"Is this a good brand of perfumery?" he asked, pawing over the lot on a bargain counter.

"One of our six best smellers," declared the clerk.

"Is that you, Clifford?"
"Yes, dear."
"Oh, you did frighten me; I thought there was a man in the room."

NEBRASKA BOY HELPING TO CLEAR SKIES

from which they concluded he was out of control.

"About eleven o'clock that night he showed up at mess. And wasn't everybody pleased! He had landed safely and best of all he had got one of the Huns who had followed him down; took a pot shot at the Hun and succeeded in hitting him in the knee. The Hun landed behind our lines but didn't crash, so now we have the machine intact.

"Our boy landed 500 yards from him and had a talk with him. The old Hun spoke excellent English.

"Today I went up for my second 'flip' while here. My flight commander told me to go up and throw the machine about a bit so he could see how good I was.

"I went up and started throwing her about to beat the band. After I had been up about fifteen minutes I got over the drome at about five hundred feet and started to do a sharp turn to the left. My right foot slipped off the rudder so I could not control the thing for a moment. I went into a spin, and maybe I didn't act quick! I shut off my engine, centralized my rudder and pushed my stick forward all in darn quick time. If I hadn't acted with the speed I did I should probably be in the Happy Hunting Grounds by this time. It was the first time I had ever spun. I'm glad I did it now, as it taught me things. When I came down they told me I had done a full roll and then spun, all at that low height.

"Lucky boy! I'm going to have the foot boards removed from my machine, as they were the cause of it all."

FLUENZA FORBIDS NOTRE DAME GAME

day, and stated that they would expect to play the Cornhuskers on the original date and get the guarantee of $4,000 called for in the original contract.

Syracuse university was first billed to play the Cornhuskers on the twenty-eighth but the trip was abandoned because it was too long. Illinois university and the Great Lakes Jackies were both sounded on the proposition of coming to Lincoln for a Thanksgiving combat but both said, "Nothin' doin'."

If Notre Dame can find it possible to meet Nebraska on Thanksgiving, the season will yet be saved. November 9, the Cornhuskers journey to the "Show me" state and take on Missouri university at Columbia. The following Saturday, the Kansas Jayhawkers invade Lincoln for the annual scrap and Northwestern is slated for November 23. Five big games, in a season which has been all shot to pieces by a nation-wide epidemic, is not so bad after all. The home folks who bought season tickets will be refunded for the games not played and nobody will be out very much.

Short Wesleyan Scrimmage
The scrimmage session with the Wesleyan Coyotes only lasted a short time yesterday afternoon, but in that time, the Cornhuskers shoved over a couple of touchdowns.

BOYS OF KHAKI ARE AGAIN IN DAILY GRIND

On Saturday the students of the university who are not in the S. A. T. C. will meet for instruction. Probably they will only meet for organization, and the regular work of the whole university will commence in earnest on Monday, November 4th. Most of the classes will commence with a review of the work done the first part of the term, and so it will be possible for students who entered the university late, to catch up with the entire class. The first term will end January 4th, so that there are but two months left for the present term.

Meaning of Democratic Success in Nebraska

Mr. Wilson Says:

"If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your un-embarassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad I earnestly beg that you will express yourself unmistakably to that effect by returning a democratic majority to both the Senate and House of Representatives.

If the control of the House and the Senate should be taken away from the party now in power an opposing majority could assume control of Legislation and oblige all action to be taken amidst contest and obstruction.

The return of a republican majority to either House of the Congress would moreover be interpreted on the other side of the water as a repudiation of my leadership."

DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS MEANS:

The re-election of Nebraska's War Governor, KEITH NEVILLE. He has faithfully redeemed his pledges and his experience in coordinating state with Federal war work is an asset in the prosecution of the war.

The election of W. B. BANNING for Lieutenant Governor. He is a successful business man and farmer and is a member of the State Board of Agriculture and the State Horticultural Society.

The election of HUGH L. COOPER for Secretary of State. He has been deputy for nearly four years and is familiar with the duties of the office.

The election of J. S. CANADY for State Treasurer. He has been treasurer of Kearney county for two terms and is president of the Farmers Grain and Live Stock Association of Nebraska.

The election of EUGENE P. MUMFORD for State Auditor. He was private secretary for ex-Governor Morehead and has since been engaged in the abstract and insurance business. His ability and experience qualify him for the office.

The election of GEORGE W. BERGE for Attorney General. He is a well known lawyer and his election will place the legal department in able hands.

The re-election of G. L. SHUMWAY for Land Commissioner. His record is above criticism.

The election of EDW. C. SIMMONS for Railway Commissioner. He is an expert Civil Engineer and is eminently qualified to render valuable service in this office.

The election of EX-GOVERNOR MOREHEAD to the U. S. Senate. No man is more familiar with the State of Nebraska and its needs than Mr. Morehead. His administration as Governor is conceded to be one of the most successful and strictly business-like the state has ever enjoyed. He will whole-heartedly support the president in the prosecution of the war and reconstruction measures.

The election of Democratic Congressmen. The president needs their assistance in congress and their election will mean that the people of this state are truly represented in congress. VOTE BY MAIL.
