A. A. U. TRACK MEET AT STADIUM TODAY

clude Vic Williams of Los Angeles A. C., who equalled the world record for the 440 yard dash this spring; Dale Letts of the University of Chicago, who set a new N. C. A. A. record for the half mile; Ed Genung, national half mile champion; Joe McCluskey, Fordham athlete, who is Penn relay and national steeplechase champion; Louis Gregory, national six mile champion.

The hurdle field includes many bright stars with Lee Sentman, University of Illinois; Johnny Morris, New Orleans, La.; George Maxwell, Olympic club, topping the list.

Ten high jumpers who have done 6 feet 5 inches or better are included in the high jump competition. The field is headed by Harold Osborn, world recordholder at 6 feet 8 1/4 inches; George Spitz, indoor record holder at 6 feet 7 inches; Anton Burg, Darrell Jones, William O'Connor, Walter Marty and several others.

Tom Warne is one of the most colorful of the entries in the pole vault, while Gordon, University of Iowa broad jumper, and member of the American Olympic team, is among the broad jump entries.

Levi Casey of the Olympic team is back to defend his hop, step and jump title, with the veteran Pat McDonald entered in the 56 pound weight.

Herman Brix, national record holder and champion, tops the shot put entries with Paul Jessup, claimant of the world record in the discus, featuring the men here for the latter event.

A dozen javelin throwers who cast the spear better than 200 feet are in the spectacular javelin event. Among the leaders are Jimmy DeMers, national recordholder and champion, and Kenneth Churchill, I. C. 4-A and N. C. A. A. champion.

The Saturday night relays promise to be a spectacular event. Powerful floodlights have been installed in the stadium for the nocturnal events.
