CLASS DEBATERS TO HOLD TRY-OUTS TODAY

Under-classmen Will Speak This Afternoon on Government Control of Railroads

The first class try-outs, in preparation for the inter-class debates, will be held today, when the freshmen and sophomore candidates will try out. The freshmen try-outs will be held at 1 o'clock, and the sophomores' at 1:30 o'clock, in the Law building, room 101. The question is to be "Resolved, That the United States Should Retain Control and Operation of the Railroads After the War."

Most of the debaters this year are being supplied by the underclasses. So far there has been only one senior who has expressed his intention of trying out. One woman student is among the sophomore debaters, and there is an excellent opportunity for all women of the University who may wish to enter the field of debate this year.

Those trying out for the sophomore team are: Harriett Ashbrook, John Koehler, R. A. Robinson and Ralph Schaberg.

Those for the freshmen are: Eugene Konechy, O. Applegate, L. E. Slater, H. E. Doremus, Arnol Steinkraus, Leo Sturgen, Reuben Clausen, M. Bebes.

CHOOSE LEADERS FOR GIRLS' CLASS TEAMS

Sports Leader and Basketball Coach Select Girls to Help Prepare for Tournament

The first step in the girls' inter-class basketball tournament was taken when the class leaders were chosen. These leaders were chosen by the sports leader and the basketball coach and their selection was based upon both playing and executive ability. Their duties will be to assist in the training of the teams as much as possible and to help complete arrangements for the meet.

The girls selected were: Senior class, Beatrice Dierks; junior class, Gertrude De Sautelle; sophomore class, Patricia Maloney; freshman class, Doris Hostetter.

Columbia

Every woman of Columbia university has registered the hours at her disposal which she is willing to give to war work. Any organization desiring help may apply at the office of the committee on women's war work. In this way the women are given an opportunity to do work in the city as well as on the campus. The activities of the workers are varied as the following list of applications indicate: Y. W. C. A., the War Savings Stamps Commission, the Community Kitchen, "Food for France," the Trench Comfort Packet Committee, the Red Cross Institute and the Patriotic Service League.
