Mr. Metcalfe returns to Minnesota next week.

Mr. E. C. Ames was initiated by Beta Theta Pi last Saturday night.

Chas. Kuhlman '97 will spend Sunday at his home near Grand Island.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertains at the home of Mr. Pace to-night.

The next University dance takes place next Friday at Lansing hall.

Randolph, who did such good work at third last year, will captain the team.

Messrs. Robbins and Colvin joined the Union society on last Friday evening.

Mr. Hara Doubraua was received into the mysteries of Sigma Chi Thursday night.

Prof. Fling will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Mirabeau" in the Palladian hall on Friday evening.

Work was suspended from 12 to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on account of the funeral of Mrs. Menzendorf.

Saturday is the last day of grace for drawings and pictures for cuts in the annual. Get a hump on yourself.

Barnes will probably play second base as he will not catch for fear of laming his hands for pitching in the league.

There is a rumor to the effect that the young ladies classes in physical training will give an exhibition sometime in April.

Company D did some extra drilling last Wednesday evening. They performed some evolutions that aren't in the tactics.

Mr. H. Dowling, who has been unable to attend his classes for some time on account of illness, is again able to attend to his work.

Messrs. Tucker and Welden returned on Wednesday from Detroit where they attended the meeting of the College Christian association.

The Senior class met at 4 o'clock to-day. Invitations were finally decided on and money appropriated for the class display in the annual.

Nothing more has been heard of the inter-state Field day which was to have been held at Kansas City in May. The K. C. Athletic club people seem to have backed out.

The pictures of the Greek choruses are said to be the sweetest things out. That is the Electra chorus, the other isn't in it for saccharinity.

The business managers of the Junior annual inform us that only a limited edition is to be published, hence those wishing copies of the Sombrero should subscribe at once.

Miss Emma Boose, who was delegate from the U. of N. to the students' convention of the Y. W. C. A. at Detroit, has returned. Over a thousand students were present at this convention.

The battalion was photographed on Monday evening. The delays and annoyances incident to such occasions made it nearly 7 o'clock before the hungry cadets got supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierson are assisting in conducting services at the Presbyterian church. These meetings are held every night in the week. A great many of the students are attending them.

The Junior Promenade committee recently turned over $60 to the business managers of the annual to pay for the exhibits of the foot ball and base ball teams and the Glee and Mandolin clubs.

The officers of the battalion were photographed at 3 o'clock this afternoon. They all looked pleasant and those on whom nature permitted it looked handsome, as the pictures will show when finished.

Congressman Bryan delivered an excellent address on the income tax before the political science club on Thursday evening. His plain, forcible delivery as well as his clean, logical methods of reasoning rendered his address highly interesting and instructive.

The Columbia Standard Bicycle of the World,

graceful, light, and strong, this product of the oldest bicycle establishment in America still retains its place at the head. Always well up to the times or a little in advance, its well-deserved and ever increasing popularity is a source of pride and gratification to its makers. To ride a bicycle and not to ride a Columbia is to fall short of the fullest enjoyment of a noble sport.
