A paper heart for your Valentine is alright, but we saw some Valentines the other day that my friends are going to get. I know mother sure would enjoy a little piece of jewelry, a table decoration, vase or other useful articles for the house. All these things and more are at George Bros. in their window and remember they have beautiful paper Valentines too. Did you know that favors for your Valentine party or any other occasion you are planning may be had at George Bros. in a very interesting selection? Nothing like them to make a bigger and better party.—Adv.

Special Feature Planned
Special entertainment features have been arranged by members of the "N" Club. "Bill" Fleming and his crew of clowns will be conspicuous during the evening. Blue Howell and Glenn Presnell announce that Fenton B. Fleming will present the winner of the hog-calling contest with a leather pocketbook.

Entries in this in-and-outdoor sport will be accepted up until noon today. Ray Randels has assembled a company of bathing beauties who will represent campus fraternities. "Bud" McBride's clogging contest will be one of the high-lights of the evening. "This contest is no farce," announced McBride, going on to explain that the contestants are good dancers, and that a suitable prize will be given to the winner.

Supplies for the intersorority "Thread that Needle" relay is being held in the athletic office. Track men who will run for the seven Nebraska sororities who have entered and the sorority girls themselves have been chosen for the relay. A silver trimmed vase is offered as a prize to the winner of this unique race.

the shot 36 feet, 4 inches. Howell, Delta Tau Delta, made the second best mark in this event with a heave of 35 feet, 1 inch. Pickett, Sigma Phi Epsilon, made a throw of 34 feet 7 inches.

Tomson, Phi Kappa Psi, led the broad jumpers covering 21 feet 10 inches for his best jump. Young, Phi Kappa Psi, placed second with a jump of 20 feet, 7 inches. E. Wyatt, Kappa Sigma, jumped 20 feet for third honors.

The standings of the fraternities following the third day of competition had not been determined late last night. The leading Farm House track team scored 2189.5 points in the two mile run which should aid greatly in keeping them in first place. The interfraternity relays will be run as a feature event in the athletic carnival at the coliseum tonight.

Col. Roosevelt Speaks To Large Audience

ideals of the United States."

Roosevelt advocated a reform in some phases of politics and legislation. He said that the farm problem was one of the most difficult, and that the farmers only share seven and one-half percent of the world's income. He explained that some method of organization must be adopted as a relief from the situation.

After the convocation speech Roosevelt was taken downtown for a short talk to the Chamber of Commerce. In the afternoon he spent some time at the stadium, where he watched some exhibition races by Locke, Elkins, Trumble, Ashburn, and Krause. Roosevelt left last night to make an address in Des Moines today.

Carnival Cracks

but we'll wager. Stable dope is coming to the Nebraskan. Captains of sport racing around the track—excitement—perhaps some will get sulky. Others will become indignant and won't run at all. But the list of entries is so long that we won't miss them.

Blue Howell and Glenn Presnell are engineering the hog-calling contest. Entries close at 12 o'clock today, according to Howell. They have found it necessary to limit the number of contestants. Just see Howell or Presnell if you want to get that hog-call off your chest. And the winner gets a slick prize. And just ask us if it will be entertaining.

Schulte is going to exhibit a little freshman and varsity track material. We will promise anything here. And maybe Elkins will tear off a little high-jumping.

The Husker Intramural Carnival idea is not original. Ohio has an outdoor circus—Illinois has a festival. Nebraska has a Carnival. And what a carnival! Fifty cents admits you. The College Club will play for the dance. You've heard about the "Off-color" dance? Certainly—it's going to be an entertaining mixer.

And "Bill" Fleming's clowns will entertain you.

"The Tumbling Six" is coming down from the Lincoln "Y". They're putting on a clever, snappy tumbling act. You'll fall for this one.

We're expecting all of the Kappa Sigs there. They get a trophy for last year's championship in interfraternity athletics. The Alpha Phi's will be there too. They have four Kappa Sigs on their Thread and Needle team. See you at the Carnival.

Cornhusker Intramural Holds High Rank

Two weeks before Christmas "Jimmy" Lewis got the big interfraternity basketball tournament under way and it was one of the most successful basket tournaments ever held at the university. Under the direction of Lewis the tournament was run off in machine like manner without any mishaps or confusion. Two classes of teams entered the meet.

Kappa Sigs Win Class A
In class A the Kappa Sigs went through the tourney without a single defeat and won the silver loving cup which will be presented later in the year. Sigma Phi Epsilon and Alpha Sigma Phi fight it out on the Coliseum floor Friday night for second place. The class A tourney represented one of the fastest oaskec ball fights ever staged on the Coliseum hardwood.

Throughout the tournament, enthusiasm and interest was at a high pitch and not until the last round of league games was the winner decided. In class B the Phi Sigma Kappa five and Alpha Gamma Rho have yet to decide who will be winner of that division.

Sports Planned for Carnival
Wrestling, boxing, rifle shooting, interfraternity track and the fraternal relays are following in order of events in the Lewis-Glah-Schulte 1928 intramural athletic program. The "N" club's Cornhusker Carnival Friday night is one of the high lights on the season's athletic circle. Boxing, wrestling and the relays will be held Friday night during the carnival.

The "N" club has taken up interest in athletics for men who are not of varsity calibre and with this organization pushing the intramural athletics, Nebraska should turn out the best fitted men in the country.

Last season the directors of the intramural program inserted bowling into the athletic circle and a great amount of interest has been aroused in the ten pin game. With the closing of the basketball tourney all interest will be devoted to track. The annual indoor Greek track meet was started Tuesday under the east wing of the stadium and will close Saturday afternoon.

Indoor Track Popular
More men enter the indoor track meet than any other event and the watchful and directing eye of Coach Schulte puts the big cinder event over in great style. Three events are run off each day and the meet is scored on the penthalon basis. Many varsity men are picked out of the meet to form the future Nebraska Cornhusker track team. Nebraska has always made a great showing on the track in the Missouri Valley and it is from the ranks of interfraternity athletes that Schulte gets his material.

In the spring the grand old game occupies all the time of the fraternities. Baseball lots are dragged and prepared for the race for honors. Handball, tennis, and other sports take up the time between the closing of the indoor track season and the baseball tourney.

Kappa Sig won the cup for the intramural program last year, winning the interfraternity baseball, indoor track, class B basketball and bowling. The winners this season are Phi Delta Theta in hare and hound, Theta Chi in cross-country, Theta Xi in the rifle shoot and Beta Theta Pi in water polo.
