

LOCALS.

Pine stationery at Leighton's.

Ralph Andrews is now reported much better.

There is rumor of a small university daily next year.

Capt. C. E. Adams of Superior visited his son Monday.

H. H. Shedd came up from Ashland Friday to see the boys.

Students are beginning to plan for the summer vacation.

P. A. Lyman's brother paid him a visit the first part of the week.

The English club meets at Miss Wort's tomorrow evening.

Mary Fehet and Helen Nance went to Omaha to see Nat Goodwin.

Pace and his chosen nine are out practicing baseball every day now.

Miss Helen Harwood will study in the French libraries next year.

Misses Lulu Wirt and Jennie Barber have been visiting friends in the city.

Mr. Krowley of Lincoln has been hired as coach for our baseball team.

The assaying class are doing some good work under Mr. Hiltner's direction.

A subscription for the tennis association has been circulating the past week.

Miss Weller of Omaha was the guest of Miss Slaughter the first part of the week.

The English club will meet tomorrow evening with Miss Julia Wort, 1321 E street.

Chancellor MacLean will give a reception to the senior class Saturday evening.

The attendance at the university summer school this year promises to be large.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold a business meeting next Saturday night to elect a secretary.

Cliff Wescott was called home this morning on business, to be gone two or three days.

O. D. McColl and Frank P. Long of Kansas state university were visitors Wednesday.

Professor A. H. Waterhouse of Grand Island visited the university Friday and Saturday.

The school of agriculture has disbanded for the year, after a very successful season.

The classical alcove is a very popular and beneficial place for the Greek and Latin students.

The next number of the Nebraska literary Magazine will be published the first of June.

D. Ferguson is preparing a paper on the ethics of journalism, as a special topic in Journalism.

The Delian girls gave a leap year party Saturday evening at the home of Miss Hattie Harding.

A baseball subscription has been floating around this week. Talk about being flooded with rain.

University baseball will be about the only thing of the national game we shall see in Lincoln this year.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave another informal dance and card party at their rooms last Saturday evening.

That frat picture; you want it framed. Get our prices. Lincoln Frame & Art Co., 226 South Eleventh street.

Fred F. Teal, '97, of the Chicago homeopathic medical college, is visiting Omaha friends at the university.

Professor Fling will deliver an address at Ashland this evening at the invitation of the Woman's club of that city.

The Palladian girls will give a special program one week from Friday evening. None of the boys have been able to find out the nature of the program, for the girls are keeping that part of the matter secret.

William Reed Dunroy left for Omaha last Tuesday, where he goes to work as substitute reporter on the World-Herald. He will only be gone a month, however, as he could not stay away from Lincoln longer than that.

O. R. Bowman, '94, has been visiting university friends lately. He has been teaching at Alliance for the past two years.

The committee on college settlement work is trying to obtain a number of games to put in their cottage on W street.

Prof. Barbour lectured last Friday evening at York for the benefit of the Boys' club of the Congregational church.

Miss Grace Allen, teaching at Ware Neb., stopped here on her way home to call on her brother, O. H. Allen, last Saturday.

Judge Giffen of Tecumseh began his course of lectures before the law students on "Wills and Administrations" this week.

The Palladian girls will give their annual program on the 24th of April. The Palladian boys will give theirs on the 8th of May.

The standards for high jumping and pole-vaulting have been placed near the armory, and field day practice has begun in earnest.

Ernest Gerrard has returned from Germany and is now in Boston making up his thesis on the material he collected while there.

Philip Julius Maguire and Junius Sterling Morton are among the delegates chosen to the state convention of the gold democrats.

The first guard mounting of the season took place Wednesday evening. The entire drill hour Friday will be devoted to this exercise.

You will find the best stock of fine stationery in the west at Leighton's, 202 and 206 South Eleventh street. Their prices are always reasonable.

The senior class considered the senior promenade preliminaries at their meeting Monday. V. R. McLucas was appointed master of ceremonies.

There are several promising young freshmen writers in the English department who will probably make the English club before the year is out.

Hal Beans staid in Lincoln all day last Sunday and says it was the longest day of his life. He will call on the young lady in Omaha next Sunday as usual.

The rain last week interfered somewhat with work on the new tennis courts, but they will be finished so that playing can begin by the first of next week.

The university electrician can find a job stringing up the disconnected wires under some of the library tables—a few more incandescents could thus be put into use.

The Phi Kappa Psi fraternity will spend a week camping on Ernest Wigenhorn's island in the Platte, near Ashland, immediately after school closes in June.

Miss Louise Pound's "The Romance of the Rose; Additional Evidence That It Is Chaucer's" was the leading article in the last number of Modern Language Notes.

Great preparations are being made for bringing out a crowd at the joint debate of the U. B. D. C. and Doane on the 25th of April. A fare-and-a-third rate has been secured.

On account of the rain Friday evening the attendance at the different societies was small. At the request of the Unions all assembled in Union hall and held a joint meeting.

Dr. F. S. Stein, at one time an instructor in the English department, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon before the graduiative class of Plattsmouth high school, May 31.

At the convention of the American Republican college league A. J. Weaver was elected first vice-president. Hoagland, Martin and Kilien were the other delegates from the university.

Clarence Skinner, who has been an assistant in the electrical department for the past two weeks, will leave in July for Germany, where he will continue his studies in electricity.

Professor Caldwell addressed the young men of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity last Sunday afternoon at the chapter house. His talk was along the line of ethics, the need of introspection and friendly criticism. The fraternity was the ideal place for such a spirit. The talk was most beneficial to the members.

A large crowd gathers on the campus every day to watch our athletes practice for field day.

J. W. Crabtree has been chosen as an instructor for the Sappy county institute this summer.

George Bergert went to Nebraska City this morning. He was called home by the death of his grandmother.

The work in the university seminar historical class for the rest of the year will consist of special papers, which are to be prepared by the members of the class.

Miss Bouton entertained the ladies' club of the city in the chemical lecture room Tuesday afternoon. Delicate refreshments were served and the time was passed agreeably.

Professor Barber's wheel exploded on the street Wednesday afternoon. Those who were near by when the accident occurred thought another pop had been produced. The professor led his wheel home.

Prof. Barbour received two kangaroo rats this week. The animals are very rare and have a striking resemblance to the kangaroo. They may be seen in the curative room, Nebraska hall.

The young ladies' military company is doing some fine drilling. An old soldier was heard to remark the other day that Captain Elliott had the snap and metal to make a good captain.

Burton W. Wilson and Julius P. Sedgwick returned from Cleveland Sunday afternoon, where they had been in attendance at the national convention of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Y. M. C. A. will meet Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Delian hall. Subj. "The Little Foxes That Spoil the Grape Vines." Every young man in the university invited to be present.

The following sign is posted throughout the German university libraries: "Wash your hands before using books!" It should be given a prominent place in our own library and reading room.

Mr. Hunter, of the well-known printing company, has kindly placed a clock in his Eleventh street window. If it were not kept a half hour slow university students would appreciate it more.

"Meals 10 cents and up" the hollow freshman read; and he passed on in search of another chop-house, wisely concluding that an expenditure of 10 cents ought to bring a meal that could be kept down.

There are a lot of giddy girls who make it a point to gather in the library alcoves and hold a regular gossiping match. It is worse than any sewing society or woman's club. They ought to be suppressed.

The P. B. D. C. and the Maxwell boys will have a joint debate in Palladian hall April 25. Messrs. Sloan, Hunting and Kindler will represent the P. B. D. C., and Warner, Beach and Castor the Maxwells. The question to be debated is "greenbacks."

The faculty has recently made arrangements for recommending those students who expect to teach to the boards of the high schools of the state. The students are requested to make themselves known if they intend to teach next year.

The library is an exceedingly popular resort for those desiring to study in the evening. But it seems strange that it should be necessary for the librarian to make such frequent requests for "less noise" in a room filled with such ambitious students.

Someone seems to be making a systematic raid on the books in the economic department. We are happy to see that such intense interest is manifested in economic studies. The person in question will undoubtedly make an able and honest statesman.

The botany, zoology, geology and all other "ology" classes had the present pleasant weather with delight. It means many enjoyable excursions into the neighboring country for specimens. Later, trips will be planned to Weeping Water, Ashland and Bellevue.

If you get up too late for breakfast Sunday morning, come down to Francis Bros. restaurant, 127 no. 11th and get a plate of cakes and coffee. Special offer to students for ten days. A $1.10 ticket for 80 cents.

BIG Bargains
IN

Ladies' Cloaks
Ladies' Underwear
Ladies' Hosiery
Ladies' Gloves
Gents' Underwear
Gents' Hosiery
Gents' Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,
1235 to 1239 O St.

E. HALLETT,
Jeweler, Optician, and Engraver.

DEALER IN
WATCHES, DIAMONDS, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE,
JEWELRY, ETC., ETC.

All goods sold engraved free of charge, and no charge made for examining the eyes.

1143 O Street. - - Lincoln, Neb.

THE PALACE Is the PROPER PLACE to get your Meals.
DINING HALL SPECIAL RATES TO STUDENTS
ALL YOUR FELLOW STUDENTS BOARD HERE.
TRY US.
1130 N ST. A. G. OSMER, PROP.

R·I·P·A·N·S

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

COAL COAL COAL
CHARLES B. GREGORY,

Dealer in all kinds of

COAL

Rock Springs,
Pittsburg,
Wier City,
Lexington,
Anthracite,

Hurricane,
Semi-Anthracite,
Canon City,
Peerless,
Hanna.

Office, 1100 O Street
Richards' Block.
Yards, 14th & Y Sts.
Telephones
Nos. 343 & 345.

ANNEX RESTAURANT

133 South 12 St.

Calls special attention of the readers of The Nebraskan, to the fact that they can get the best and cheapest meals there of any place in the city. A square meal 15 cents Short orders at all hours. 10 Per cent off on $3 Tickets

L. C. Holaday, Prop.

J. H. EVANS,
President.

C. C. QUIGGLE,
Secretary

EVANS
LAUNDRY
COMPANY

Telephone 199.

327-331 North Twelfth St.