A piano loved a carpet gay
On account of its figure trim,
"But the chair has rocks," the carpet said,

"I think I'll marry him.—Ex.
My sweetheart sings in the chair;
How often I've wished to sit b'hoir;

I tried to get in
But my voice was too thin,
And I scarce can repress my fierce ihoir.

LOCAL.

The special topics for the Ethics class have been given out. The world will be informed about next June when the noble senior gets through his investigations.

The new members program of the Union society last Friday evening was a success in every particular. The hall, however, was too small to accommodate the crowd and many were obliged to turn away.

The U. B. D. C. have recently arranged for a joint debate with Cotner University. The eagerness with which Cotner accepted the challenge betokens a lively discussion. The time and place will be announced later.

Victor Rosewater, Ph. D., delivered the first in a series of six lectures on Municipal Finance under the auspices of the political science club on last Wednesday evening. The remaining lectures will be delivered before the class in advanced political economy on Mondays and Fridays at the regular recitation hour.

The State oratorical contest which should have taken place on Saturday, the 10th, has been postponed until Monday, the 17th. This was done because the opera house was engaged until then. The house was supposed to have been engaged last year for the 10th, but somebody was mistaken. This gives another week for preparation, which will doubtless be welcome to the contestants.

As yet no definite arrangements have been made for base ball games. Manager Heald has been corresponding with Grinnell and S. U. I. and Omaha Y. M. C. A. teams. Dates may possibly be arranged with all these and are almost certain to be made with the last.

On last Saturday evening, a number of enterprising University girls met in Palladian hall and organized the University Girls Debating Club. Miss Patterson was chosen president. After a sharp, spirited debate, the newly organized club accepted an invitation to hear the U. B. D. C. discuss the question of capital punishment.
