TURN YOUR SHIRTTAILS INTO DRAWERS

OLUS

IN OLUS the outside shirt and underdrawers are one garment.

This means that the shirt can't work out of the trousers, that there are no shirt tails to bunch in seat, that the drawers "stay put," to say nothing of the comfort and economy of saving a garment. OLUS is coat cut, opens all the way down—closed crotch, closed back. See illustration.

For golf, tennis and field wear, we recommend the special attached collar OLUS with regular or short sleeves. Extra sizes for very tall or stout men. All shirt fabrics, in smart designs, including silks—$1.50 to $10.00.

OLUS one-piece PAJAMAS for lounging, resting and comfortable sleep. Made on the same principle as OLUS shirts—coat cut, closed back, closed crotch. No strings to tighten or come loose. $1.50 to $3.50. Ask your dealer for OLUS. Booklet on request.

Balloonists Wanted Return Date
 The Omaha Balloonists asked Director Stewart for a return date to be played at Omaha some time this week but Doctor Mills at Creighton university, when approached with the request for the Creighton gym he was perfectly willing for the Balloonists to use his floor but he balked when Nebraska was mentioned. The reason for the curt refusal is on account of the Omaha school's standards of eligibility which don't jibe with the ones held up by the Missouri valley conference, and Nebraska has refused to schedule games with Creighton for that reason. That is just why Tommy Mills is sore at the Cornhuskers.

BRIEF BITS OF NEWS

Musical Program at Union—Seventy students enjoyed a musical program and social hour at a meeting of the Union Literary society held in Union hall Friday evening. Mildred Frost gave a trombone solo, Miss Reed played a flute solo and Miss Waterhouse and Edith Cash sang.

Missionary Will Speak at Vespers—The vesper service to be held at Woman's hall Tuesday at five o'clock, promises to be one of exceptional interest. Miss Langrough, a returned missionary from Turkey, will tell some of her thrilling experiences, as she was forced to leave Turkey at the outbreak of the war. Violet Fulk, a member of the university chorus, will open the program by singing "Consider and Hear Me," by Pflenger.
