

LOCALS.

The Dehans will soon be located in their new hall.

Phi Delta Theta will give an informal dance Friday evening.

The board of regents were in session Tuesday and Wednesday.

Get a couple extra Nebraskans next week to send to your friends.

"Shorty" Lehnhoff is still lame from the effects of Saturday's game.

The Phi Kappa Psi will give an afternoon tea Saturday, December 14.

Four contestants have entered the Chase and Wheeler contest this year.

Professor White was unable to meet his classes Monday on account of sickness.

Messrs. Emerson and Tollmer have been repairing the green house this last week.

The advanced class in elocution is preparing to give a recital soon after Christmas.

The Palladian and Union literary societies will give alumni programs Friday evening.

The Palladians will hold a business meeting next week to elect officers for the next term.

J. (in French): "Nous-nous-nous." Miss C: "Well, Mr. J., it seems to be all 'now' to you."

The Young Woman's Christian association will meet Sunday, December 15, at the conservatory.

Since the library has been formally opened it will be closed during the chapel hour hereafter.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will give a party Friday night, December 6, at their rooms in the Harris block.

Professor B: "There's no warning here that the writer went to sleep, except that he went to church."

The class in elementary zoology will study the sprang next week. There are fifty-five students in this work.

Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity will give a dance at Miss Richards' home a week from Friday night.

Special edition of "Beside the Bonnie Briar Bush" at Herpoishelmer's book department, Monday. Only 15 cents.

A great deal of dissatisfaction has been expressed by professors and students concerning the new time schedule.

There will be an open session of the Maxwell club Saturday evening, December 14, in the chapel. Everybody is invited.

The students in graphics and machine designs will move from the electrical building to the art room in the library building.

Professor Swezey will address the farmers' institute at Waverly on Thursday, and Dr. Ward on Friday of this week.

They say that several of our prominent student leaders are jumping crooked over the affairs of the old library steps.

It is confidentially reported that the seniors are going to carry out a great program class day. One of the features is a play.

Professor Lyon will attend two farmer institutes this week, one at Blue Springs on Thursday, and another at Waverly on Friday.

Professor Brauner, F. W. Taylor and D. A. Haggard are planning to go up to Crawford this week to shoot winter birds for the museum.

Professor Sherman delivered his lecture, "Natural Law in the Spiritual World," to a large audience Sunday afternoon in the chapel.

A supplement will be issued with the next Nebraskan, containing the individual pictures of the football players. Extra numbers 10 cents.

Dr. Wood will lecture at Waverly, before a farmers' institute, on December 14. His subject is "The Internal Parasites of Domestic Animals."

"Dancing schools are not a good thing," is the conclusion one of our society men arrived at when he saw his laundry bill for the month.

The electrical engineers held a meeting at 2 o'clock Saturday to hear reports of committees on the exhibition to be sites of Domestic Animals."

See our line of Overcoats.

What are we to be thankful for? That our athletic association can close the season out of debt.

If you want to learn anything about Greek, go down to the Coop about eight o'clock each morning to the open meetings of the Sophomore Greek class.

The cadet band is in excellent shape. Twenty-six pieces were out on dress parade and the sort of music it puts up is a credit to the battalion and the university.

The physics department has been receiving some valuable instruments from Germany. Professor Brace purchased these while he was in Germany this summer.

Announcements for the school of agriculture, which will be conducted in connection with the university next year, have been printed and are ready to be sent out.

Hon. L. D. Richards of Fremont will talk to the political economy club Thursday evening, December 12, in room 3; his subject is "Socialism and Wealth Distribution."

Dunroy sat in a class room half an hour Thursday waiting for his class to assemble when he suddenly awoke to the fact that the library building was now completed.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean tender an informal reception at their home Saturday evening, December 14, to the faculty's committee on graduate work and to graduate students.

Little has been heard of the banjo club this year, but that they have been at work was clearly demonstrated Tuesday evening. The club will assist in the contest December 18.

A university student enjoyed a week back from Denton last week, owing to his inability to work the "blind baggage racket" any further than this burg on his way to Hastings.

See our special line of $15 suits made to order. Special bargains in pants, $3.75. A good overcoat, $10. George W. Fraser, agent for Independence Wool Mfg Co., 131 N. 11th st.

The state historical society has received one of the coins of the first issue authorized by the government of the United States. They have also received many other important coins.

What's the matter with the glee club? The song they sang at the opening of the new library building was pleasing and was well received. Every student should go to the concert December 18.

Bradt, Almy, Porter and Linhoff have been thinking of petitioning the board of regents to erect a hospital on the campus. If the juniors and seniors play football much such a building will be needed.

A couple of "regulars" fooled with the co-op radiator Tuesday morning, when it suddenly went off. They couldn't get out the door quick enough and left Pann to burn his fingers repairing the damage.

The color sergeant bearing the colors now falls in every drill night and takes his place with the color company.

C. C. Culver has been appointed color sergeant and has chosen E. E. Culver and H. F. Gege as color guards.

John L. Marshall, one of the international secretaries of the student volunteer movement, will address the Christian associations and the general public in the chapel next Sunday afternoon. Mr. Marshall graduated from the university in '23.

The election of a football manager is still in statu quo. Three members of the board of five, which elects him, wants the office, besides others too numerous to mention. Three votes are necessary for election, and until the board can agree the position will remain vacant.

Last Saturday evening Professor and Mrs. Hodgman entertained the students taking work under the professor. Prizes were given to those who deciphered the most names of noted Nebraskans, the letters in the names being all jumbled together. Three couples tied for first prize. These three drew cuts. Miss Howe and Mr. Frank Edgerton got the first prize. Mr. E. C. Culver and Mr. Charles Countryman won booby prizes. It has been the custom of Professor and Mrs. Hodgman to hold the parties each year, and they are mile stones to the young mathematicians.

The Ewing Clothing Co. are showing the best values in $8 and $10 suits and overcoats in Lincoln.

Dr. Bessey was in Omaha last Friday and gave an address in the evening. He was well pleased with the audience and everything went off well.

Professor Brauner, F. W. Taylor and D. A. Haggard are planning to go up 6:30. Hereafter it will be opened continually from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. That this is appreciated may be judged from the number of students enjoying its privileges during these hours.

Among the subjects that will be taught in the agricultural school this winter are the following: Soil tillage, stock feeding, milk testing, diseases of farm animals, breeds of live stock, scoring of horses, cattle and swine and fruit growing and vegetable gardening.

Many of our University stars shed some tears when they read "The End" at the close of Hal Starrett's production. For not only did the articles afford such people a great topic of conversation, but it has been the only means of becoming noted in college circles.

Word has been received that A. G. Chappell is not expected to live. He was a junior U. of N. last year, but this year went to school of electric engineers at Boulder, Colo. About a week ago he injured his hand while at work. Blood poisoning set in, which seems likely to end his life.

W. C. Metzger, who graduated from the law school last year, visited his Phi Delta Theta friends this week. He is practicing law now in Des Moines.

Ralph Andrews has resigned as manager of the glee club on account of too much school work. B. S. Langworthy was elected to fill his place.

ALUMNI PROGRAM.

The Palladian and Union literary societies of the state university have been busy for some time preparing alumni programs. Even the music will be furnished by alumni members. The societies are especially desirous of having all their friends present.

Mrs. May Fairfield, the first woman president in the Palladian society, will preside in that society. The program is as follows:

- Two Universities—Oxford.....
-Miss Mary Tremain, '81
- Heidelberg.....Samuel Avery, '92
- Piano solo—Gondollera.....Liszt
- Mrs. Veda Sheppard Morrow.
- (An honorary Palladian.)
- In Memoriam—J. H. Silvernail, '81.....
-Prof. Laurence Fossler, '81
- The Psychology of Palladianism.....
-Prof. H. K. Wolfe, '80
- Vocal solo.....Miss Eugenia Getner, '92
- Letter from Prof. Amos G. Warner, '85,
- of Leland Stanford, read by Will O. Jones, '86.
- Speech.....C. M. Skiles, '92
- "Some Palladian Traditions".....
-Judge E. P. Holmes, '78
- Piano solo—"Etude".....Chopin
- Miss Maude Hammond, '93.

UNION SOCIETY ENTERTAINS.

Tonight and tomorrow night the Union society of the state university will hold special programs which the public are cordially invited to attend. Tonight will be given, in Union hall, the following:

1. Vocal solo, Juegen Albers.
2. John Marshall, statesman, J. H. Hatfield.
3. The societies of the '70s, Mrs. H. H. Wilson.
4. Reminiscence of athletics, Roscoe Pound.
5. Why we passed the fraternity amendments, Lincoln Frost.
6. Whistling solo, D. N. Lehmer.

Saturday evening in the chapel will be held the annual union oratorical contest. The first prize is $15 and the second $10. The contesting orators and their subjects are: "An Important Event," J. H. McGuffey; "The World-Brain," H. B. Alexander; "The Greater Mission," Miss Esther Smoyer; "Three Wise Men," Keene Abbott.

Admission to both the foregoing entertainments is free.

NO... ON THE GAME.

Several of the players are feeling "sore" over the result.

C. E. A.: "If I had more money I'd bet on the Almys."

The seniors at last recognize the truth of the old Latin proverb, "Tempus fugit."

Bets were even on the chances of the umpire or half backs getting laid out first.

Some of the girls walked out to the M street park to see the game. An ardent junior told them it would be one of the regular games of the season and they believed him.

One result of the game was that nineteen juniors and seventeen seniors learned their class yells. Some even went so far as to find out their class colors and wear them.

You will find good warm underwear at the very lowest prices at the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115-1117 O street.

BIG
Bargains
IN

Ladies' Cloaks
Ladies' Underwear
Ladies' Hosiery
Ladies' Gloves
Gents' Underwear
Gents' Hosiery
Gents' Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,

1235 to 1239 O St

W. F. COLE,

Proprietor

Capital Hotel Barber Shop

Corner 11th & P Sts.

SHAVING 10c

H. W. BROWN,

DRUGGIST.

Books and Stationery,
College Text-Books.

And a Complete Stock of Standard and Miscellaneous Books

217 SO. ELEVENTH ST.

THE PALACE

DINING HALL

Is the PROPER PLACE to get your Meals.
SPECIAL RATES TO STUDENTS.
ALL YOUR FELLOW STUDENTS BOARD HERE.
TRY US.

1130 N ST A. G. OSMER, PROP.

COAL COAL COAL

CHARLES B. GREGORY,

Dealer in all kinds of

Rock Springs,
Pittsburg,
Wier City,
Lexington,
Anthracite,

Hurricane,
Semi-Anthracite,
Canon City,
Peerless,
Hanna.

Office, 1100 O Street
Richards' Block.
Yards, 14th & Y Sts.
Telephones
Nos. 343 & 345.

THE CONSERVATORY DINING HALL

Corner 11th and R Streets.

Will Seat 80 People.

Regular Board at $2.50.

Tickets $3.00.

WATERMAN'S IDEAL FOUNTAIN PEN

USE A PEN THAT WILL WRITE.

THE WATERMAN PEN

IS WARRANTED FOR A YEAR. FOR SALE AT THE CO-OP.

R · I · P · A · N · S

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

J. H. EVANS,

President.

C. C. QUIGGLE,

Secretary.

EVANS
LAUNDRY
COMPANY

Telephone 199.
327-331 North Twelfth St.