

LOCAL

Gus Becher, jr., is visiting his brother Jesse.

C. H. Platz is suffering with an attack of the grip.

Don Cameron's lunch counter 118 So. 11th, street.

The botanical seminar went to Bellevue last week.

Miss Atkinson has gone home for a needed vacation.

Prof. Herbert Bates has been indisposed this week.

Mr. Fred Lyon took in Fairfield and vicinity last week.

"Still His Whiskers Grow." For sale at Estey & Camp's.

Ernst Hall spent his vacation at his home in Mead, Nebraska.

Miss Sue Gustin, of Kearney is visiting her cousin Miss Town.

Clifford Wescott and Tom Mapes spent their vacation in Platts-mouth.

Art Carpenter did not go home till Saturday. Why? Junior themes.

Prof. Ward has been made an honorary member of the botanical seminar.

Professor Taylor lectured at Waverly Monday on "Mexico Illustrated."

Gus H. Ellsworth has been given the charge of the new library building.

Mr. C. R. Welden was called home on Monday by the sudden death of a sister.

"April Fool" and the election fever have injured the veracity of half our people.

Company D passed the best inspection of the year Monday night, receiving only 5 reports.

Don Cameron has removed his restaurant to 118 So. 11th St.—one door south of old stand.

E. Martin Mayer went to St. Joseph, Mo., to spend his vacation with his parents and friends.

Miss Cather is seen to be moving around among the university people again, after a severe illness.

Don Cameron's lunch counter 118 So. 11th, street. Fish and game in season. The nicest restaurant for students in the city.

OUR NEW SPRING SUITS. High grade, stylish, perfect fitting. See them. You'll like the prices.

The class in entomology made a short expedition into the country in search of "bugs" Saturday.

The Junior Annual board of the present sophomore class met Saturday to lay plans for next year's work.

F. F. Dobbs, principal of the Wahoo high school, was in the city Sunday visiting W. L. McKay.

C. A. Fisher is rapidly recovering from his illness. He attended his classes Tuesday for the first time.

Professor Overholt, of Ashland, visited the university, Tuesday. He will be in Lincoln about a week.

Attorney Good lectured to the senior law class last Wednesday and Thursday on "Limitations of Actions."

R. P. Teele has been elected Manager of the Dramatic club, vice Fred Cooley, who has resigned.

Mr. Chancy Warner's father is in from Red Cloud, looking after the university life of the young hopeful.

Miss Ura Kelley spent her vacation in Chicago, where she heard some of the fine operas now being presented there.

L. V. Patch enjoyed his vacation in the marshes of the Elkhorn valley. He had great success and bagged a nice lot of game.

There was an unusual noise in the band room on last Monday evening and rumor has it that the band has a new tune.

Mr. Shaffer, one of the best musicians in the university, won the piano in the recent World-Herald word-building contest.

Cadet Drum-Major, Harvey Heald, went to his home in Osceola, on Saturday the 23d inst, to remain till the close of the spring vacation.

Monday evening Professor and Mrs. Hodgman entertained those members of the faculty who have been engaged in teaching the uni-

We do not Offer

- * To give students or any other class of people special discounts, but sell to all at the same low prices. We invite you to our new store, 1235 to 1239 O Street, and think we can please you.
- *

Respectfully,

Miller & Paine.

REPAIRING OLD WHEELS

T. J. THORP & Co.

MACHINISTS. MODEL MAKERS. NOVELTY MANUFACTURERS. NICKEL & SILVER PLATING. RUBBER STAMPS, SEALS, STENCILS, ETC.

320 So. 11th St. LINCOLN, NEB.

CHANGED TO PNEUMATICS. ALL WORK GUARANTEED. WRITE FOR PRICES.

CHAS. B. GREGORY,

(U. OF N. '91.)

SELLS COAL

At 1100 O Street, Richards Block. Telephone 343.

versity Bible classes in the various churches, also some of the officers of the Christian associations. The work of this year was reported on and plans for the coming year were considered.

Mr. O. H. Allen has been elected from the Delian society to fill the position of assistant editor of the Hesperian, in the place of Mr. Elmore, who lately resigned.

J. B. Becher and R. S. Hiltner have gone into athletics. They have each a sweater, two baseball shoes, a little cap, and the price of admission to the tennis association.

L. V. Patch has been laid up for several days with a very badly sprained arm. The combination which resulted in his injury was a bicycle, a brick, and the pavement.

Rev. Duncan Brown, of Torkio, Mo., lectured before a joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon in the chapel. His subject was "Foreign Missions."

The pupils of Mr. John Randolph, of the conservatory, gave a vocal recital in the university chapel Wednesday evening. The program was long and varied and much appreciated by the large audience present.

Profs. Richards and Hamsen accompanied a class in machine design on a trip to the B. & M. shops at Havelock last Monday morning, spending the day in testing the large boilers. The party returned at 4:30 p. m.

Among the "Collection of Lincoln Sunflowers" in the woman's edition of the Call was noticed the beaming face of Fred Cooley, and it is confidentially reported that a certain young lady is now carrying that part of one of the papers in her French book.

Herpolsheimer & Co. are showing in their book department a beautiful line of Easter Cards and Booklets. Among new books received are Philip and His Wife," by the author of "John Ward, Preacher;" "Stories of the Foot-Hills," by Margaret Collier Graham; "Madame Sans-Gene," etc.

Palladian officers were elected as follows:

President, R. L. Cheney; Vice President, Ella McCrosky; Corresponding Secretary, H. P. Leavitt; Recording Secretary, Dora Anman; Music Secretary, Lizzie Thompson; Treasurer, Mr. Hitchman; Critic, Ella Mathews; Sergeant-at-arms, C. R. Welden.

Dr. Clark has received a letter from Oliver C. Morse, secretary of the International Young Men's Christian Association Training school, extending thanks for the $30 contributed by the university students and faculty for the erection of a dormitory. The door of one of the rooms will be decorated with "University of Nebraska" as a testimonial of the interest manifested by our Y. M. C. A. students in the erection of the new building.

William Reed Dunroy's entertainment will take place in the chapel on next Monday evening. Hon. W. J. Bryan will make an address on an interesting subject, some excellent music will be given and Mr. Dunroy will read from his poems. A splendid poem, written for the occasion, entitled "The Nebrasky Uni," will be one of the features. Tickets on sale at the Co-operative store. Price, 25 cents.

Why Not Have Up-to-Date Foot Covering?

We Sell them Cheaper than you can buy old style shop-worn goods.

A Sewed Shoe.

Anderson-Schureman

THE FOOT-FORM STORE

and DAVIS

1213 O ST.

A Perfect Fitter