ORPHEUM PROGRAM BALANCES SPLENDIDLY

Horace Wright and Rene Dietrich, who formerly supported Fritz Scheff in musical comedy, also are on this week's bill, and their singing is a genuine treat. Florence Baird and E.
Charles Bensee, a team with an honest-to-goodness sense of humor, furnish the comedy. With new songs, new jokes and a real ability to "put it over," this pair won a big band last night.

Other pleasing acts are Archie Anri and Miss Dolly in juggling, magic and tumbling; Alf Grant, in a snappy series of dialect songs and stories; Dorothy Hays and company, in a one-act comedy, "A Two Weeks' Notice," and the five Nelsons.

The entire program balances splendently, but Kosloff and his fellow Russians stand out supreme as the real artists. They alone might easily draw to the theatre's capacity.—Charles F.
Carter in Denver Times.—Adv.

THE WAR TAX ON THEATRE- GOERS

The managers of the Orpheum, Lyric, Wonderland, Strand and Oliver theatres take this occasion to compliment their patrons upon the exceedingly small amount of friction caused by the new war tax on admissions and to express their gratitude for the generous support given.

Imposed as it was without the necessary blanks and forms which usually go with a tax of this nature, this new war tax on theatregoers is being collected without cost to the government, with a minimum of labor on the part of the box offices, and is being paid cheerfully by the patrons.
This is as it should be, and the managers believe the adopted the one satisfactory method of handling the whole matter; that is to say, the plan of making no change in prices of admission and collection of the tax additional, so that every patron knows each time he or she attends a show just how much tax is paid.

It goes without saying that the people of the United States must bear the burden of this world war—and in terms of money perhaps much more than cold figures would show their share to be; but it must not be forgotten that the European allies have already borne an enormous burden, much of it at a time when we, the people of the United States, were being greatly profited. By means of Liberty bond issues, the immediate needs of our government are met; but ultimately every dollar of the cost of the war must be raised by taxation.
There is no escape from this. And every dollar paid to Uncle Sam through the theatre box office windows reduces the amount to be raised in some other way. Besides that, it is 100 per cent effective, costing nothing to collect, and is, therefore, one of our most efficient taxes.—Adv.

THE UKULELE

THE languorous charm of the Hawaiian native instruments—so moving in appeal, so observably in vogue—is strikingly characteristic of the Ukulele. Its tone possesses that curiously beautiful timbre, that exotic charm of tonal quality which has made these instruments so sensation-ally popular.

The Ukulele has a pleasing grace of form. The finer models are made of genuine Hawaiian Koa wood. It is much in request today among the smarter college and other musical organizations.

It is easy to learn. Its price includes an Instruction Book.

Hawaiian Steel Guitar

Every chord struck upon this typically representative Hawaiian instrument is marked by a weird, plaintive harmony and strangely beautiful qualities of tone. It brings, to any music, qualities full of vivid color and varied charm.

Price $8.00 and upwards, including Steel and Set of Three Thimbles for playing, and Instruction Book.
