COMPANY PRESENTS THREE ACT COMEDY

'Meanest Woman in the World' Portrays Life of Young Lawyer.

Presenting a three act comedy, "The Meanest Woman in the World," to an appreciative audience, the Glenray Comedy Co. entered its second week in Lincoln.

The company is appearing at the Liberty theater in place of the Liberty Players. Only three, Clyde A. Armstrong, Elton Hackett and Juliette Goodwin were members of the former company.

"The Meanest Woman in the World" is the story of a young lawyer who left the farm and went to the city where he was a success. In spite of the objection of his wife, "the meanest woman in the world." His family comes to see him. A typical instance is the lawyer's younger brother appearing from the street in his red and black bath robe and declaring that he had come to the city to get a "jar of traffic jam."

The company will present "Self Defense" next week with the help of three new members, who arrived recently. Among its other features in an amateur night, Thursday, at which time local talent will furnish vaudeville entertainment.

Freshman English Head Conceives Novel Scheme

Freshman English themes written at the University of North Carolina receive due recognition for excellence. Prof. A. P. Hudson, chairman of freshman English, selects, with the assistance of his instructors, the four best English themes of each month and mimeographs them in a publication entitled "Themes to be Distributed to All First Year English Students."

CHARTER DAY EVENT INCLUDES SPEECH IN NATION WIDE HOOKUP

by Nebraska alumni clubs scattered over the state and nation. Following the usual custom, the university has aided these organizations in observing Charter Day, by sending prominent members of the university faculty to Nebraska and Iowa towns to speak upon the present policies and work of the university.

Will Show Films.

Special films have been sent out to those towns which were unable to secure university speakers. These films include, among other things, selected "shots" of the university life, traditions and scenes.

In the Lincoln program, over KFAB, besides the skits and short talks by the university officials, the University Glee club and the R. O. T. C. band will be heard. The Lincoln program has been prepared and directed by Ray E. Ramsay, alumni secretary, and Oscar Norling, editor of the Nebraska Alumnus.

Alumni Arrange Program.

Special programs have been arranged for by several of the leading alumni clubs in Nebraska and neighboring states. The Omaha club has made plans for an extensive dinner and celebration. County celebrations, while not as many this year as last, have been arranged for.

Dr. J. P. Senning, chairman of the Political Science department, will speak at Sioux City, Iowa, this evening. Dr. Walter Judd, a prominent Nebraska graduate, will be the main speaker at the meeting which will be held at the University of Minnesota campus, in Minneapolis, this afternoon.
