PERSONAL.

Mrs. Judge Macomber visited her daughter over Sunday.
 Donald Sisson of Beatrice was university visitor Thursday.
 Margie Winger leaves tomorrow to visit her sister, Mrs. True.
 A. W. Sabine of Beatrice visited his son Ralph a few days last week.
 George Sidler of York visited at the Phi Psi house a part of last week.
 John W. Patton of Omaha visited at the Delta Epsilon rooms last Thursday.
 Cecil Pugh has resumed work after a week's visit at his home in Humbolt.
 C. M. Barr was in Omaha a couple of days last week on track team business.
 Dexter Clinton is about the university again, after a two-months' surveying tour in Wyoming.
 Jessie B. Jury, '95, Ethel Hendre, Mae Barton and Clyde Ramey of Wilber, visited the University Friday.
 Herberta Jaynes sailed from New York last Saturday to travel in Europe. Miss Jaynes expects to be abroad two years.
 Charlotte and Mrs. MacLean gave a reception at their pleasant home Thursday evening to the visiting delegates and contestants. The dean of the college, W. J. Bryan, Gov. Poynter and a few leading citizens were present.
 Eleanor Raymond is visiting Mae Colson at Fremont. We are pleased to note in the Fremont Tribune that the two young ladies gave a very pretty concert in that city Friday evening. Miss Raymond gave the vocal numbers and Miss Colson the instrumental.
 Jules Sedgwick, '95, is meeting his Phi Psi brothers. He returns to Rush medical college soon to go through the formal proceedings of graduation from that institution. Jules expects to spend a year and a half in a Chicago hospital before taking up the practice of his profession.

 Owing to the threatening weather last Tuesday evening the band postponed its concert until Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Friday being a half holiday a very large crowd took advantage of the opportunity to hear some excellent music.
 Dr. and Mrs. Bessey and Prof. and Mrs. Hodgman gave enjoyable tea parties to about one hundred of their friends last week on Thursday and Friday evenings. On both nights the tea was followed by several bright responses to toasts proposed.
 A crowd of fraternity people, while bicycle riding last Tuesday evening, were caught in the rain. An adjournment was made to the Phi Psi house, where a jolly good time was had. The evening was spent in music and dancing. Refreshments were served.

The Delta U. fraternity gave a tally-ho party at the pentha-on and base ball game Saturday afternoon. Besides the active chapter George Farrier, D. E., the contestant from Indiana, Messrs. Ellis and Dimitt of Indiana, Dean Ringer and George Kimball occupied seats on the coach.
 The annual May luncheon of the Y. W. C. A. will be given in the armory Wednesday, May 10, from 12 to 1:30. The proceeds will be devoted to the Geneva fund. All who remember the success of last year's luncheon will be glad to avail themselves of this opportunity to get an excellent dinner.
 The girls of the college settlement sewing school to the number of thirty-five concluded the year's work with a social at the home of Mrs. T. M. Hodgman. Refreshments and games made the afternoon an enjoyable one. The school, as usual, has been a success this year despite many obstacles.
 Prof. T. M. Hodgman has been invited to deliver an address before the alumni association of the Louisville, Nebr., high school on June 2, and also before the state assembly of the epworth league to be held in Lincoln in August. The subject for this latter address is, "Prohibition in College Communities."

Margaret Hall, who left the University in '95, has since graduated at the Potsdam normal in New York and has taught for two years at Malone, N. Y. Her many friends will be pleased to hear that she will return this fall and graduate from the university. She says many kind things of the institution in a letter recently written to Prof. Hodgman.
