

Husker Cagers Pull Away for North Tonight

HUSKER CAGERS LINED UP FOR THE 32-33 SEASON

NINE MEN WILL BE TAKEN FOR WEEK'S DOUBLE ENCOUNTER

Schedule Calls for Gopher Tilt Friday and Carleton College Thursday.

According to an announcement made by Coach Browne Tuesday afternoon nine men are to make the trip to Minnesota this week end where Carleton college and Minnesota university are to be engaged in tilts Thursday and Friday evenings. The Husker party is to leave this evening at 7 o'clock for the northlands and will probably get back to Lincoln sometime Sunday.

The nine men included on the roster are Ken Lunney, Walt Henrion, Bud Parsons, and Forrest Bauer, forwards; Leland Copple, center; Paul Mason, George Sauer, Hubert Boswell, Glenn LeDoigt or John Delaney, guards.

George Sauer and Walt Henrion are the only two men not in good condition for the contests, Sauer still suffering from a bad knee which he hurt in the Southern Methodist grid game, and Henrion still being slightly ill and considerably weak from flu.

The lineup scheduled to start in the Carleton mix has Ken Lunney and Walt Henrion, at forwards; Lee Copple, center; George Sauer and Paul Mason, guards.

In the final drill before the departure the most attention was given over to individual and group defensive practice Tuesday afternoon, following which a short offensive and defensive session was run off with Coach Waldorf's Wesleyan quintet. In this drill the ball-handling and general floor play was somewhat improved over that of Monday afternoon, when the most ragged exhibition thus far this winter was presented.

Another new candidate turned out for practice for the first time this season in the person of Art Hoag, who two years ago played on the freshman five along with several of the present varsity performers.

B TEAM SUFFERS 30-22 DEFEAT FROM YORKERS

Leads at Half 13-10; But Superiority in Free-Throw Marks Winners.

Sustaining its first defeat of the season the Nebraska B team Tuesday evening fell before the attack of the York Panthers by the score of 30 to 22 after leading at the halfway mark 13 to 10.

Superiority in the free throw department was the saving point for the winners, Coach Hill's men tallying ten gift flips to four for the losers, with each five having nine fouls chalked up against it.

Immediately after the start of the tilt Captain Hersey capitalized on Hartley's first foul with the first point of the game, and then the visitors proceeded to gain a 10 to 6 advantage over Coach Knights men shortly before the whistle called an end to the first half. However Walker and Hartley collaborated in a seven point rally which enabled the Nebraska crew to lead at the intermission 13 to 10.

Shortly after the second half got into motion Walker tallied on a couple of nice flips from the foul line and it began to look like a long evening for the N. C. A. C. boys. However with Seigel scoring four points in quick succession the Yorksters proceeded to hit the victory trail, and ran off twenty points before the home team got a lookin making the count 30 to 17. In this rally Seigel and Anderson, lanky center, played the leading roles.

Three men tied for high point honors, Seigel and Anderson of York, and Walker of Nebraska ringing up nine counters Hersey, playing his fourth year at guard for York, was easily the outstanding player for the winners, while Seigel and Anderson played snappy games up in the front line. Walker and Hartley had leading roles in the B team lineup, both playing good floor games. The score:

GIVE CHRISTMAS TABLEUX

Girl Reserves in Vespers Portray Scenes From Ben-Hur Story.

Three Christmas tableaux were presented by Lincoln high school Girl Reserves at Vespers Tuesday evening. The theme for the tableaux was taken from Ben-Hur. The scenes portrayed the meeting of the Wise Men in the desert, their visit to Herod, the king, and their worship at the stable where the new King was born.

Christmas carols were used throughout the tableau, and were also sung by the girls attending the services.

SIMPLIFY TEACHING RULES

Committee Says Standards Of North Central Group Are Sufficient.

The university committee on accredited schools has recently ruled that any teacher in Nebraska high schools, or any student intending to teach in state high schools may qualify for teacher preparation under the North Central Association of Colleges and Accredited Schools, standards instead of those of the state. This was done in the interests of simplification, in order that teachers are not forced to worry about meeting the separate requirements of both state and North Central Association, which vary as to the number of hours required. While the standards of the Association are lower than those of the state in some instances, they are higher in others, thus making the teaching requirements practically the same.
