The success of the Nebraska Literary Magazine has been watched with great interest by the majority of students, all the faculty, and a great many interested outside of the university, and as it has been received so well there is great rejoicing.

There is some talk of making it a regular publication, monthly or quarterly. There is no reason why it should not be. There is abundant room for such a publication here. There should be enough interest manifested by the students alone to make it succeed, while the help it would receive from outside would amount to considerable.

The editors are to be congratulated on its appearance and its contents. They can go ahead without fear of tramping on the toes of any other college publication. A hearty support will be extended them. Let the Nebraska Literary Magazine become a permanent publication.

The authorities of the university of Minnesota have prohibited the practice of allowing any one to smoke on the campus or grounds. This seems a very wise provision and if adopted here, would be favorably received. Who can imagine the thoughts of a visitor as approaching one of the buildings he passes two or three students lazily seated in a bench with a pipe, or what's worse, a cigarette in his mouth? While this practice has not become so prevalent as to be especially objectionable, yet it should be stopped. It does not look well, nor does it impress the visitor favorably.

College Society.

A most delightful party was given by the local chapter of Beta Theta Pi at the beautiful home of Mr. Earnest Ames last Friday evening. The house was decorated with a profusion of flowers and potted plants, while the fraternity colors, pink and blue, were seen on every side. Ices were served during the evening. Everything was done which could contribute to the pleasure of the guests and the results were most satisfactory.

The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Ames, assisted by Miss Ena Ricketts. The invited guests were: Professor Stout and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Woods, Dr. and Mrs. Lees, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Nicholson, Dr. and Mrs. Brace, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McArthur, Dr. White, Chas. Chandler, Philadelphia; Professor Swezey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Colson, Mr. Colson and Miss Colson, Fremont; W. S. McLucas, Omaha; Mr. McDonald, North Platte; Mr. Dowling, O'Neill; Misses Camp, Risser, Burks, Whiting, Cochran, Ricketts, Harley, Woods, Shaw, Fitch, Kelley, Sewell, Whedon, Maine, Griggs, Lau, Heaton, Harwood, Cropsey, Manley, Lindley; Messrs. Cooley, Everett, Ames, Reese, Robinson, Thorp, Adams, Burnham, Hyde, White, Wiggenhorn, Green, Baughman, Ricketts, Bridgman, Becher, Forbes, Victor McLucas, E. G. Lloyd, C. W. Lloyd, Shedd, Barnes, Lehman and Riley.

The home of Miss Helen Gregory was the scene of a very pleasant "at home" Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Brown, of Boulder, University, Col. Miss Brown is a Delta Gamma and the reception was to give members of the fraternity here an opportunity to meet her. The hours for receiving were from three to five, and during this time nearly all of the local chapter paid their respects and incidentally partook of refreshments provided.

The Women's Club, of Fremont, gave a benefit concert for William Reed Dunroy, on last Tuesday evening. The best musical talent of the city appeared on the program and it was a success in every particular. Readings were given from Mr. Dunroy's poems and one of them "Pansies from Colorado," was illustrated by two little girls with their heads stuck through huge pansies. The Fremont Herald contained a column write up of the affair, and also a very complimentary poem addressed to Mr. Dunroy written by the editor.
