commanding lead. Johnson loped through the mile in nice shape beating the red-headed Kansan by a decisive margin, Johnson's time of 4 minutes 30 seconds set a new mile record for the stadium indoor track, clipping four seconds off the former mark held by Jimmie Lewis, now assistant coach.

Moody Wins Close 880 Dash Moody came back to nose Johnson out in a sensational finish in the 880. Moody's time of 2 minutes 1.3 secends was two-tenths of a second onds was two-tenths of a second slower than the track record which 256 TEAMS PLACED Johnson holds. Moody also finished his third race in brilliant manner when he picked Bob Davenport on the final straightaway of the mile rein the relay, first the Kaggies and then the Huskers losing ground thereby. Davenport and Moody went out practically together on the last quarter-mile of the relay, Kaggies winning at the finish by inches,
