Baseball Boys Unfortunate During First Innings.

SOME COSTLY ERRORS MADE

During the First Few Innings of Each Contest the Boys Failed to Put Up Their Usual Game—The Scores.

EVANSTON, Ill., May 18.—(Special Correspondence to The Nebraskan.)—Thus far the team has played in hard luck. The boys have made errors abundantly at critical times, and especially in the first part of the games already played. This was true even of the Drake game. For the first four innings the boys seemed to be dead at the bat, though their playing was fair. After they woke up they had little trouble in hitting the ball. The detailed score tells the story:

THE IOWA GAME.

The result of the Iowa game ought really to have been 14 to 1, but some costly errors were made which made the result otherwise. The detailed score shows the following:

AT NOTRE DAME.

The boys have hardly yet figured out how they lost the Notre Dame game. Gibson pitched a strong game for the home team and the boys had trouble in finding him. Playing ball every day with hard railroad travel is telling upon the boys' playing. They can't put up their usually strong game.

The boys were entertained at Notre Dame in true collegiate style. They went down Sunday afternoon and the college boys took charge of them and showed them all they had. The visitors were not even allowed to pay their own bus fares. The detailed score tells the story of the game:

THE NORTHWESTERN GAME.

After the third inning the Northwestern game was a pretty one. After the pitchers were substituted only one hit was made, and that was a misjudged fly. The only other man to reach first was one hit by a pitched ball. It was pitiful to see how the Northwesterners jumped onto Robby's delivery. Seven hits in one inning. Tom Creigh fumbled once; that made him mad and he did it again. It seems that our boys really did, or at least could, outplay Northwestern.

THE CHICAGO GAME.

On last Thursday afternoon Nebraska met the Chicago university team and was defeated by the close score of 4 to 2. This is the fourth consecutive defeat which the boys have experienced on the trip, but they have played good ball notwithstanding. The game was lost in the first inning, when Nebraska made two costly errors and three runs resulted.

Chicago's crack pitcher, Henry Clarke, struck out ten men, but it will be seen that the boys made seven hits off him, while Gordon held Chicago down to five hits. After the first inning Nebraska braced up and put up a fine game, but could not overcome Chicago's lead. The score:

BASEBALL BOUNCES.

Friel, who was one of the mainstays of the team last year, has inspired the players with confidence by his presence behind the bat. "Wally" has met many of his old friends on the trip.

very pleasant evening with one of Joe Sargeant's lady friends in Chicago. Nevertheless, "Deke" has been playing his same old steady game.

Captain Packard works like a veteran. He has got his batting eye and seems at home in the center garden.

Except in base-running, Nebraska has done better work than any team she has met on the trip. With "Dutch" Wells out of the game, Nebraska is handicapped in base-running.

The boys fattened their batting averages at Drake and Iowa City.

That base hits are things that are only paralled out to the best of them is being realized by the players.

The boys' study hours have been cut down, as part of the day is now being devoted to batting practice.

The team spent Sunday in Chicago, and attended the Congregational church in a body.

Kindler and Benedict were sick at Iowa City, but the rest of the team has enjoyed perfect health.

Reeder has been dubbed "Snapper" by the boys, and he well deserves the name by the way in which he has been picking up line hits off the fence.

Cowgill has practiced faithfully since leaving home. He will be able to dispute his right to a position on the team with everybody next year.

Eddie Gordon, the "boy wonder," is undoubtedly one of the strongest all-around men on the team. Whether in the box or in the field he plays the same steady game which has always been characteristic of him.

Of course it is unnecessary to say that Robinson plays a good game.

Ike Pace has proved to be an excellent manager and he deserves a great deal of credit for the success of the trip.

Harry Benedict has won many friends by his sharp, snappy fielding and fine batting. Benny's playing would credit a league team.

Creigh has been captaining the boys on the trip and he is a decided success.

Inter-Collegiate Field Day.

The intercollegiate field day contest on the campus last Saturday proved to the neighboring sister colleges that the university still holds her own. Wesleyan and Doane both brought down a crowd to witness the field sports. The bleachers were well filled with spectators. Wesleyan colors were in the majority, as they expected to carry the day with their old-time runner and the colored jumper who was able, they said, to jump as far and long as you could get someone to measure the distance.

Considerable time was taken up by the judges in deciding on a protest that was raised against Cunningham of Wesleyan, on the ground of his being a professional. Two witnesses swore that they had seen the gentleman run for money. Cunningham did not deny that money was spent on him, but said it was given him to pay expenses. The Wesleyan combine was completely spoiled by the judges' first decision and threatened to take its toys and go home. Finally the judges allowed Cunningham to run under protest. The protest was raised because of the fact that those who run with a professional when money is charged as gate fee, even when there is no prize or purse up as a stake, are classed as professionals.

The first event was the shot put, which was won by Bahr of Doane, at the same distance that Turner threw it on local field day, 21 feet 11 1/2 inches.

The next event was the event of the day, the 100-yard dash. There were six entries. Wesleyan was confident of Cunningham winning. As the shot was fired Andresen and Collet showed their training and were off at the same instant, with the rest together. All ran hard, with the university boys holding their own. Andresen finished first, fully two yards in the lead, with Cunningham just enough ahead of Collet to get second place. The time was 19 4/5, which was considered excellent on an uphill track.

The hammer throw was won by Carver of Wesleyan at 80.7, which was a good throw for a man of Carver's size. His shoulders and arms were well developed for such work.

Klye who, after 5 feet 1 inch had been reached, were the only contestants. Andresen jumped at 5 feet 4 1/2 inches and Kyle 5 feet 4 1/2 inches.

The 200-yard dash was won by R. D. Andresen, who broke the university record of last year, making it in 23 1/2 seconds and finishing fully a rod ahead of Cunningham. Pepon finished third.

The standing broad jump was won by Moore of Wesleyan at 9:2 1/2, with Lee of Doane second at 9:2 1/2.

The 880-yard run was won by Noyce of Doane, who set a hard pace from the first and it was thought that he would kill himself before the finish, but he held the same hard pace and won by several rods in 2 minutes and 14 4/5 seconds.

Benedict easily won the hop, step and jump over Moore at 41 feet 9 inches. He jumped several more times and made 40 feet 11 inches.

The pole vault was easy for Benedict, who vaulted 4 inches higher than the record and made 9 feet and raised the stick about a foot. It was thought that he could do considerably better, as he never knocked the stick down at all and jumped just enough to win.

The 440-yard run was awarded to Andresen in 54 4/5 seconds.

Running broad jump went to W. E. Andresen at 19 feet 8 inches, which is a record-breaker of over two feet for the university record.

The hurdle race was won by Patten of Doane in 20 3/5 seconds, with Andresen second.

The mile run was won by Noyce, who made good time, running it in 5 minutes and 7 seconds.

The points were scored as follows: First place, 5; second place, 3; third place, 1. Results were: Doane, 35 points; Wesleyan, 32 points; University of Nebraska, 50.

The officers and managers were as follows: Officers—Referee, Gelsthardt; Judges, Green, Pound, Raley; Inspectors, Hollingshead, Wilson, Don Carlos; clerk, Foredyce; Starter, Lieutenant Hardin; timekeepers, Ord, Clark; marshal, Captain Guilfoyle. Managers—University of Nebraska, G. C. Shedd; Doane college, A. Houston; Wesleyan, S. L. Greene.

SOMBRERO SUBSCRIPTIONS.

After an amount of work that has jeopardized credits, the junior annual is an actuality. Every college of importance looks upon its annual as a matter of course, but the present one must receive better support or there is little hope of issuing another one for some time. There are still unredemmed some 300 subscriptions. The number was issued on the strength of these subscriptions and every one let slide is not only so much dead loss to the business managers, who have taken the entire financial responsibility, but it is so much in the hole.

If all the annuals subscribed for are paid for the cost will be cleared up, otherwise the business managers have got to stand the difference. The chancellor has backed up the undertaking from first to last, but less than one-fifth of the faculty have taken even one book. With only one week of the semester left, it is urged that everybody step up and do the right thing. Every subscriber as he takes his book from the Co-operative will be checked off from the list and there ought to be none to be carried over to next year or ad infinitum.

The pupils of Miss Schofield gave a pleasing recital in the chapel Thursday evening. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was small. The program, therefore, will be repeated Saturday evening.

"Mignon," A. Thomas.

Two songs from "Die Winterreise," Schubert, "Solitude," "The Inn."

Piano solo.

"Slumber Song," Charles F. Dennee.

Album Leaf No. 3, Grieg.

Canzato, op. 66, Charles Becker, Irene Davison McMichael.

Pupils of Miss Susie Schofield.

"Flor di Margherita," L. Arditi.

Violin solo, "Romance," Becker, Willis Madra.

Scotch ballad in "La Dame Blanche," Robin Adair.

"Laughing Song," from "Manon Lescaut," Auber.

Kingsley's book, "Titus" and "Wrestler of Philippi," 5c. each. School dictionaries, translations, fountain pen, note books, history paper at lowest prices. Book department, Herpolsheimer & Co.

The junior girls held a meeting Thursday afternoon and decided upon their class insignia. During commencement week next year they will wear caps and gowns, and display the class pin.
