

A western editor has devised a scheme for keeping subscriptions paid up, that is said to be a startling success. Every time a delinquent subscriber is mentioned in his paper, his name is inverted. For example: "uqof sæuof and wife are spending a few days in Chicago." Every other subscriber understands what it means, and there is a grand rush to get right side up again.—Ex.

THE NEBRASKAN contemplates a scheme of this character for next year. Delinquents beware.

An expert mathematician has calculated that the amount of energy spent in an average foot ball game is sufficient to break up twenty acres of the heaviest soil known in the country.—Ex.

Dartmouth has turned out forty college presidents, two hundred college professors, sixty members of congress and twenty-four governors. Among her famous alumni are Daniel Webster and Rutus Choate.—Ex.

First Boy—I don't like Cæsar.

Second Boy—Why?

First Boy—Too much Gaul.

A Chinaman was invited by a fellow countryman to take a drink. He responded sadly: "Wish I could. I can't. Belong to the Band of Hope. Can't drink, can't smoke, can't swear; wish I could; I can't. Belong to the Band of Hope."—Wellsley Prelude.

In Latin and Creek

He was quick as a streak;

In dress he was foppish and tony;

The latter was due to his being an ass,

The former was due to his pony.

FAST DYE.

"There's one consolation," thought the bargain-hunter as she was blown to atoms by a dynamite cartridge, "this is a fast die."

The Shirt—I'm completely done up every few days.

The Peanut—Poor fellow! But I'm continually roasted.—Pittsburg Bulletin.
