

On account of Miss Barr's illness the gymnasium exhibition has been postponed to the 11th of May.

Professor Bessey lectures in the Brownell block for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday the 24th.

The students attending the opera Thursday night must have noticed that the professors were out in force.

The tri-Deltas held an initiation meeting last week. They took in as new members Maysie Ames and Daisy Bonell.

V. P. Sheldon has been elected manager, and Otis Wipple assistant manager of the football team; and Bert Wilson assistant manager of the base-ball team.

Great preparations are being made for the exhibition of the electrical engineering department to be given May 4th.

Prof. F. W. Taylor left last week for a tour through the United States in the interest of the Mexican exposition.

Mr. Hall, who has had charge of the hygiene lectures during Miss Barr's illness, has returned to his home in Iowa.

The Delians are to have the west room of the library for a society room next year. This will be a great improvement upon their present location.

The Literary Magazine, edited by the English club, has gone to the press. It will be all that the editors hoped, which is saying a good deal.

The lecture upon mono-metallism given by Mr. Lambertson before the Political Economy club fulfilled all our expectations. It was greatly appreciated.

Work on the new library building has begun in earnest, and from present indications it looks as if the new building will be completed by the first of September.

Miss Wigginhorn is spending a few days in Lincoln visiting some of her friends and classmates. It seems quite natural to see her around the University again.

Miss Carrie Coffin, formerly a University student, was married to Mr. Cloyd Presson, April 10th. Mr. and Mrs. Presson will make their home in San Jose, Cal.

Many of the class in entomology have received some very interesting cards through the University mail box. They are very effective in the way of suggestions.

Mr. Florine, oldest son of Prof. C. A. E. D. Holmes, is thinking seriously of becoming a military gentleman, as his father has been so successful in that line lately.

There will be a library class in connection with the summer school this year. A special course of lectures will be given for the local librarians and the teachers of the State.

Miss Joe Mansfield played a violin solo for a special program of the Wesleyan Everetts Wednesday, the 17th. The tri-Deltas accompanied her and had quite a jolly time.

The English Club held a pleasant social meeting at the home of Miss Broady, April 21st. There was no especial program. The evening was spent in talking of Ibsen's "Little Eyolf."

Gossip has it that Doc. Abbott will soon take up his abode at the Nebraska Hospital for the Insane—as a patient of course. His many friends sincerely hope that he may be speedily cured.

Professor Barret's history class of last semester gave him a pleasant surprise party on the evening of the twentieth. They brought the provisions and a great share of the fun along with them.

Every member of the literary societies should be present at the Union meeting of the 26th. The future development and perhaps use of the literary societies is somewhat dependent upon the decisions made on that occasion. All should be interested in the prospective new society building.

"Marcella," Mrs. Humphrey Ward's greatest book is being sold at Herpolsheimer & Co's Book Department for 39c.