Miss Garten visited Chicago during the holidays.

And still the seniors are scrapping over caps and gowns.

John C. Lowe of Omaha was a visitor at the "und" on Monday.

B. W. Wilson spent the holidays visiting at Galveston, Tex.

The porcupine, which was given to the university, died Thursday.

Miss Noehma Lowe spent the vacation at her home in Monroe, Mich.

Will Green, formerly '97, is conspicuous around the halls, enjoying a short visit.

F. G. and A. J. Warren went home last Sunday to attend their sister's funeral.

The Juniors are wrestling hard for the promenade. Tickets are limited to fifty-five.

Misses Slaughter, Risser, Fetechet and Nance will give a party in Lansing hall January 17.

The Y. M. C. A. is trying to establish a reading room in their "bottom" mission in Lincoln.

Phi Delta Theta gave a couple of very enjoyable parties in their hall during the holidays.

We see by the boards that the public speaking class will settle the Venezuela question Monday.

The Betas were favored with a fine serenade by the university glee club Wednesday evening.

The Evangelist boards sent out by the Y. M. C. A. during the vacation report good success.

H. E. Newbranch's "Through Colored Glasses" in the Courier is causing a little flutter of excitement.

The theme department was kept very busy during vacation in disposing of an oversupply of the carmine fluid.

The Dellans have fixed up a rostrum in their new hall and their alumni will be the first to use it Friday evening.

Miss Ethel Gillespie of Republican City is now at the conservatory taking a short course on the practice clavier.

Who is the merry-faced lad with hair that sits at the window of the Windsor hotel at noontime and takes so much interest in the university folks passing by?

Reduced Prices on all Winter Clothing.

And now the impecunious youth looks longingly at his best girl and wonders if she will take pity upon him by doing the "leap year act" February 12.

The Ashland club will hold its next meeting the latter part of the month. They will entertain the faculty and and senior class of the Ashland high school.

There was an invitation left in the student's mail box addressed to Mr. Wilson. As there are uncounted numbers of Wilsons in school, who does it belong to?

Professor Taylor will talk to the Political Economy club next Wednesday on the meeting of the American Economic association, which he attended during the holidays.

O. G. Whipple, whose former catalogue record read "Oklahoma," will hereafter see it printed Lincoln, Neb., as his parents are now residents of the capital city of Nebraska.

There was a large number of last year students who attended the state teachers' association. W. E. Kirk, Frank Brown, S. H. Martin and George Town were among the number.

The stock of the Baldwin Bros.' tailoring establishment has been purchased by Paime, Warfel & Bumstead, who now carry the best assorted and largest line of tailoring goods in the city.

The farmers' dinner the other day was highly enjoyed by those students fortunate enough to get a "bid." Real live cream and home canned doughnuts were a novelty to most of the students.

The class of '95 was pleasantly entertained at the Phi Kappa Psi house one evening during the vacation.

Several university boys are running university columns in their home papers.

The U. B. D. C. will discuss the question "Resolved, That Greenbacks Should be Withdrawn From Circulation." The affirmative speakers are Bake and Maguire, and the negative Lehn and Wilson.

The senior class has been seriously at work trying to fix up a scheme for aiding needy students financially. The plan proposed was a permanent committee to receive and distribute contributions of the class.

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity held a little reunion at their chapter house change of name for the club, which would connect it more with the university at large. Two more members of the magazine will be published.

H. G. Whitmore, '95, is now editor of the Lincoln Weekly Herald. This is the paper formerly run by Calhoun under whose control it commanded much influence. Publication was suspended shortly after "Cal" left for Florida. Mr. Whitmore's ability in this line of work is undoubted and no doubt he will shine in his new position. He was the founder of The Nebraskan, which he managed with great success during two years of his college life.

Notwithstanding the two weeks' vacation, the University was a pretty busy place during the holidays. Many students from out of the city did not go home and so spent some little time at the University. On the whole there were quite a number of students who worked in the library or one of the laboratories. Then there was the meeting of the state teachers' association, which brought many visitors to the University.

The Sigma Chi's gave a most enjoyable "watch" party at their rooms on the night of the 5th. The rooms were well filled, but not so crowded but that it was possible to dance comfortably. Every requisite for a pleasant time was there—good music, good floor and good punch. Those present were Misses Fetechet, Ricketts, Weeks, Farwell, Bailey, Pullis, Whiting, Carscadden, Lottidge, Adolloy Whiting, Norval of Seward, Smith of Omaha, Bridge of Fremont, Burks of Beatrice, Conaway of York and Henderson of Osceola; Messrs. Thorp, Ames, Steiner, Walsh, Roe, Farwell, Hewitt, Bartlett, Morrill, Reagan, Langworthy, Saxton, Sheldon, King, Cullen, Pullis, Fetechet, Lottidge and Ryan; Mrs. and Mrs. George Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson, Mrs. Kern, Mrs. Heronance and Prof. and Mrs. Richards.

Borrowed Butter.

Mrs. Brickrow—Morey! Did you borrow this butter of Mrs. Nextdoor?

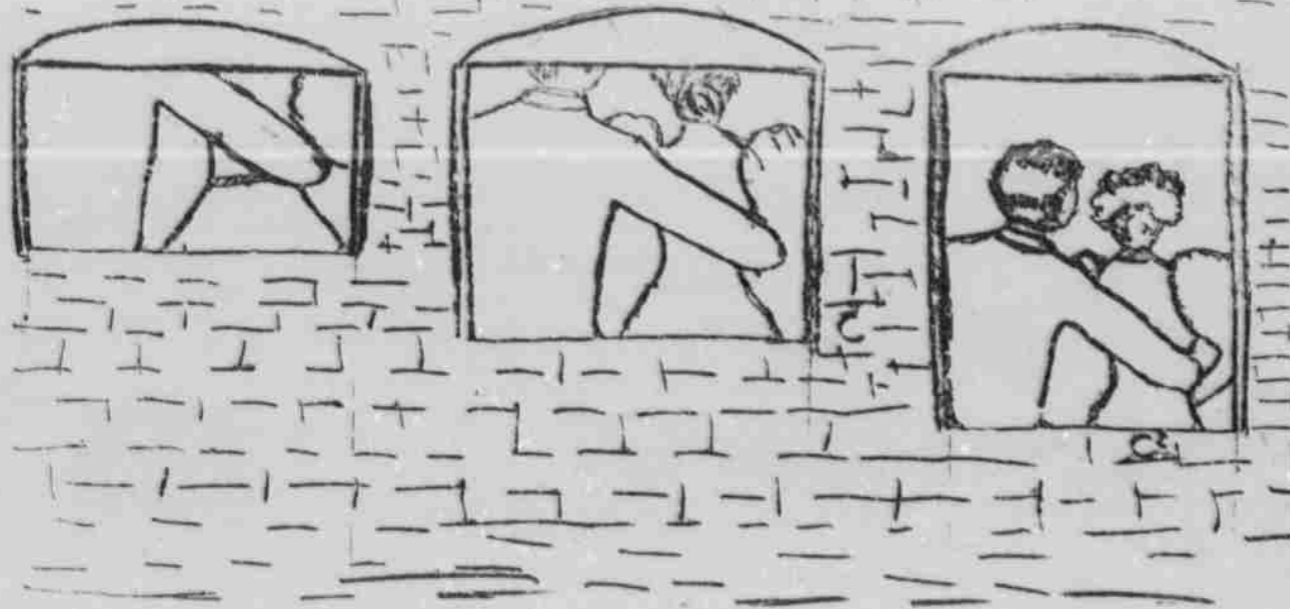

Daughter—Yes.

"It's horrid! It's positively awful! We can't use it at all!"

"What shall we do?"

"You must run to the store and buy some. Get the best. As for this, put it on the ice until to-morrow and then take it back to Mrs. Nextdoor, with thanks for the accommodation, of course. Don't tell her it is the same butter, because it might hurt her feelings. I suppose it is the best she can afford, poor thing."

Mrs. Nextdoor (the next day)—Of all mean people, those Brickrows take the lead. Yesterday I loaned them a cup of butter, and they have sent back some stuff that isn't fit for a xie grease.

Library Stairway windows Furnish Much Amusement to Outsiders.

New Year's day. Several of the boys came up from their homes for the day, and in a body attended the reception of the Delta Gamma and Kappa Kappa Gamma sororities.

Saturday, the 11th, is the thirteenth anniversary of the Sigma Chi fraternity, and to celebrate the occasion the boys are going to hold a banquet at their rooms. It is to be a reunion of the active and alumni members, and letters of acceptance have been received from Sig brothers in Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, and all over the state of Nebraska.

The Union boys' debating club has arranged a debate with Doane college, to be held in our chapel February 22. Question, "Resolved, That the contract entered into with the bond syndicate in February last, was justifiable." Our speakers are P. J. Maguire, Boomer, Lien and Searson. Sides have not yet been chosen.

The English club met Monday evening and elected Miss Smoyer as editor-in-chief for the rest of the year. The management was placed in the hands of Newbranch and Alexander. A committee was appointed to see about a

On the Wrong Foot.

The conductor said there was room for a few more inside.

At the Elephant and Castle, when the tram turned west, the customary contingent of shoppers got in and there was an uncomfortable jam.

But the little man kept his eye on his paper. He also kept his seat.

"Pardon me, madam," said a polite man hanging on to a strap, to a lady standing beside him with an armful of paper parcels, "you are standing on my foot."

"I'm so sorry," said she. "I thought it belonged to the man sitting down."

And then the man's eyes were lifted from his paper, and she got the seat.—London Answers.

They Had It Bad.

Raggson Tatters—W'y, wot's de matter, Bobby—Ye look sick.

Bobby Roadster—Ragggy, it's orful. I just read one of them patent med'cine papers wot talks about Brightsies' 'sease an' it ses one o' der wurst signs is a gen'ral disinclination to work. I've got it bad.

Raggson Tatters (disconsolately)—I guess we're doomed, Bobby. I've got it, too. Less lay right down here an' die.
