FRIDAY.
Phi Phi Chi.
 Phi Phi Chi gave a dancing party in the ballroom of the Victoria hotel.
 Streamers to which hearts were attached hung from the lights. Punch, wafers and ice cream were served.
 Forty couples attended. Dr. H. H.
 Waite, Prof. and Mrs. P. T. Smith, and Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Lantz chaperoned the party.

Alpha Xi Delta.
 Alpha Xi Delta entertained Friday evening at an informal party at Rose-wilde. About one hundred couples attended. The hall was artistically decorated in butterflies and streamers of fratrenly colors suspended from the ceiling. A floral arbor in the center of the hall was a feature decoration. Roses were given as favors after a rose dance was given by two little girls. Chaperones for the evening were Senator and Mrs. Brown, Senator and Mrs. Burke, Prof. and Mrs. Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Miss Lulu Runge, Mr. Geo.
 Rogers, Mrs. May Janson, and Mrs.
 Clara Blakeley, Helen Hanrian of Omaha, Jean Falconer of Omaha, Melvina Tomlinson, Hastings; Frances Munson, Aurora; Helen Dempster, Crete; Helen Burtram, Crete; Opal Slick, Clay Center, and Hazel Harnsburger, Elmwood, were out-of-town guests.

Phi Kappa Psi.
 Freshmen of Phi Kappa Psi entertained the active members at a Valentine dance at the chapter house Friday evening. About forty couples attended. Red hearts were used in the decorations and the lights were shaded in red. Ice cream, cake and candy were served. Dudley Scott, ex-'21 of Beatrice was a guest. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harnsbarger of Ashland and Prof. and Mrs. A. L. Candy.

Alpha Phi.
 Alpha Phi entertained forty couples at a house dance. Suggestions of Washingtons birthday, hatchets and flags were used in the decorations.
 Refreshments consisted of devils food cake, chocolate ice cream and coffee. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Westover chaperoned the party.

Kappa Sigma.
 Kappa Sigma was host to one hundred and fifteen couples at an informal dancing party at Knights of Columbus Hall. The fraternity colors and the fraternity flower, lily-of-the-valley, were used in the decorations.
 Ice cream, molded in the form of miniature busts of George Washington, and wafers were served. Prof. and Mrs. T. T. Bullock, Prof. and Mrs. John G. Mason, and Coach and Mrs. Schulte acted as chaperones.

Kappa Delta.
 Kappa Delta entertained at a dancing party at Ellen Smith Hall. George Washington decorations were used and George Wahsington caps and little red, white and blue parasols were given to the guests as favors.
 The honor guests were Eleanor Seymour and Philip Jordon Jones whose marriage took place Saturday afternoon at the chapter house. A mock wedding was held during intermission as a foreshadowing of the event.

Delian.
 The men of Delian Literary Society entertained the women members with an oyster stew and program at the University Conservatory of Music.
 Two playlets were given, "A Page of Unwritten History from the Eat-a-bite--ple-house" and "A Modern Instance." Those who took part in the first are:
 J. C. Higgins, Elton Lux, Millard Alles, J. N. Kottler and Milo Sherman.
 "A Modern Instance" was presented by Arnold Steinkrause, Harold Carlson, Arthur Allison and Nathan Mitchner.

WEDDINGS.
Seymour-Jones.
 The Kappa Delta house was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon when Miss Eleanor Seymour became the bride of Philip Jordon Jones. The bride, who is a charter member of the Nebraska chapter of Kappa Delta, was graduated from the University last spring with Phi Beta Kappa honors. Mr.
 Jones, '18, is connected with the Western Newspaper Union at Wichita, Kans., where the couple will make their home after a short wedding trip.
 Green and white, the sbority colors, combined with Russell roses were used in the decorations. Before the ceremony, Miss Ruth Lindsay sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Mary Leslie at the piano and Miss Dorothy Jones, sister of the bridegroom, on the violin. As Miss Leslie and Miss Jones played the Lohengrin wedding march the Kappa Delta girls in dainty organdie dresses came down the stairs in two's, carrying ropes of smilax with which they formed an aisle from the stairs to the altar in the chapter room. They sang the Lohengrin wedding chorus while the bride and her father came down the stairs and advanced to the altar where they were joined by the bridegroom and minister, the Rev. M. A.
 Bullock. "Traumeri" was played during the reading of the service and at the close the Mendelssohn wedding march.

Following the ceremony ices and cakes in green and white were served.

Mitchell-Melanphy.
 Announcement has been received of the marriage of Miss Roma Mitchell, ex-'21, to R. J. Melanphy in Honolulu, Hawaii, at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, February 15, in St.
 Andrews cathedral. The bride and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Mitchell, formerly of University Place, have been living in Honolulu the past year where Miss Mitchell taught school.
 She was a member of Delta Zeta and Mu Phi at the University of Nebraska.
 Mr. Melanphy, who is ensign in the United States merchant marine, makes regular trips on the route from the United States to Hawaii. His father is professor in the American schools in Honolulu.
 Mr. and Mrs. Melanphy will make their home in Alameda, Calif.

 CONFERS ON MEASURE
 Supt. Chas. K. Morse of the Curtis School of Agriculture was in Lincoln February 17 and 18 conferring with Representative Anderson, chairman of the Education Committee, in regard to H. R. 459.
 This is a bill authorizing the University Regents to sell the property of the Curtis School of Agriculture, and place the proceeds to the credit of the dormitory fund.

Living.
 Playing with life 'till you've found what is best in living, Wishing for things 'till you've found that a wish satisfies, Seeking for joy till joy is no more a pleasure, Longing for sunshine and the gleaming of friendly eyes, Laughing when fortune has set you adrifting, Smiling when others have ceased to smile upon you, Wanting to play in the meadow with capering children, Feeling that age comes too fast, and you've has not left you 's due—Caring when friends have forgotten their friendship, Playing with fate when you haven't a chance in the world, Loving with all that is best and truest within you, Fighting for life when the banner of war is unfurled, Dreaming and hoping for things that never can happen, Working till work has taken away your vim, Looking for rainbows and a better day on the morro—That's living, 'till life's burned you, candle dim.
 —Spool.
