

LOCALS.

Buy bond of Gregory.

Clint Norton and Allan Congdon are the guides this year.

J. C. Hitchman, the guide last year, has given up his guide work.

The Bryan and McKinley clubs each have a membership of over 300.

She, "Goodbye." Davenport, "Goodbye." Chorus of voices. "Goodbye Davvy."

L. G. Thayer, '95, is studying medicine at Denver with other university men.

Mrs. R. W. Thatcher left Wednesday for a visit with her parents in Gibbon, Nebr.

Quite a few of the boys are nursing sore limbs as a result of some tough practice games.

About an even eleven hundred are now registered. This is exclusive of law school students.

Mr. Braner of West Point, visited his daughter Miss Amy Bruner, during the past week.

Dr. C. C. Miller gave a pleasant address and sang a solo at chapel Thursday morning.

Quite a number of students will attend the play "Hamlet" at the Lansing, Wednesday night.

Will Green was using a cane the latter part of this week, on account of a sore pedal extremity.

Mae Colson has returned from Fremont where she was called home by the death of her father.

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. are still keeping up the mission on the corner of Ninth and J streets.

Miss Scofield is drilling her pupils in sight reading. They are making considerable progress at it.

The young men's gymnasium classes begin work next Monday. Examinations are being held this week.

Charles B. Gregory of the class of '91, is in the coal business at Eleventh and O streets. Call and see him.

Constance the popular barber is located at 1022 O street. He employs the best artists of any shop in the city.

The electrical engineering department received a large dynamo this week, such as is used for street railway lines.

Harry Manville of Omaha who was in Lincoln attending the Bee Keepers' association, was the guest of John Saville.

The new classes in hygiene for young ladies will meet Monday October 12. The advanced class meets Saturday morning.

Leighton's 1213 O street—The best stock of stationery and school supplies in the state, wholesale and retail. Call and get prices.

Chancellor MacLean leaves for Leavenworth Kan., October 17, to speak before the state meeting of the Y. M. C. associations.

Beta Theta Pi will not occupy a chapter house this year, and have moved back to their old quarters in the Barr-Lamaster block.

At a meeting of the sophomore class last Friday, Morse was elected president. Turner was appointed to organize a football team.

The Union Literary society has taken in three new members this year. They are: Miss Mumaw, Mr. Worcester and Mr. Studville.

All Bryan students are requested to meet at the corner of R and Eleventh street at 7:15 sharp to form for the Overmeyer parade.

Bruce Arthur writes from Albuquerque New Mexico, that he cannot be in the university this year, but that he will sure come next year.

Professor Sherman's Sunday school class has become so large that he has engaged the city Y. M. C. A. hall for holding meetings.

The Palladian Boys' debating club at its next meeting will discuss the question, Resolved: That the interests of Labor and Capital are inimical.

Roscoe Pound has been appointed by the supreme court as a member of the new commission to examine applicants for admission to the bar.

The faculty has under consideration the request to grant a holiday next Friday on account of the Palladian celebration. It will probably be granted.

Coach Robinson is wondering if his relatives think he is removed many miles from civilization. They have promised to send him some magazines!

The Co-Op. has secured some very neat university letter head paper this year with envelopes to match. The lettering is done with a dye, and shows up well. A large stock was laid in so as to supply all demands.

The electrical engineering seminar has organized, and will meet once a week. The work is in charge of Mr. Brown and promises to be very profitable.

Professor Ansley who assisted in the English literature department last year is now at Swedona Ill. studying law and looking after the estate left by his father.

Professor Harbour has offered a beautifully carved tablet again this year to the university, if the football team carries off the pennant at the end of the season.

For school dictionaries, English, Latin, Greek, French or German; for school translations; and for supplies in general, go to Herpolsheimer and Co's book department.

Quite a crowd of university students took advantage of the "half-fare" rate to Fairbury Thursday night, and visited that place to witness the republican demonstration there.

The chancellor addresses the Nebraska branch of the Women's board of missions at the Congregational church Tuesday evening. His subject will be, "A World-Wide Christianity."

The Maxwell club, the law students' debating club, will meet and organize Saturday evening. This will make four debating clubs in the university holding regular weekly meetings.

Fred Clements and Roscoe Pound will work up their thesis together for their doctors' degree. They expect to possess themselves of the coveted "Ph. D." by the close of the college year in June.

Miss Emma Fuller of Crete Nebr., is specializing in Professor's Sherman's department. Miss Fuller has been three years at Wellesley college and will return next year to complete her senior year.

F. W. Voos, who graduated from this university in the medical department in 1888, writes to the chancellor for a catalogue of that year. He is a candidate for graduation at Martientrasse, Germany.

Sigma Chi has removed from their old quarters in the Halter block, and this year they will wear the honor of having a chapter house. It is the elegant dwelling formerly occupied by A. S. Raymond at the corner of Sixteenth and R streets.

The University Bryan club marched in a body to Bohanan's hall Saturday night in a body, where they listened to some free-silver doctrine. They took a glee club along to give life to the meeting.

The newly organized Bryan Glee club sang a few well received selections at a rally in University Place Tuesday night. The club made its initial appearance at a political meeting in the city Saturday night.

Students who want to get a "good thing" for little money in the way of note books, pencils, fountain pens, and other school and college supplies, always go to the book department of Herpolsheimer and Co.

Miss Laura Pfeiffer who was very ill last week, is able to be at work again.

A Girls' Bryan club has been formed. It met last Friday in chapel and elected Miss Goth, president, and Miss Flora Hullock, secretary.

Cadets are required to drill by the new manual of arms this year, which is adapted to the use of the new rifle. It is therefore necessary that the old cadets make themselves acquainted with the changes before the new cadets can be drilled.

If you want a fountain pen the cost of which is ten cents, you can get it by looking up Herpolsheimer and Co's book department. You can also get better grades from $1.00 to $6.00. Herpolsheimer and Co. are agents for Waterman's "Ideal" fountain pen.

Mrs. Manning will entertain Sorosis Junior at the home of Mrs. Judge Pound, at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Her subject will be, "The Black Hills of South Dakota." It will be illustrated by pictures and specimens collected during the summer vacation in that picturesque locality.

The first meeting of the English club was held at the home of Miss Wort, last Saturday evening. The program consisted of short sketches by each member present. Light refreshments were served after which a short business session was held. Miss Annette Abbott, George Sheld, Ralph Mueller and Fritz Kormeyer were admitted to membership.

The convention of the North American Bee Keepers' association was held in the chapel Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Lieut.-Gov. Moore and Chancellor MacLean. Papers relating to the care and cultivation of bees were read by different members of the association, and also by several of the university faculty.

J. C. Jones left for New York last Saturday. A number of his fraternity men were at the depot to see him off and as the train pulled out gave the Phi Delta Theta yell. John Jones was one of the most popular boys in the university, and it is not only his fraternity brothers that will miss him.

Dick Reel left for Atlanta Ga. Tuesday afternoon. At the depot a number of his fraternity friends were gathered and presented him with a fraternity pin. Some neat speeches were made in accepting and presenting the pin. Dick will be greatly missed by a large circle of university friends, and all wish him success in his new field—that of insurance agent.

Wednesday night Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean will give a reception to ex-Chancellor Fairfield who will be here to attend the Palladian anniversary. The reception will be held at 8 o'clock and at nine, the first of a series of faculty social conferences will be held. At this gathering of the professors, ideas and thoughts conducive to the welfare of the university will be exchanged.

The uniforms will cost a little more this year. Including the cap they will come to $15.00. Better goods are used this year and a Lincoln firm has the making of them. This will insure better fitting and more satisfaction all around. Paine Warfel and Bumstead, were the successful bidders this year. University students do not ask a better guarantee than the name of this firm on their clothing.

There are a few vacancies in the ranks of the Pershing Rifle, that may be filled by well drilled men who have been in the battalion six months or over, or who have had an equal amount of drill elsewhere. Any man wishing to join this organization should hand his name to the captain, Charley Schwarz, or to any of the captains in the battalion. An exhibition drill will probably be given in December, and it is desired that all new men begin drill with the company at once. Drills are held from 7:15 to 8:15 on Thursday evenings.

E. G. and Clyde Lloyd, formerly university students, are now at their home in Cothenburg. Earl is working in his father's bank and doing some amateur photography on the side. He has produced some samples of very good work, which he recently sent to this city to be mounted. One of the pictures, was a duel between himself and his brother, in which the latter has just succeeded in de capitulating him. Earl is dressed in his uniform. His cap is falling to the ground in very realistic fashion, while his head a little in advance of it, has fallen, with one of the most agonizing expressions upon it. The photographer pronounced it a very clever piece of work.

Browning, King, & Co.

"BEST" AND "CHEAPEST"
PLACE TO BUY CLOTHING,
HATS AND FURNISHINGS.

No one in justice to himself can afford to ignore our special values in young men's Nobby Fall Suits. They are marvels of beauty, and are cut and made by our own experienced tailors. You get the same fit and make in our goods whether you pay $5 or $25 for your suit. Our experience of over fifty-six years of clothing manufacturing, wholesaling and retailing should be worth a great deal to you. Besides our great experience our business is conducted on the "honor bright" plan. Everything is marked in plain figures and you will find no "dark cabinet" work in our house.

MEN'S SUITS, $2.75, $3.45, $4.95, $6.50, AND $10.00, WHICH CANNOT BE DUPLICATED IN THE CITY FOR MANY DOLLARS MORE.

MONSTER SALE
on hats this week. Call and see the nobby fall shapes in stiff and Fedora hats.

IT PAYS TO TRADE WITH
Browning, King & Co.,

1013-1019 O STREET.

Big Bargains in

Ladies' Cloaks
Ladies' Underwear
Ladies' Hosiery
Ladies' Gloves
Gents' Underwear
Gents' Hosiery
Gents' Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,

1229 to 1239 O Street.

E. HALLETT, Jeweler, Optician and Engraver.

Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Clocks,
Silverware, Jewelry, etc., etc.

All goods sold engraved free of charge, and no charge made for examining the eyes.

1143 O Street - - Lincoln, Neb

You will save both
...TIME AND MONEY...

By taking the

CITY TICKET OFFICE, 1044 O Street.

TWO TRAINS DAILY

LINCOLN

Auburn, Falls City,
Atchison, St. Joseph, and Kansas City.

City Ticket Office, 1201 O Street.

H. C. TOWNSEND, Gen'l P. & T. A.
F. D. CORNELL, C. P. & T. A.

FREY & FREY, FLORISTS...

We are headquarters for choice cut roses and carnations, palms decorations at lowest prices.
Corner of Twelfth and O streets, Funke Opera House block. Tel. 334.
Lincoln Nebr.

Chas. B. Gregory C
U. of N., '91.

Office A
At 1100 O St., S
Lincoln, Neb. H

PRIESTS OF PALLAS PARADE.
(Kansas City Mo. Oct. 5-10.)
The Union Pacific will sell round trip tickets for $5.75 on October 14th to 10th, good to return 11th. Day-light trip, arriving at Kansas City 5 p. m. City ticket office, 1044 O street.

Once in a while it happens.

J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent,
Omaha, Nebraska.