

Valley Champions

LEO SCHERER.

Scherer and Swanson are the two fastest ends in the Missouri Valley, without doubt. Scherer was a great running mate for the Husker captain and stood out as a wonderful end in every game. On the defense he is exceptionally skillful at spilling enemy interference and has been on the receiving end of numerous Husker forward passes. His playing in the Kansas game was especially brilliant. He made seemingly impossible catches of passes and broke through for a touchdown on a Kansas fumble. His home is at Spencer. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

"PETE" PRESTON

"Pete" Preston is one of the best quarterbacks in the Missouri Valley. His remarkable generalship has won country-wide notice and when it comes to returning punts, they don't make them better. Preston is a mean handler of the drop-kick as well, tallying three of Nebraska's ten points against Pitt by this method. Preston has two more years on the varsity and should show up with remarkable football skill again next year. He comes from Howe, Indiana. He is a member of Sigma Chi.

FLOYD WRIGHT.

Wright is playing his last game of football for Nebraska today. He has been a dependable backfield performer for three years, starring on many occasions. His long end runs through broken fields brought many thrills to spectators and gained many yards for Nebraska. He is also a great track man, clipping the high and low hurdles in record time. He ran second to Thompson, of Dartmouth, at the Penn relays last year and won the hurdles in the Missouri valley and western conference meet. He played high school football at Scottsbluff. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

HAROLD HARTLEY.

"Chick" has another year to play football for the Scarlet and Cream and this fact is a source of joy to all Husker fans and students. For the past two seasons he has been one of Nebraska's most consistent ground gainers and is equally strong on defense play. His terrific line smashing tactics against Pittsburg factored largely in the Cornhusker victory. He has played a heady, consistent game throughout the entire season and should be better than ever next year. He is fast on his feet and hits the line like a battering ram. He is equally clever in running in a broken field, making many long gains in this manner. Hartley hails from Harvard, where he played high school football. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta.

VERNE LEWELLEN

Verne Lewellen is one of the strongest punters in the country. Lew is well in line to equal the punting record of Captain Paul Dobson of two years ago, who won country wide fame by his booting ability. Lew's toe is given credit by many for the low score to which Nebraska held Notre Dame. His best exhibition was in the Oklahoma game when he booted a mud-laden ball distances which would have attracted attention on a dry field. Lewellen is in his first year on the varsity. He came from Lincoln high where he was captain one year. He was twice selected for the all-state teams and was placed on Cy Sherman's honor roll three times. His home is in Lincoln. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

GORDON HOUSE

House is in his first year on the varsity and has shown up with the best. While he has not gotten into all the games, he has been on the job every minute of the time he has played. He plays the pivot position and is a wicked enemy of Nebraska opponents. House has two more years for the Husker varsity and will prove a very valuable man to Dawson's team. His weight is a big point in his favor. His home is at Powell, Wyoming. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

GEORGE KLEMKE

Klemke was kept out of the game a good share of the time with an injured arm. He plays an end position and next year will give a great account of himself in the gridiron game. Last year he was captain of the freshman team. He is speedy and clever and a deadly tackler on the defensive. All in all, he is an exceptional gridiron performer and is bound to be a Cornhusker star. He comes from Bayard where he was prominent in all athletics. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

BRYANT NIXON

Nixon has been tried out with success this year at both the center and tackle positions. Nixon substituted in the Oklahoma game and won such notice that he started the Notre Dame contest. An injury forced him out of the game and he did not get back until the Ames contest when he showed up in fine form. This is his second year on the varsity. Nixon is from Omaha where he played with South high and won all-state fame. He is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

ROSS MCGLASSON

The name McGlasson characterizes him as a football player. This was his first year with the Husker varsity. He played both at center and guard and promises to be a great linesman. His weight passes the 250-pound mark and he is a source of strength in the line. He formerly starred with Lincoln high school. He is a member of Kappa Sigma.

HAROLD MCGLASSON

Mac is a well-known Husker veteran, being a letter man for the past three seasons. Today he is playing his last game of football for the University of Nebraska, as he graduates this year. His work at quarterback has always been good. He has been unable to play in most of the games this year. He did good work in the Ames game, flipping the oval to Swanson for a touchdown. Mac is an old Lincoln high school gridster. He is a member of Kappa Sigma.

F. W. LUEHRING.
Director of Athletics

his second year as coach of Nebraska's cross country team. Coach McMasters is an N man, winning his letter in both track and cross country besides holding the captaincy of the cross country team one year. Coach McMasters developed an excellent distance team last year which placed third in the Missouri Valley run, after winning a number of minor runs. Coach McMasters was handicapped this year by a lack of veterans and had luck in the form of injuries all season. McMaster's proteges, however, succeeded in winning fourth in the Conference meet as well as coping the honors in the annual Lincoln Y. M. C. A. meet.

OWEN FRANK
Assistant Football Coach

Dr. R. G. Clapp, a Yale graduate, and the oldest member of Nebraska's coaching staff, has charge of the Husker wrestling team. Dr. Clapp has shown remarkable skill in moulding Nebraska's wrestling teams, which have regularly carried off high honors in competitions with the other valley wrestling teams.

Director of Athletics Fred W. Luehring, will direct the Cornhusker swimming team which will be formed this year for the first time. Director Luehring sees great possibilities in this sport, and is striving to perfect plans for a Conference swimming meet during the present year.
