THE KANSAS PLAYERS

PERSONNEL OF THEIR TEAM

Jay Hawks Loom Up Like Giants—Big Hamill the Hole Maker—How the Men Will Line Up.

The Kansas-Doane game at Kansas City last Saturday showed a good many things to our boys. In the first place Doane has much greater strength than was attributed to her, as was shown by her work in the first half. Doane made the first touch-down on that old cross which she won from us on last year and Kansas was unable to score until very near the close of the first half. Until Mains went out Kansas seemed unable to gain at all, but when Mains' ankle went back on him they scored their first point, and then when Reasoner had to retire Kansas had things all her own way. The score was 6-6 at the end of the first half. Kansas had in two substitute half backs and they did not seem to be able to form any interference at all until the second half. This is accounted for in the first place by the fine defensive work of Mains and Reasoner and also by the fact that they were both new men. With Williamson and Ortlund in the game here Saturday things will be entirely different.

Williamson is said to be one of the best men on any western field to advance the ball, and we all know how he can tackle. Ortlund made his reputation as a ground gainer against Iowa and carries the ball in splendid form. Big Shorty Hamill, the left guard, is 5 ft. 3 and weighs about 220, and if he gets loose around the end you want to begin to count the white lines as he crosses them. Pope, the left tackle, is a big, fine looking fellow, and will probably try to eat holes in our poor little Hayward, but the rest of the boys have a way of helping our "boy wonder" out when he is in trouble. Both Pop and Foster, the other tackle, are over 6 feet tall and are a good pair. On the ends are Platt and Games. Platt has a great knack of punching a few people during the course of the game, but we hope to have honest officials who will promptly rule him off if he undertakes any of his unfair tactics. Games, on the other end, has been here before, as he played on the Baker team the year our coach Thomas had them in tow and when they were never defeated. Although Billy has hair that is rivaled in its chrysanthemumness by none except Lee of Doane (who will attend the game) you must not think him effeminate, as he has a great faculty of tearing great holes in the opposing team's interference. Hill at quarter is a clear headed, active fellow who rings signals off at such a speed that the team is kept hustling to get off the ground before the ball is snapped. This is evidenced by the fact that in the Kansas-Doane game just ninety-five plays were made in the first half which is exactly the number made in the whole of the Missouri-Nebraska game. Hester the full back has to be watched as he is liable to kick a goal from most any part of the field. He just missed one by a foot from the 30-yard line in the Doane game. He bucks the line like a cannon ball and is a hard man to stop. This is indeed a very formidable organization which we are to try conclusions with on Saturday. Their team work is superb, and their variety of plays great, as they run every man on the team with the ball except the center, and he is always with the ball anyway. Opposed to this is our aggregation of cripples. King has not been able to practice at all, while Whipple has had to quit the team on account of the work connected with the management of affairs. Bud Jones has not recovered from his injuries received at Sioux City sufficiently to warrant him in entering the game Saturday, but we hope that he will be in shape for the Doane game. Oury will take Jones' place at right guard and the difference in size between Oury and Hamill will make the spectators smile when they line up opposite to one another. Wiggins has been moved from half where he played in the Missouri game to the end, and he seems to take quite naturally to his new position.

We also have a brain new man at center. Milford played on the High School team last year, but this is his first year on the varsity field.

The team will feel greatly the loss of Whipple and Jones, but we hope that Kansas won't discover these weaknesses until too late in the game to avail them yards.

The lineup for the Kansas game will be:

Kansas	Nebraska
Platt (Capt.).....I. e.....	Wiggins
Pope.....I. t.....	Dungan
Hamill.....I. g.....	Wilson
Walker.....center.....	Milford
Griffiths.....r. g.....	Jones or Oury
Foster.....r. t.....	Hayward
Games.....r. e.....	Thorpe
Hill.....quarter.....	Spooner
Williamson.....I. h.....	King
Ortlund.....r. h.....	Shedd
Hester.....full.....	Fair

Substitutes for Kansas, Gump, Burney, halves; Kennedy, quarter; Stone, For Nebraska, Packard, Harry Jones, Cameron and others.

NO CHARGE FOR RESERVED SEATS.

It was stated in the last NEBRASKAN that there would be no extra charge for reserved seats at the foot-ball game Saturday. Everybody will be glad to know that this statement is correct. The idea of charging twenty-five cents for seats on the bleachers was entertained seriously by the management and reserved seat tickets were printed, but the plan has been dropped, and your fifty cents will admit you to the best seats on the ground. The bleachers at the M street park without a doubt form the best accommodations ever offered on a foot-ball field. They extend directly along the side lines and the first seat is raised fully four feet from the ground, so that no matter how great the crowd in front may be, the spectator occupying a seat has a clear view of every part of the field. The managers after looking at these immediately decided that they were worth charging extra for, but it has been decided not to do it, much to the delight of everyone who is patriotic enough to attend the game with a co-ed. And by the way, better indorse the lenient policy of the management by taking a co-ed.

THE CHANCELLOR TALKS.

The Chancellor gave a strong talk about foot-ball at chapel on Tuesday morning. The chapel was pretty well crowded on both sides of the house, and the talk was received with vigorous applause. The Chancellor began by announcing the three games which are to take place within the month, and urged every student to go to the games. He especially urged the students to attend the Thanksgiving game at Omaha. He said that at least 500 young men should go. He was of the opinion that a special university train would be provided, and if such was the case, that it should be decorated with the University colors in such a way as to attract wide-spread attention. He said that with the aid of the Omaha club that we should be able to take Omaha for the University. As a parting word he gave warning to the young men who get too enthusiastic in celebrating a victory. He said that he wanted everyone to be jolly and have all the fun possible out of a victory, but that he did not like to see destruction of property. The talk was frequently interrupted by applause, and when the Chancellor suggested that every young man in the University should do his duty and take a young lady to the game on Saturday there was deafening applause. He announced that all who attended the game on next Tuesday afternoon would be excused from recitations.

WHAT WE WILL SING

SOME VOCAL (?) SELECTIONS

A Few Specimens of What We Have on Tap for Kansas—Some Songs and Some More Songs

Not much enthusiasm has been manifested so far by our poets. The contest for the publication of songs has not been very spirited—there's a chance yet for the Iowa game. The following are the best of those which have been handed in:

Tune, "Marching thro' Georgia."
Shout the news together, boys,
The jayhawks are in town!
How Nebraska will go up
And how the Kansans down!
How we'll buck the rush line boys,
And win such great renown;
While we go smashing thro' Kansas.

Chorus—
Nebraska, Nebraska, let every fellow screech—Nebraska, Nebraska, our team it is a peach.
Lectures are forgotten, all our notebooks
flung away,
While we go smashing thro' Kansas.

All our men have grit, you know—
They'll stand up to the last;
We'll show the men from Lawrence town
Nebraska is too fast.
How the grandstand wild will cheer,
The bleachers stand aghast!
While we go smashing thro' Kansas.

Chorus—
Sing a song together, boys,
The Kansas team's in town;
They won't do a thing at all,
But try and turn us down.
Wait until the game is o'er,
And then we'll own the town,
While we go marching thro' Kansas.

—Chorus.

Wilson is our captain,
And of him we love to sing:
And of our two half-backs,
Georgie Shedd and Elson King;
With Fairie as our full back,
We won't do a single thing,
While we go marching thro' Kansas.

Tune, "John Brown's Body."

Down went the Tiger with Nebraska on the top;
Down will go Kansas with
Nebraska on the top;
Down will go Sai with
Nebraska on the top.
Listen to my tale of—Whoa!
Want any ice ladies? No?
G—g—g—g—Get up!

Tune, "Hold the Fort."

Hold the line for Fair is coming.
Spooner signals still,
Wilson now goes through the centre,
Win we can—we will.

CHORUS FOR DOANE GAME.

Who has the best eleven in the state?
Billy Wilson.
A foot ball team the greatest of the great?
Billy Wilson.

Oh! We're here and don't regret it,
If we want the earth we'll get it,
For there never was a team like Billy Wilson's.

Tune, "The Man That Broke the Bank."

As they walk upon the old gridiron
With their independent airs,
O, the crowd at once declares
No, they are not millionaires.
You should see them play and win the day,
And do up Kansas just that way—
The way they downed the Tigers of Missouri.

Unless Kansas has a large following, her famous "rock chalk" will be enveloped in the following:

Rock salt
Live stock
Nebraska.

Don Cameron's lunch counter, 118 south Eleventh street.

Sing to the tune of "Come, change drinks with me."

Kansas has a strapping team,
And so has U. of N.
We've done old Kansas up before,
We'll do her up ag'in.
And altho' the Kansas foot ball team,
So strong and big may seem,
They can never on their tin-type
Beat the scarlet and the cream

Chorus—

I canuk, ca—no,
I canuk, ca—no—ko,
I canuk, ca—no,
Nebraska!!!!

THE "EYE" SONG.

Wilson, Wilson, Wilson, Wilson, Wilson
with his hot eleven;
(Repeat twice.)

Wilson's hot eleven, Wilson's hot eleven,
Wilson's hot eleven.

Fairy, Fairy, Fairy, Fairy, Fairy with his shin guard, shin guard;
(Repeat twice.)

Fairy with his shin guard, Fairy with his shin guard, Fairy with his shin guard.

Sheddy, Sheddy, Sheddy, Sheddy, Sheddy
with his hair cut, hair cut;
(Repeat twice.)

Sheddy with his hair cut, Sheddy with his hair cut, Sheddy with his hair cut.

Kingy, Kingy, Kingy, Kingy, Kingy
with his red sock, red sock;
(Repeat twice.)

Kingy with his red sock, Kingy with his red sock, Kingy with his red sock.

Spooner with his shin guard, etc.
Jonesy with his skull cap.
Hayward with his golf socks.
Dungan with his long hair.
Thorpy with his blue shirt.
Whipple with his long arms.
Packard with his black eye.
Oury with the strong arm.
Wiggins with the peeled face.

Many songs have been handed in which we have not time to print for this issue—they may appear next week.

AT OMAHA.

Tom Maston, one of the coaches of the Kansas team, was getting points from the side lines on Saturday. His team plays Nebraska at Lincoln on November 16 and he wanted to find Nebraska's weak points. An amusing incident occurred during the progress of the game. Pop Bliss and Maston were together when Wilson and his "gang" were making their famous plunges in the second half, and Bliss was worried for his team at the time and Maston was thinking what would become of his team when the rushers came at them. "Bliss," says Maston
"how do you stop those plunges?"
"D—n it," said "Pop," who was not in the best of humor at the time, "If I knew how to stop them, don't you suppose I would have them stopped?"— Omaha Bee.

man."
"Yes, more promising than paying.
I'm his tailor."

ARE WELL UNDER WAY

TWO DIVISIONS FINISHED.

The Third and Fourth to be Held This Evening.
Very Poor Attendance.—The Judges' Decision Tonight

The first two preliminary debates were held in the University chapel last Tuesday evening. The audience was very small, not nearly as large as it should have been. Profs. Caldwell, Wolfe and Adams acted as judges.

The first question debated was, "Resolved That a judge system is preferable to our present jury system." R. B. Graham and H. W. Quaintance spoke on the affirmative and J. Kent Beattie on the negative.

After this debate was completed arguments were heard on the question,
"Resolved that the present administration was justified in entering into its contract of February last with the bond syndicate." The speakers on the affirmative were H. E. Newbrauch, Jasper Hunt and J. H. Leon, and on the negative J. M. Rodgers and L. J.
Abbott, Jr.

There should have been eight men in each of these divisions, but about half of those who intended to enter withdrew their names, hence the deficiency.

RECEPTION TO COMPANY A.

Dick Reed, captain of Company A, gave a reception to his company, officers, ex-officers and members Wednesday night at the Phi Kappa Psi chapter house, corner Twelfth and G streets.
Cigars, apples and cider, together with the inevitable stories, made the time pass pleasantly, and everyone was sorry when the breaking up time came.
Dick has always been popular with his company, and after the royal good time he gave them Wednesday night
he will be more of a favorite than ever.

SIGMA CHI DANCE.

The Sigma Chi's gave one of their informal dances Friday night at their rooms, corner Thirteenth and P street.
The boys have refurbished their rooms handsomely and a short time was given to the inspection of them before the rugs were taken up, tables and chairs taken out and the dancing begun. The rooms are fitted up with a quiet elegance that makes a very favorable impression. The colors of the fraternity, blue and gold predominated.

The boys have gained an enviable reputation for giving enjoyable parties and certainly this last one was no exception to the general rule. Professor and Mrs. Richards and Mr. and Mrs.
Clarkson chaperoned the party.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA.

The Kappa Alpha Theta sorority again has a chapter in the University of Nebraska, having given up their charter here three years ago. This is the oldest sorority in the United States and has a most enviable reputation as a general fraternity, and the newly initiated members in this University will by no means lessen Kappa Alpha Theta's national standing.

The following were initiated at the home of Mrs. Will Hardy on Tuesday evening: Misses Emily Weeks, Jessie Morgan, Jessie Tuttle, Leota Vancil, Nellie Randall and Lydia Miller.
The alumni in the University and city are Mrs. Ansley, Mrs. Flung, Mrs. Will Hardy, Mrs. Ladd, Mrs. Burr, Misses Olive Latta, Bertie Clark, Dena Loomis-
Bessie Tuttle, Long and Barr.

The Lincoln chapter of Phi Delta Phi—the law fraternity, held its first initiation Saturday evening. The initiated were Richard Neill, Peru; A. S.
White, South Omaha; C. E. Tefft, Nebraska City; A. F. Montmorency, Omaha, and P. B. Green, Greenwood.

Fountain pens at all prices, from $1 to $4.50 at Herpolsheimer & Co's Book Department.

Frey & Frey, the popular florists, at a
