

VARSITY QUINT WORKS FOR WIN

Next Game With Oklahoma A. And M. Is Important In Schedule

In preparation for the week-end contest with the Oklahoma Aggies, the Nebraska basketballers spent the Tuesday basket drill in scrimmaging Bunny Oakes' yearling team. Scoring honors were even until Brown, Witte, Munn, Holm, and Lewandowski were inserted in the Varsity lineup, when the Huskers pulled out far ahead of their freshmen opponents.

With the Oklahoma Aggies riding in third place in the Missouri Valley standings, the Huskers are figuring on a hard game this coming Saturday. Preparations for the approaching game consist of a one-hour drill under Coach Black, stressing fundamentals, then a fifteen minute practice game with the yearling quintet.

Wright, Oklahoma A. and M. all-around athlete, is now holding second place in the Valley race for individual scoring honors. Holt, elongated center on the first place Oklahoma quintet, is leading the Valley scorers by a substantial margin.

Fresh Show the Goods
Next year's Varsity team will probably contain lots of sophomore material, from the showing being made by the yearling basketballers in the daily workouts with the Varsity. "Morrie" Fisher, John Kimball, Kenneth Morrison, Glen Milhollin, Cliff Jensen, and Fred Maclay are providing Coach Bunny Oakes with material from which to make a fast quintet. In the daily scrimmages with the Varsity, the yearling teams always give sufficient opposition.

According to the last two workouts and past performances, the probable lineup this week-end against the Oak Aggies will have "Jug" Brown and "Dutch" Witte, forwards; Glen Munn, center; Elmer

Holm and "Lew" Lewandowski, guards. This quintet combines a lot of fight with considerable smartness in working the ball down the Coliseum court. Harvey Grace and Tom Elliott will work in at the forward positions, and Bob Krall, Carl Olson, and George Gohde will aid the Varsity in the defensive formations.

After the Saturday night contest with the Oklahoma Ags at home, the Huskers will go to Ames for a game with the Iowa State hoopsters Feb. 9. On Feb. 10, the Varsity will meet Grinnell on the foreign court. The game with Ames marks the halfway point in the Husker basket schedule and nine games, including important contests with Kansas and Oklahoma, remain to be played.

According to Coach Charley Black, the plans for the rest of the week include nothing but scrimmage and drill on fundamentals. Every effort is being made by coach and players to place the Oklahoma A. and M. game in the victory column because of the importance of the Saturday tussle.
