

INDOOR TRACKSTERS MAKE PREPARATIONS FOR MEET SATURDAY

Schulte's Team Will Make First Appearance for This Season.

Facing their first indoor track test of the season Saturday, Coach Schulte's indoor tracksters have been busily engaged during the past week in final preparations for the dual meet with Minnesota at Minneapolis. It will likewise mark the first appearance of the Gophers in indoor track competition this year.

With quite a sprinkling of lettermen of former years competing for the Huskers and Gophers, the engagement is expected to be featured by standout performances and fast times in several events. Reports from the Minnesota stronghold indicate that the Gophers have a well balanced lineup and will furnish the Huskers no little competition, especially in the sprints, middle distances, and pole vault.

Minnesota Shows Strength.

In a recent varsity-freshmen meet at Minneapolis, the varsity exhibited much strength in most of the events. Thompson, who finished second in the Big Ten indoor meet in 1932 ran away from his rivals in the 60-yard dash, while Gustafson and Currell turned in splendid early season times in the distance runs. Gustafson was clocked at 2:00 flat in the 880. He will match strides with Roberts of Nebraska who has run the same event in 2:08.8. Currell ran a 4:27 mile and was timed at 9:40 in the two mile.

Final Husker tryouts were held last Saturday and the results proved most satisfactory. The fleet Heye Lanburtus star red taking the sprints and the hurdles in good time. He is entered in those events along with Jerry Lee and Adolph Dohrman. Lee will also broad jump and high jump.

McLaughlin Makes Trip.

McLaughlin established himself as the other quarter miler besides Staab who will make the trip. He won a special 440 Tuesday night in 54 seconds. Ayres, Story, Blazer, Funk, and Roberts have been entered in the 880, one mile, and two mile runs. Ayres won the mile in the track tryouts last Saturday and is accorded an even chance of winning from Currell. Blazer's time in the two mile was 10:16.

Both Mithum of Minnesota and Roby of Nebraska have cleared 12 feet 6 inches in the pole vault, but in all probability will vault higher when they get together Saturday. Other Huskers making the trip include Skewes, pole vault; Toman, high jump; Hubka and Mead, shot put.

CONFERENCE CATCHES

BY BURT MARVIN.

A swell compliment for Walt Henrion has come floating up here from the Sooner sports service in the wake of the Husker-Oklahoma game reports. Last Saturday evening at Norman the classy Nebraska floorman, supplemented his splendid floor game with 14 points, and thus made quite an impression on the fans in Bill Murray's state. They'll tell you down these that he looked fully as good as either Wagner of Missouri or Bill Johnson of Kansas. We haven't seen Wagner in play up here but being compared with Johnson being the leading figure in Big Six basketball in the eyes of most critics.

Oklahoma opinion also says that the Nebraska outfit got more layout shots from setup plays than any team playing there this season. They are also called "rangy Nebraskans." The average height is a bit over six feet, but Coach Browne lacks any extremely tall man with which most of the other schools are blessed.

Of course as far as height is concerned there is Leland Copple who is 6 feet 4 inches tall, but even that length is belittled by such men as Wagner of Missouri and Johnson of Kansas. Copple hasn't had the basketball experience with which most of the other players have been blessed, and as a result his floorwork hasn't been up to that of a number of the other men on the squad. However the Rosalie athlete has been coming around in great shape during the last few weeks, and Monday exhibited his prowess at Kansas State by leading Husker scorers with ten points.

During the semester exam week Chuck Taylor, famed pro cage player put on several exhibitions of pointers in the coliseum for the benefit of Husker players. A few of his suggestions helped materially in improving Copple's underbasketplay, which improvement was very evident at Manhattan Monday.

Its hard to wait until Steve Hokuf begins to perform in track and field meets again this spring. Hailed as the greatest all-around athlete who has ever attended Nebraska the Crete performer certainly lives up to the name he has established when it comes to track meets. He can do most anything on the track and field in a manner gratifying to Coach Schulte, and his special role is that of javelin tosser. A toss of merely 190 feet has been his usual distance, and 190 feet is a good distance in anybody's league.

DR. HARRY TO MEET GROUP

Church Education Secretary
To Meet With Lutheran Committee.

Dr. C. P. Harry, of Washington, D. C., secretary of the board of education of the United Lutheran Church of America, will meet with the University of Nebraska Lutheran committee for student work at the Temple building at noon today. In the evening he is to address the Lutheran Brotherhood at Grace Lutheran church. Harry is en route to Lawrence, Kas., for a University of Kansas conference. Plans for his Lincoln visit were arranged by Reinhold Carlson, Lutheran student secretary for the university.

HUSKERS WORK OUT IN PREPARATION FOR SOUTH DAKOTA TILT

Browne Puts Basketball Team Through Light Drill Wednesday.

Exceedingly tired out by the two game trip which was taken this last week the Nebraska basketball five was run through a comparatively light drill by Coach Browne Wednesday afternoon. The only game on hand for this week end is the South Dakota tilt Saturday evening in the Coliseum.

In the Oklahoma mix the Huskers presented a high scoring combination which chalked up 35 points, but the Oklahomans were four points better with 39. Again at Manhattan the Brownmen were fairly hot and counted 30 points, but the defense gave in during the last four minutes of play and the Wildcats finished ahead with 36 to their account.

Defense Shows Weakness.

In view of the fact that it was the defense which showed weakness in these two games the Scarlet mentor is planning to spend a good share of the time on defensive drill, and some drill is to be put in on quick break plays, which were fairly productive at Norman last Saturday.

A short scrimmage was held Wednesday with various combinations seeing action against the reserves. Forwards in the lineup were Hub Boswell, Ken Lunney, Paul Mason and George Wahlquist. Bud Parsons, Steve Hokuf, George Sauer and Bob Belka all got in their licks at guard while at center Leland Copple and Walt Henrion took care of the work at hand.

HUSKER SECONDS TO MEET M'COOK NEXT

B Team Doped to Win From Westerners Due to Win Over Dana.

Having gained revenge over the Dana college five Tuesday night at the Ag college gym by a 44 to 29 score the Nebraska B team is to meet McCook junior college tonight at the same place in its second game of the week. Dana had previously defeated the Huskers 47 to 28 at Blair.

The game Tuesday night was fast and well-played and as a result of the victory over the Vikings Coach Knight's men are favorites to down the westerners when they invade the Husker court tonight. Dana holds a victory over the McCook boys to its credit.

With Irving Walker due to see little play because of a recent illness, Coach Knight announced that he would probably start Lloyd Long and Forrest Bauer, forwards, Herb Hartley, center, and Walt Pailing and Tom Snipes, guards.

The game is to start promptly at 8:00 o'clock in the Ag College Student Activities building with Student Activities tickets or 25c

SWIMMING TOURNEY TO START SATURDAY

Seven Groups Will Take Part in First Round Of Meet.

The first round of the swimming tournament sponsored by the women's swimming club will be held Saturday at 1 o'clock in the coliseum pool. Participants in the first meet are members of Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Kappa Phi, Sigma Delta, Zeta Tau Alpha and Raymond hall.

Each meet is conducted by two girls who are members of the Tanksterettes. Charlotte Goodale and Justine Mickey have charge of the contests for Saturday.

Various events will be held for deep and shallow water swimmers. Among the events will be a towel race, balloon relay, tandem race and a horse and rider contest.
