

LOCAL.

J. W. Dixon spent Sunday in Nebraska City.

John Marshall, '93, visited the University last week.

Miss Thayer and Mr. S. Corey joined the Palladian society last Friday evening.

Another University dance will be given at Lansing Hall next Friday evening.

The Senior class meets on Friday at 4 o'clock to elect officers for next semester.

The Palladian Skating club spent an enjoyable afternoon at Lincoln park on Thursday.

The glee and banjo clubs are practicing twice a week preparatory to the Charter Day celebration.

The other day in German class a young lady gave "out of sight" as a translation for "aussicht."

Miss Sallie Groh has been unable to attend her classes for the past week on account of the illness of her mother and sister.

The second in the series of joint discussions between the Maxwell club and the U. B. D. C. was held in chapel on Saturday evening.

Owing to the fact that Union hall is being repaired the Union visited the Delian society on last Friday evening in response to a kind invitation.

All the literary societies have adjourned for next Friday evening to attend the services held by John R. Mott in chapel under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

The Greek chorus is at work learning the chorus from "Electra." The members of this body find committing Greek poetry a greater task than they anticipated.

Professor Ward and Mrs. Wilson spoke before the Haydon Art club in chapel on Tuesday evening. Professor Ward on "House Architecture of Prehistoric People."

The class in geology has commenced classifying the rocks. Some of the classifications are amusing. As for an example, a granite is called a felsite or a mica schist. Bright students.

The board of managers of the Athletic association met last week and elected Harvey Heald base ball manager. A schedule is being arranged including games with Denver and Baker.

The New York Tribune will have a special correspondent here during the Charter Day exercises. Harpers Weekly is to give a page of illustrations and an account of the various ceremonies.

A lecture by Eli Perkins will be given either at the Lansing or in the Chapel on the 25th, for the benefit of the Athletic association. A large attendance will put the association out of debt and put a small surplus in the treasury to begin the base ball season with.

The contestants for local oratorical honors who have shown themselves so far are Miss Florence Smith, Messrs. Ralph Benedict, Gus Chapman, Shreve, Abbott, McMullen and Montmoreny. The judges on manuscript are, Judge Tuttle, Mr. Talbot and Mr. Rakestraw. On delivery, Hon. H. D. Estabrook and Hon. John M. Ragan have been chosen. The third is not yet decided on.

Arrangements have been made for instruction in elocution next semester. Mrs. Manning will have the work. She is a graduate of the College of Oratory in New York and has been for some time a favorite with University students as a trainer for oratorical contests. The class work will be largely such as will lead to the development of an oratorical style and not mere "elocution" in the popular acceptance of the term.

Freshman—"I would make a dash after Alice."—Ex.

We had a dream the other night,
When everything was still;
We dreamt that each subscriber came
Right up and paid his bill.—Ex.

"For me one hope in life I trace,"
A freshman said, "'tis this,
That I may sometime find the place
Where ignorance is bliss."

A SHY LITTLE MAID.
A love-lorn lad wooed a coy maid once,
All of a summer's day he plead,
Oft he spoke of the bonds of love—the deuce?
And she slyly shook her head.

When from his heart hope had almost fied,

He spoke of bonds he had in town,
Still the shy little maid shook her head.
But she shook it up and down.
—Trinity Tablet.

As a maid so nice,
With step precise
Tripped o'er the ice,
She slipped; her care in vain,
And at the fall,
With usual gall,
The school boys call,
"Third down; two feet to gain."
