

LOCALS.

The Ashland club meets next week for the purpose of reorganizing.

Percy Powers '94, has left for Chicago where he will enter a law office.

Westerfield, the barber. Has done work for students for seventeen years.

Miss Grace Leming leaves Saturday for her future home at Alta Loma, Texas.

Earnest Wigggenhorn's brother, '96, has been visiting him during the past week.

The lunch room is receiving good patronage, and no doubt will become a permanent thing.

All three literary societies will meet as usual Friday evening. The first time for several weeks.

Tuesday was a lonely day around the university. Hardly a soul ventured inside the gates.

A number of Pi Beta Phis entertained at the home of Misses Anne and Louie Stuart Hallowe'en.

Have your tonsorial work done at Westerfield's. You will get the latest style of hair cut there.

There will be a business meeting of the "Electricals," in Professor Owen's lecture room, Saturday evening.

Charles B. Gregory of the class of '91, is in the coal business at Eleventh and O streets. Call and see him.

Constance the popular barber is located at 1022 O street. He employs the best artists of any shop in the city.

Classes were slimly attended Wednesday. It was with difficulty that instructors kept the few awake who were present.

The English club meets Saturday night at the home of Miss Pound. The meeting last Saturday was postponed.

Fraternity men will find that Westerfield does the best kind of tonsorial work at his shop, 117 North Thirteenth street.

Tom Mapes who has been quite ill at Miles City Mont., is reported as being much better. He is teaching school there.

Howard Ricketts who is attending the Northwestern medical college was a visitor at the university Monday and Tuesday.

Harvey Heald came back to Nebraska to vote, from the Chicago medical college. He visited friends Thursday at the university.

Saturday evening the Kappa Kappa Gammans entertained at the home of Miss Ena Ricketts. It was a strictly Hallowe'en party.

Lehigh failed to score against the Michigan team last Saturday, the score standing, Michigan 34, Lehigh 0. Michigan played a strong line bucking game.

Lieutenant Pershing has been in Lincoln during the past week. He will go to Leavenworth for a few days but come back through Lincoln. He will be here for a few days yet.

Arthur Collet of Omaha and A. Haeker of Minneapolis were initiated by Phi Kappa Psi last Saturday. Paul Weeks was formally pledged. Flowers and cakes were sent by the sororities.

The Deilan boys' debating club will discuss the question, Saturday evening: Resolved, that no foreign corporation or individual should be allowed to own or control a newspaper in the United States.

Four students are taking Sanscrit this year, this is said to be three more than in the Chicago university. Two are studying the philosophy of Romance languages under Dean Edgren.

The Co-Op. has secured some very neat university letter head paper this year with envelopes to match. The lettering is done with a dye, and shows up well. A large stock was laid in so as to supply all demands.

Lawrence Pillsbury '96, who is now attending the Gross medical college of Denver, and Charley Elliott, '96, who is attending the Chicago medical college, visited old friends at the university during voting day. Both are members of Phi Delta Theta.

The last issue of the Rose Technic, the organ of the Rose polytechnic institute, of Terre Haute, Ind., contains a notice of the coming to that institution of A. A. Fawcett, '91. He will teach the languages, especially the Germanic there. The periodical contains a very flattering notice of his ability to undertake the work there.

The state university gets its share of honors out of the election as usual, which ever side wins. Among the representatives in the next legislature will be Edson Rich, '96, of Omaha and Paul F. Clark, '97, of Lincoln, Tom Wimberly, another Lancaster county representative, is an old university student. Hugh Lamaster, '96, is elected county attorney of Johnson county on the democratic ticket. Congressman Mercer, re-elected, is a graduate in 1890.

The stories for the Junior Annual must be typewritten and three copies handed in. The name of the author should be in a sealed envelope with the title of the story on the outside. For further specifications see Miss Jean Tuttle. Miss Tuttle says she would be much better pleased if a little more interest was manifested.

James Johnston '94, who has been practicing law in Billings Mont., has been a visitor at Delta Tau Delta hall during the past week. He leaves Monday or Tuesday in company with Art Weaver '95, for Salt Lake City, where the two will practice law together. Mr. Weaver has also been visiting with members of Delta Tau Delta during the last few days.

Word has been received that Samuel Avery a graduate from the department of chemistry, has just passed his examination at Heidelberg, Germany, for the degree of the doctor of philosophy, multa cum laude. Congratulations from Chancellor MacLean, H. H. Nicholson, Rosa Bouton, John White, R. S. Hiltner, T. L. Lyon, Benton Dales, Mary Fossler, Martin Hiltner, R. W. Thatcher, Ada Quaintance, G. W. Helmrod, E. C. Elliott and H. C. Parmelee, were cabled to Mr. Avery.

"Kate Carnegie" the last book of Ian MacLaren, has just been published by Dodd Mead and Co. The scene is laid like that of the "Bonnie Brier Bush" and "Auld Lang Syne"—in Drumtochty and a good many of our old acquaintances from those places come forward again in "Kate Carnegie." The book as well as all latest publications is to be had at Herpolsheimer and Co's book department, at about wholesale price. Also a full line of note books, fountain pens etc. etc.

FRESHMAN RECEPTION.

The reception given by the freshman in representative hall at the state capitol Friday evening was attended by about seventy-five couples. Through the energetic efforts of the committees composed of Misses Tynan and Ferris, and Messrs. Pearse, Anderson and Chambers, the hall presented an attractive appearance, and was tastefully decorated with scarlet and cream. The first number of the program was a piano solo by Miss Kate Joyce, which was highly appreciated; following this was a recitation by Miss Maryott, which was also well received. Miss Friel's vocal solo with violin obligato, by Professor Menzendorf, was much appreciated. An excellent orchestra furnished the music for the dances, which were the chief amusement of the evening. The grand march was led by Mr. Clements and Miss Schwartz. After a very pleasurable evening, the company broke up at an early hour, expressing the wish that the next freshman class might have as enjoyable a time.

HALLOWE'EN PARTIES.

Kappa Alpha Theta joined in the many celebrations of Hallowe'en with a typical party given at the home of Miss Lida Millar. Jack o'lanterns grinned upon the guests from all corners; apples and candy hung from chandeliers and doorways; bows of cracker-jack, apples, candy, nuts and raisins adorned stands and tables, invitingly. The rooms were decorated with the fraternity colors, black and yellow, and with carnations and chrysanthemums. The evening was spent in the customary tests of fortunes, ghost stories, games and forfeits. After which, pumpkin pie and milk were served to the guests seated on cushions on the floor. The festivities closed with dancing.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Millar, Dr. and Mrs. Ladd, Misses Anne Barr, Dena Loomis, Emily Weeks, Leola Vancil, Minnie Millar, Jessica Morgan, Jean Tuttle, Mabel Tuttle, Nelle Randall, Edith Schwartz, Grace MacMillan and Lida Millar. Messrs. Howard Parmelee, Harrison Oury, Clinton Norton, Harry Shedd, Bert Robbins, Charlie Weeks, Morris Hyde, Peter Lau, Paul Weeks, Karl Randall, Louis Westerman, C. Y. Smith and Fritz Kornsmeier.

U. B. D. C. DECENNIAL.

The literary and debating clubs attended en masse the decennial anniversary of the Union Boys' debating club held in chapel last Friday evening. The chapel was tastefully decorated in Union and university colors. A carefully draped band of scarlet and cream extended entirely around the balcony over the incandescent lights with excellent effect. Potted plants and smilax supplemented the light Union blue in the foreground, while gracefully draped silk flags and the significant figures '86 in old gold and '96 in scarlet and cream formed a harmonious background. The Union boys presented delicate scarlet and cream buttonholes tied with blue sash ribbons, as souvenirs from the Union girls.

The program opened at 8:15, with President A. S. Harding in the chair. The opening number was a violin solo by Professor G. C. Menzendorf, rendered with feeling and expression. The professor very courteously responded to a hearty encore, which was equally well appreciated by the audience.

President Harding then in a few aptly chosen words introduced the anniversary orator of the Union Boys' club, the club's first law-giver and scholarly alumnus, Roscoe Pound of the class of '88, who spoke in his usual entertaining way.

Miss Ora Howard then rendered in a pleasing manner Adolph Koelling's "Lu-zette," second vice graculense. The audience regretted that she did not respond to the hearty encore extended.

Chancellor MacLean was then introduced to deliver the university address. In opening he complimented the Union boys as being known by the fruits as the modest scholarly U. B. D. C. speaker who preceded him. He also expressed his enthusiasm in debate in a modest reference to the honorary membership conferred upon himself by that famous Century club, the American Whig society of Princeton university. He then spoke earnestly on "Debate as a factor in Higher Culture."

H. S. Evans, then rang with felicitous expression "The Bugler." He responded heartily to an encore.

After the program a reception was tendered Chancellor MacLean and Roscoe Pound in Union hall.

SHAW-SHERMAN.

The marriage of two university people so seldom occurs that it naturally is accompanied by much interest. It is usually the case that a wedding of this kind occurs so long after the departure of the people from college, that they are remembered by a few of the older students only. There was a notable departure from this rule last Sunday when Eugene Buren Sherman and Maud Shaw were united in marriage. Both parties were in the university year before last and both are widely known throughout the university.

Eugene Sherman was a graduate of the class of '95, entering here in his senior year having taken work formerly at the Northwestern university. He represented Nebraska in the interstate oratorical contest and in the Kansas-Nebraska debate. In the first instance he won the highest rank ever granted to an orator from this institution. He was a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, and will be remembered as the leading dramatist for the excellent senior play.

The bride attended the university during the years of '94 and '95, and was one of the most popular young ladies who ever entered the university. She was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's aunt, and in many ways gave evidence of the contracting parties being college students. The ceremony was performed by Chancellor MacLean, and though brief was beautiful and impressive. The rooms were decorated with red and white carnations.

The list of guests was limited to relatives and intimate friends of the family.
