose. $1.50 to $8.50.

Ask your dealer for OLUS. Booklet on request.
