"On to St. Louis!" Varsity Rifles war cry.

Don Cameron's lunch counter 118 So. 11th, street.

"Trilby," the latest popular song, at Esty & Camp's.

C. R. Weldon made a hurried trip to York on Saturday, the 4th instant.

A new supply of Waterman fountain pens has been received at the Co-op.

The Ewing Clothing Company are showing the finest line of spring clothing in the city.

Fine cabinet photos at Hayden's for $2 per dozen. Call soon, as this offer will not last long.

Professor Ward, who has been champion so long, has succumbed to Moody, in the tennis tournament.

The scientific excursion which was postponed will be next Saturday. The place selected is Weeping Water.

Miss Julia Wirt has returned to her work after an absence of three days spent in caring for a sick sister.

Mr. Kendall, one of the Glee club tenors, has gone to Colorado Springs to take a position as instructor in voice.

Don Cameron's lunch counter 118 So. 11th, street. Fish and game in season. The nicest restaurant for students in the city.

The spring tennis tournament is now in progress. Three-fourths of the entrees are "out," there being but two more rounds to decide the championship.

The Glee club will appear at Seward to-morrow evening, and at Wahoo the 17th. The Lincoln concert will be held some date between the 20th and 25th.

The geological excursion to South Bend last Saturday, was postponed on account of bad weather predictions, and now the two departments don't speak as they pass by.

The drill the Varsity Rifles put up at the "War Song" concert, was the best feature of that entertainment. The skirmishers and cavalry squad also showed up to good advantage.

niced in Lincoln park. The Delians also had a picnic farther south on Salt creek, bringing some boats down from the park. The Palladians are arranging for an outing next Saturday, and the Christian associations plan for something of the kind the week following.

If the camp of the batallion is held at Omaha it is probable that the cadets will stop on their way at Ashland and give an exhibition drill. A petition from the business men of that city has been received, and the high school is creating much interest in the project. Harry Shedd is responsible for this.

Dr. Samuel M. Dick, president of the Missouri Wesleyan college, will lecture in the chapel Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The subject of the address is "Bible Miracles and Modern Science." No admission will be charged. Dr. Dick comes highly recommended as a lecturer.

Ralph Saxton and "Monte" Belknap were among the fifteen young fellows who took the examination for entrance to the Annapolis Naval academy. "Sax" came out ahead, and left this morning to take an "all around" examination, to see if he fills the bill. He has the best wishes for success from a host of university friends.

Macmillan & Co., of New York are issuing a cheap edition of well known copyright works in paper covers. Among those already issued are "Marcella," by Mrs. Ward; "Saracinesca" and "Sant Ilario," by F. Marion Crawford; and "Social Evolution," by Benjamin Kidd. You can get them at Herpolsheimer & Co's at reduced prices.

Last evening Palladian hall was the scene of a jolly social crowd. It was composed of the members of the Glee club who were enjoying themselves at the invitation of Carl Tucker. Ices and other delicacies were served during the course of the evening. The party broke up with three cheers for the conductor of the Glee club.
