The classical sophomores at Beloit College have translated the Antigone of Sophocles into English verse and are making preparations to enact it. The rendering of a Greek tragedy each year has become a regular feature of the sophomore work at Beloit.

The student body of the University of Wisconsin has united with the people of Madison in forming a choral union. Its purpose is to form a strong society, including the best musical talent of the city and the University. They intend to produce the Messiah soon.

The faculties of several Universities have begun to demand a voice in athletic affairs. At the University of Michigan the faculty have decreed that a Board of Control should be formed, consisting of five members of the faculty and four students elected by the Athletic association. At the Northwestern, control of athletics is vested in a committee consisting of three faculty members, three alumni and three students from the Athletic association.

The University of Wisconsin claims that its new gymnasium, which will be completed by spring, will rival that of Yale.

The Kansas State University is agitating a change from their well known "Rock Chalk" yell. Arguments pro and con are given in the University papers. We have a second hand yell, especially adapted to strong lungs and large mouths, for sale or trade. "Rock Chalk" once caused the defeat of our ball team and we would hate to see it discarded.

Iowa has contested her game with Kansas on account of the umpire. Kansas will end up at the end of the procession if she isn't careful.
