KANSANS TAKE SECOND GAME

Cornhusker Freshmen Drop Series to "Aggies"

YEARLINGS FOUGHT HARD

Last-Minute Rally Gives Farmers Fourth Succesive Victory

After staging a beautiful comeback over the first night's play, for the first half of the game, the Nebraska freshmen basketball team met with another defeat Tuesday night at the hands of the first year men of the Kansas State Agricultural College by a score of 15 to 10. The game was hard-fought throughout and the Huskers did all in their power to avenge three previous defeats at the hands of their opponents, but all to no avail. The "Aggies" proved too much for them and copped the honors in the last of the four contests.

The Nebraskans started the game out in a manner that would make the reputed Kansas cyclones look like a gentle summer zephyr. With Bekins in the title role, they tore into the Farmers and when the whistle sounded the end of the first half they led their opponents by a 7 to 2 margin. Things were looking pretty good towards a triumphal exit from the land of the Jayhawk. But evidently they had failed to take into consideration the comeback qualities of the Kansas men. The "Aggie" bunch waited until the last ten minutes of the game and then they began to make things hum in general. Youngmeyer and Jennings each dropped in a goal, and by way of adding excitement to the affair, Meaker slipped one in which sailed through the air for fully 15 yards. By putting in three out of seven free throws in this game, Youngmeyer made a record of caging 28 out of a possible 37 free chances in the four games between the Huskers and the "Aggies."

WAR WORK STARTED BY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

Will Hold Poster Display and Collect Books for Soldiers Abroad

Drawing from the library collection of about 150 original French and American war posters, Prof. Malcolm Weyer will place French posters—a new one every three days—on the stand just inside the door of the library proper.

Bought with money from the library fund, these posters have been gathered, not so much for their present intrinsic value as for their future value. They are mounted on cloth and the big portfolios holding them are kiki covered. The forty or more American ones are strikingly different from the French ones in the artist's handling of line and color.

This week the American Library association is starting a campaign all over the country to collect books for the American soldiers. Instead of fiction the ordinary soldier wants technical books—books concerning mathematics, electricity, motors, etc. People who wish to contribute books or publications may leave them at either the city or University library or leave their address there and have the books called for.

"WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND," UP-TO-DATE

(A poem given to Dean A. L. Candy by a student after taking his mid-semester examination.)

I work at Math in the daytime,
I work at Math by night;
I work till my brain goes dizzy;
The answer is still not right.

I used to think in High School,
There was nothing I couldn't do
But I have changed my mind completely,
I've met my Waterloo.

My mathematical brain is a fizzle,
I don't know three times three,
Oh, why do my folks waste money;
Trying to educate me?

DR. CHARLES GILKEY TO APPEAR BEFORE STUDENTS

One of Country's Leading Pastors to Give Series of Addresses April 2-5

Dr. Chas. W. Gilkey of Chicago, one of the best known preachers in the United States, will be here in the University for four days of the first week after spring vacation. Dr. Gilkey has been secured to give a series of addresses in the Temple theatre on the evenings of April 2, 3, 4, 5. He is leaving his regular work as pastor of Hyde Park church of Chicago and a lecturer in Chicago University to conduct similar meetings in some of the universities of the middle west, under the auspices of the International committee of the Student Christian Associations.

Dr. Gilkey is well known to the University public having spoken to two large Convocation audiences in the last few years. No word is needed as to his ability and power to please for all who have heard him know that his messages are exceptionally interesting and worth while.

Last Sunday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. room in the Temple a large general committee consisting of faculty members, students and leading pastors met to lay plans for the series of meetings. The committee considers the University very fortunate in being able to have so prominent a man as Dr. Gilkey to speak to the University public on some of the most vital religious and social topics of the day; subjects that are challenging the attention of the whole North American student world.

PLAYERS APPEAR IN POPULAR DRAMA

Present "Passing of Third Floor Back" Tonight

PROMISES NEW FEATURES

Alfred Reese, '19, to Make Farewell Appearance in Part Made Famous by Forbes-Robertson

Susie Scott's giggle, her clothes and her powder puff, alone, are quite worth seeing in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." Also Reuben Clausen, and Leonard Woolen as the money-mad Jew.

The quiet personality of Alfred Reese, who plays the part of "The Stranger" or "The Passer-By," comes into its own in this play. This is the part made famous by that great actor Forbes-Robinson. The play is also popular as a reading.

Novel Light Effects

The story of the plot centers around the mysterious "Passer-By" whose subtle influence is felt by everyone in the cheap boarding house. The prologue shows the boarders as they are, the play shows them as they are changing and the epilogue as they have changed.

Light effects will be featured in this play by the stage manager, Herman Thomas. A new spot light has been procured and Thomas has worked out several unusual ideas in stage lighting that have never been used before. In one act sunbeams filter down into the room and in another the little slavey builds a fire among the foot-lights, where the cast gather to warm their hands.

The seats all over the house sell for 25 cents; tickets may be obtained from Walter Herbert or anybody in the elocution class that meets from three to five Thursday in U 106. Reservations are made at the College Book store.

Miss Me Yung Ting Tells of China's Appreciation of Association Work

"I come here tonight, with a double-fold pleasure, not only to visit this wonderful institution, but also to meet my friends that are working for one common cause," was the greeting of Miss Me Yung Ting, the Chinese medical student from Ann Arbor, at the Y. W. C. A. mass meeting. "You do not know how much I love America. I love the stars and I love the stripes, and here is this small flag of yours," said Miss Ting pointing to the tiny American flag pinned on the front of her dress.

"All of the allies are working for democracy, and China of today stands for democracy.

"The Chinese students in Ann Arbor, a short time ago, subscribed $2,000 to Liberty Bonds. So you see that we love America next to our own country.

"You know of the Boxer trouble in 1900. It was a misunderstanding when people said that we didn't like the missionaries. It was not that, but it was because the other countries had taken advantage of us, and we wanted to get rid of that kind.

"From this time on, do not call them 'missionaries,' but representatives of peace and light and truth. And if you are not able to work as representatives, you can work through Miss Coppock, who is the representative, not only of Nebraska, or of Chicago, but of everyone.

"America was the first nation to recognize our republic. The United States is the only nation that returned our indemnity fund, and the Chinese government put it aside to educate the young people so that they would not make another mistake. "It is the only country that was bold enough to stand in St. James court and tell them 'you should have an open door to China.' We feel especially indebted to you, because the United States has invested, not only her money, but her lives, for us.

"You may not be able to be a representative of life and truth, and peace, but is there a greater work than this tonight? We want to go out into the world, and do something for our country. I would like to go to France for the experience, but I know that there is a greater work here at home.

Duty of University Women

"It falls to the University girls of the country to back up the women who are doing the things that Miss Coppock is doing.

FACULTY STAMP SALES GO OVER THE TOP

Raise Net Total of Nearly $4,000

PREPARE FOR NEXT LOAN

Coming Drive Expected to Eclipse Records of all Others

The report given out yesterday by Prof. O. R. Martin, chairman of the finance committee of the Faculty patriotic league, showed that a total of $3,991.75 had been contributed to the War Savings Stamps, by the University faculty. The work of canvassing for the subscriptions was done by a committee of 17 members of the University faculty. Among the different buildings on the campus University hall stood first in the amount subscribed, with a total sum of $815.000. The Administration building was second with $560, and the Library third with $535.

The seventeen members of the committee who are responsible for the fine record made by the University faculty, are as follows. Chairman, Prof. O. R. Martin, Prof. C. E. Persinger, Prof. H. Brownell, Prof. (Continued on page two)

TO HOLD PATRIOTIC CONVOCATION TODAY

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, Presbyterian Moderator, Will Be the Principal Speaker

Convocation this morning will be a patriotic rally held in Memorial hall at 11 o'clock. Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church will be the principal speaker. Dean Hastings will preside. Dr. Chapman's subject is "What's the Use of Religion." He comes as a representative of the National Service Commission, a patriotic organization.

That Dr. Chapman is a good speaker is testified by the fact that when he spoke at Manhattan the Convocation was the best attended in the history of the University. Nebraska is just as patriotic as Kansas and it is hoped that the audience this morning will rival that of Manhattan both in size and enthusiasm.

Friday morning there will be a special Convocation in the Temple Theatre at 11 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Flocks, an aviatrix with 10,000 enlistments to her credit, will speak. She is accompanied by Sergeant Edwards, a survivor of the Princess Patricia regiment. The band will be there to enliven things with patriotic airs.

New Men Appointed to Supreme Bench

Possibly some of the deepest decisions ever handed down by a court of justice will be given from the bench of the Nebraska law college supreme court when the newly elected justices begin to apply their wisdom to facts as they are reported to them by the "attorneys at law" in trials that chance to arise in the future. It is expected that henceforth no one who seeks the right will be turned away dissatisfied from the doors of this court. The new justices are: Frank Boehmer, Fred Burstetta, Lester Dunn, A. C. Krebs and Albert Schwarz.

RUTH WELCH CHOSEN NEW HEAD OF Y. W. C. A.

Officers for Next Year Selected at Association Meeting Last Evening

Ruth Welch was chosen president of the Y. W. C. A. for the coming year by the association at a meeting held last evening. The new officers will take charge at the beginning of the year.

Other officers selected last evening were:
Helen Minor, vice president.

COPPOCK CAMPAIGN GETS EARLY START

$622 Subscribed on Eve of Big Drive

HELP FOR CHINESE WOMEN

Remaining Two-Thirds of Amount Needed to Be Raised by Co-Eds Today and Tomorrow

Six hundred and twenty-two dollars had been subscribed to the Grace Coppock fund, on the eve of the campaign which starts officially today. The salary for Miss Grace Coppock, '05, general Y. W. C. A. secretary in China, has been subscribed for for one hundred and thirty days. The enthusiasm of the Nebraska women in responding to the appeal of the Y. W. C. A. to take the responsibility of the entire salary of the woman who is at the head of all the Y. W. C. A. work in China is remarkable. The other two-thirds of Miss Coppock's salary will be subscribed today and tomorrow.

About three hundred University young women attended the mass meeting at the Armory last evening at 7 o'clock. Miss Harriett Taylor executive of the foreign board of the Y. W. C. A., and Miss Me Yung Ting, a Chinese medical student at the University of Michigan were the principal speakers. Bernice Miller, '18, president, and Dr. Winifred Hyde sang at the close of the meeting.

Miss Taylor said that we are coming into a new spirit of living. "The new co-operative way of living is reasonable and human way.

"We must develop our international mind. We must Christianize our international contacts. We must actively spread the Christian message throughout the world.

Praise for Missionaries

"The missionaries have the right idea. They go straight to the foundations and provide those intellectual, physical, moral and religious benefits upon which alone any true religion can be built," declared Miss Taylor.

"We are beginning to see that foreign missions are great patriotic enterprises. The United States send missions to Russia, Rumania and Serbia. We have been officially engaged in Belgian relief. If we have anything they need, we give it.

"That is the whole philosophy of the foreign missionary cause, which the foreign Association work is a part," said Miss Taylor. If we have Association experience that the Chinese women need, we should share it.

Miss Taylor told of the message of a professor of the Canton Christian college. He said that the Chinese desire the all-around development that every American woman should covet.

"There is a surprising similarity between the Association work here and in China.

POPULARITY OF RED CROSS ON INCREASE

University Women Make Enthusiastic Response to Last Week's Campaign

It is assured that the University Red Cross workers will reach the goal of 50,000 dressings before June 1, if the present enthusiasm continues, according to Dr. Winifred Hyde of the board of directors.

Over four hundred girls registered during the campaign for new workers, last week. About fifty-nine girls were out Thursday and Friday afternoon, and made nearly 1,600 compresses. Six hundred dressings were made Tuesday afternoon with about fifty girls present. The decrease was due to the fact that greater emphasis was laid on careful work than on speed.

The rooms are now open Tuesday, Thursday and Friday afternoons, and Friday mornings. Opening the rooms an additional morning is now being considered.
