It is said that the Chicago university intends to publish a magazine similar to the Century, which will rival that periodical. It is to be called the Lakeside Magazine.—Ex.

The Imperial university in Tokio is fully equipt for all scientific work, and compares favorably with Oxford or Heidelberg. Most of the professors are now Japanese—even those who teach the English language.—Ex.

Ann Arbor's Concert.

The announcement that the University of Michigan Glee and Banjo clubs will appear at the Lansing Tuesday evening, April 23, will be greeted with delight by the lovers of college music in this city. The clubs are stronger than ever before and are composed of thirty-five young men from the University of Michigan. The program is full of rollicking college music peculiar to college clubs. Those who heard the Ann Arbor boys in their concert in April, 1893, will be pleased to learn that Bob Thompson, the big second bass with the fathomless voice, is still in his place at the left end of the glee club.

The clubs are making an extended spring trip, going as far west as Denver, stopping at Lincoln on their return. They should be greeted by a crowded house.

The following list of patronesses assures the social success of the entertainment: Mrs. James H. Canfield, Mrs. C. H. Morrill, Mrs. L. C. Richards, Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Mrs. R. H. Oakley, Mrs. H. H. Wilson, Mrs. C. H. Gere, Mrs. J. A. Buckstaff, Mrs. F. M. Hall, Mrs. S. H. Burnham, Mrs. J. B. Wright.
