of the battalion will not be filled till the first of next semester. Those who do not intend to drill after this semester have been requested to report to headquarters

The Senior class elected officers for the ensuing semester last Friday. Mr. G. F. Fisher was elected president; Mr. R. C. Bentley, vice-president; Miss Chamberlain, secretary; Mr. A. C. Fling, treasurer; Mr. A. F. Montmorency, historian; Miss Helen Bain, sergeant-at-arms.

At a meeting week before last the Senior class decided to have no class day exercises. This didn't please the young ladies, so at the last meeting the motion was reconsidered and the decision was reversed. The men say they will let the young ladies run things to suit themselves.

Matter for the Annual must be in by the first of March at the very latest. If the annual is to be out on time this rule must be strictly adhered to.

The Freshman class elected officers for next semester on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Mable Ricketts was chosen president, Mr. Tanobee, vice-president; Miss O'Sullivan, secretary; Mr. Lehnhoff, sergeant-at-arms.

The alumni banquet on Charter day is going to be exceedingly popular. The question at present is not how to fill the armory, but how to accommodate enough people there. It was intended to invite the Senior class to attend, but it looks now as if there wouldn't be room for them. They will have to live in hopes of the Junior-Senior banquet in June.

Among the distinguished guests expected on Charter day are President Schureman of Cornell and Prof. Woodrow Wilson of Princeton.

The Charter day orations were awarded as follows: Industrial School, F. F. Tucker; Law School, I. H. Hatfield; Academic College, Mr. Quaintance.

Mr. O. B. Polk, an alumnus of the University and a member of the law firm of Mockett, Rainbolt & Polk of this city, has offered a gold medal to be given to the winner at the local oratorical contest. Needless to say the offer was thankfully accepted. Mr. Polk has been chosen third judge on delivery. He won second place in the Chase & Wheeler contest some years ago and had the reputation in the University of being an excellent speaker. A few more such loyal alumni would be very acceptable.
